ADVERTISEMENT TO THE STEREOTYPE EDITION.

THE reputation acquired by the first edition of the Quarto Bible printed and published by ISAAC COLLINS, at Trenton, New-Jersey, and the importance given to it by a number of printers in this country, who have adopted it as their standard for correctness, have naturally excited inquiry respecting the means that were used to render it worthy of such distinguished preference. A brief statement of these, it is believed, will not, in this place, be improper, nor unacceptable to the public.

Perceiving that the different European copies of the Bible, even those printed at the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh, often varied, and sometimes in the use of important words, the Publisher deemed it an object of the first magnitude to ascertain, if possible, which text was the most correct.

With this view, several characters, eminent for their piety and biblical learning, were appointed, by their respective religious societies, to superintend the work. Among these were the late Dr. Witherspoon, President of Princeton College, New-Jersey, his successor President Smith, James F. Armstrong, a clergyman of Trenton, and Dr. Samuel Jones. Some of these persons, James F. Armstrong, in particular, being near the press, assisted also in reading and correcting the proof-sheets. During the necessary collation of the text, recourse was had to the most authentic copies of the Bible in the original languages, and to the best English versions. Such unwearied assiduity could have been requited only by the complete success with which it was crowned.

In the year 1807, Collins, Perkins and Company, published the second edition of this work, which in every respect equalled the one printed at Trenton, and was sold in a short period of time. The third edition, consisting of eight thousand copies, was completed by the present Publishers in 1814; and already is a new supply demanded by the Public.

Being thus encouraged by the favourable reception of the former editions of "COLLINS'S Bible," and hoping, by unremitting care and attention, to merit a continuance of patronage, the Publishers have adopted the highly important mode of printing with STEREOTYPE PLATES, by which a permanence is given to the correctness of the work. In Europe, the Stereotype Art is considered of such importance as to be generally adopted for standard works; and from its acknowledged superiority, it is daily becoming more generally used. One peculiarity of this mode of printing is, that no accumulation of errors can take place; and, should a few faults have escaped notice in the first impressions of a book, they can, with facility, be corrected. Thus, in Stereotype, a perfection of accuracy may be attained—a desideratum on which there needs no comment, particularly when considered in reference to the Holy Scriptures. Through these means, the Publishers feel confident of being able to exhibit editions of the Bible entirely free from errors, and rendered additionally valuable by every other requisite of good printing.

The Stereotype Editions will be enriched by the addition of Canne's valuable Marginal References, and the comprehensive Concordance of John Brown. Engravings of a superior quality, copied from designs of eminent painters, will be supplied to those who may order them; and every attention will be given to have the work bound in the best manner, whether in a plain or elegant style.

New-York, 1816.

TO THE READER.

AS the DEDICATION of the English translation of the BIBLE to king James the first of England seems to be wholly unnecessary for the purposes of edification, and perhaps on some accounts improper to be continued in an American edition, the Editors have substituted a short account of the translations of the Old and New Testaments from the original Hebrew and Greek in which they were written.

To the Jews was first committed the care of the sacred Writings, and for many ages they were in a manner confined to that chosen people. There was then no need of translations into other languages; yet was the providence of God particularly manifest in their preservation and purity. The Jews were so faithful to their important trust, that, when copies of the law or the prophets were transcribed, they observed the most scrupulous exactness: they not only diligently compared the one with the other, but even counted the number of letters in each book, and compared and recorded the numbers.

THE first translations that were made of the Old Testament were after the Babylonish captivity. They are called the Targums, which word in the Chaldean language signifies Translations. They are also often called the Chaldee Paraphrases; some of them are exact translations of different parts of Scripture; others are properly paraphrases, containing enlargements, explanations, and even additions. Several of them are yet extant, and they are often mentioned by the ancient fathers of the Christian church. Some have affirmed that the five books of Moses and that of Joshua were translated into Greek before the days of Alexander the Great. But the most remarkable translation of the Old Testament into Greek is called the Septuagint, which, if the opinion of some eminent writers is to be credited, was made in the reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus, about 260 years before the Christian era. At any rate it is undoubtedly the most ancient that is now extant, and on many accounts deserving notice, though not to be put on a level with the Hebrew text, as has been sometimes done.

THE New Testament was originally written in Greek; and no sooner was the gospel spread through the nations than it was found necessary to translate the inspired Writings for each into its proper tongue. Some translations of the Old Testament, different from the Septuagint, were made into Greek from the year of Christ's birth 128 to 200. It is generally believed that the church of Antioch was favoured with a Syrian translation of the Bible as early as the year 100. The Ethiopians of Abyssinia have a version of the Bible, which they ascribe to Frumentius, of the fourth century. Chrysostom, who lived in the end of the fourth, and Theodoret, who lived in the middle of the fifth century, both inform us that they had the Syrian, Indian, Persian, Armenian, Ethiopic, and Scythian versions. The ancient Egyptians had the Scriptures translated into their language. The Georgians have a version in their ancient language. The most ancient German translation is supposed to have been made by Ulphilas, A. D. 360. The Old Testament of all these translations, except the Syrian, is taken from the Septuagint, and not immediately from the Hebrew text.

WE will now give some account of the translations of the Bible into the English language. There have been some who have affirmed that Adelme, Bishop of Sherburn, who lived in the beginning of the eighth century, translated the Psalms into the Saxon tongue. That however is uncertain, as some of the best historians make no mention of it; yet it is possible, as he was a man of great parts, and of great learning for those times, and said to be the first Englishman who wrote in the Latin language. About the same time, or a little after, Bede, commonly called the venerable Bede, translated some parts of the New Testament, some say the whole Bible, but that is not probable. Near 200 years later, king Alfred translated the Psalms into the same language. In 1382 Wickliff finished his translation of the Bible, which is yet extant; that is to say, there are copies of it in some publick and private libraries. All these translations were made from the Vulgate. In the reign of Henry the eighth several editions of the Old and New Testaments were published in English; one of the most remarkable is that of William Tyndal in 1530. The translation of the New Testament was made from the original Greek, but probably the Old Testament either from the Latin of the Vulgate, or the Greek of the Septuagint. This was soon followed by the improvements of Coverdale and Mathews. By order of the king, Toustal, Bishop of Durham, and Heath, Bishop of Rochester, made a new translation, which was published in 1541: but, not pleasing Henry, it was suppressed by authority. In the reign of king Edward the sixth, another translation was made; two editions of which were published, one in 1549, and the other in 1551. In the reign of queen Elizabeth another translation was made, which, being revised by some of the most learned of the Bishops, went by the name of the Bishops' Bible. This professed to be translated from the Hebrew of the Old Testament, and the Greek of the New, though in some instances, when there was a difference, it preferred the Septuagint to the Hebrew.

THIS last circumstance, with some others, induced king James the first to select fifty-four persons, eminent in learning, and particularly well acquainted with the original languages in which the Old and New Testaments were written, to make a new translation of the whole Bible. In the year 1607, forty-seven of those persons, the other seven probably having died, assembled together, and arranged themselves into committees, to each of which a portion was given to translate. They were favoured not only with the best translations, but with the most accurate copies, and the various readings of the original text. After about three years assiduous labour, they severally completed the parts assigned them. They then met together, and while one read the translation newly formed, the rest had each a copy of the original text in his hand, or some one of the ancient versions, and when any difficulty occurred they stopped, till by common consultation it was determined what was most agreeable to the inspired Original. This translation was first published A. D. 1610, and is the one which has been ever since that time printed by publick authority, and generally used in the British dominions. It may be added with safety, that it has been generally approved by men of learning and piety of all denominations, of which its having never been superseded by any other, for one hundred and eighty years, is a sufficient proof.

THE publisher has only further to add, that he has made the following impression from the Oxford edition of 1784 by Jackson and Hamilton—and has been particularly attentive in the revisal and correction of the proof-sheets with the Cambridge edition of 1688 by John Field—with the Edinburgh edition of 1775 by Kincaid, and, in all variations, with the London edition of 1772 by Eyre and Strahan—that where there was any difference in words, or in the omission or addition of words, among these, he followed that which appeared to be most agreeable to the Hebrew of Arias Montanus, and to the Greek of Arias Montanus and Leusden, and always adopted some one of the above-mentioned English copies as his authority, except in the mode of spelling, in which he has generally followed Johnson.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

† G E N E S I S.

C H A P. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 Also the appointment of food.

IN the beginning ^a God created the ^b heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void ; and darkness was upon the face of the deep : and the ^c Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And ^d God said, Let there be light : and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good : and God [†] divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the [†] evening and the morning were the first day.

6 [†] And God said, ^e Let there be [†] a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament : and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 [†] And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto ^f one place, and let the dry land appear : and it was so.

10 And God called the ^g dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas : and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the Earth [†] bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth : and it was so.

12 And the Earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his ^h kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind : and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 [†] And God said, Let there be ⁱ lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide [†] the day from the night : and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years :

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth : and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights ; the greater light to [†] rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night : he made the stars also.

17 And God ^k set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth, 18 And to ^l rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness : and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath [†] life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind : and God saw that it was good.

22 And God ^m blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas ; and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind : and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind : and God saw that it was good.

26 And God said, ⁿ Let us make man in ^o our image, after our likeness ; and let them have ^p dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image ; in the 6 And when the woman ² saw that the tree ³ was good for food, and that it ⁴ was † pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and ⁵ gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were ¹ opened, and they knew that they ² were naked: and they sewed ³ fig-leaves together, and made themselves || aprons.

8 And they heard the ¹ voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the † cool of the day: and Adam and his wife ² hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where ^{art} thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was ¹ afraid, because I ² was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou ¹ wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 And the man said, ^o The woman, whom thou gavest to ^{be} with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What ^{is} this that thou hast done? And the woman said, ^p The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou ^{art} ^a cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put ^r enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: † it shall bruise thy ^s head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception: ^t in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire ^{shall be} to thy husband, and he shall ^u rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: ^x cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life:

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

19 In the ^z sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou ^{art}, and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she was the ^a mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make ^b coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and ^c eat, and live for ever;

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, ^d to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he ^e drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a ^f flaming sword which turned ^{every way}, to keep the way of the tree of life.

6 And [†] it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it ^k grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth; [†] both man and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah [†] found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was ^m a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah ⁿ walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt ^o before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, ^p The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is ^q filled with violence through them: and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher-wood: rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it ^q: the length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof: with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, ^r I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth ^s shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant: and ^t thou shalt come into the ark; thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, ^u two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind; of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind; two of every sort shall come ^x unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 ^y Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did ^z he.

CHAP. VII.

1 Noah with his family and the living creatures enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, ^a Come thou and all thy ^b house into the ark: for thee have ^c I seen righteous before me in this ^d generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by [†] sevens, the male and his female; and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and ^e I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I [†] destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and ^f his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, [†] because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth.

9 There went ^g in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And ^h it came to pass, after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the ⁱ great deep broken up, and the ^k windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the self-same day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, [†] two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the ^m LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth: and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters ⁿ prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark ^o went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the ^p high hills that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the ^q mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and ^r every man:

5 And the waters [†] decreased continually, until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

7 And he sent forth a ^f raven, which went forth [†] to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth ^g a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground:

9 But the dove ^h found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he ⁱ stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark:

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an ^k olive-leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

14 And in the second month, on the ^m seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their [†] kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 [†] And Noah builded ^p an altar unto the LORD, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled [†] a sweet savour: and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ^q ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have ^r done.

1 One language in the world. 3 The building of Babel. 5 The confusion of tongues. 10 The generations of Shem. 27 The generations of Terah the father of Abram. 31 Terah goeth from Ur to Haran.

AND the whole ^a earth was of one [†] language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they ^b journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, ^c Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had ^d brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose ^e top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us ^f a name, lest we be ^g scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the LORD ^h came down to see the city and the tower, which the ⁱ children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, ^k Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, ^l let us go down, and there ^m confound their language, that they may ⁿ not understand one another's speech.

8 So the LORD ^o scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived, after he begat Arphaxad, five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and ^p begat [†] Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived, after he begat Salah, four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived, after he begat Eber, four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat || Peleg:

17 And Eber lived, after he begat Peleg, four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu: 19 And Peleg lived, after he begat Reu, two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat || Serug.

21 And Reu lived, after he begat Serug, two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived, after he begat Nahor, two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 And Nahor lived, after he begat Terah, an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat ^q Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in ^r Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was ^s Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of ^t Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And ^u Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan: and they came unto ^v Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

C H A P. XII.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ. 4 He departeth with Lot from Haran. 6 He journeyeth through Canaan, 7 which is promised him in a vision. 10 He is driven by a famine into Egypt. 11 Fear maketh him feign his wife to be his sister. 14 Pharaoh having taken her from him, by plagues is compelled to restore her.

NOW the LORD ^a had said unto Abram, ^b Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will ^c shew thee:

2 And I will make of thee ^d a great nation, and I will ^e bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and ^f in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he ^g departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had ^h gotten in Haran: and they went forth to go into the land

7 And the LORD ⁿ appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto ^o thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he ^p removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east; and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was ^q a famine ^r in the land: and Abram ^s went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a ^t fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This ^u is his wife; and they will ^v kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art ^w my sister; that it may be well with me for thy sake: and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram ^x was come into Egypt, the Egyptians ^y beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The ^z princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh; and the woman ^a was taken into Pharaoh's ^b house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD ^c plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What ^d is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She ^e is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now, therefore, behold thy wife, take ^f her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they ^g sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt: 7 By disagreement they part asunder. 10 Lot goeth to wicked Sodom. 14 God reneweth the promise to Abram: 18 He removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar.

AND Abram ^h went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the ⁱ south.

2 And Abram ^j was ^k very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he ^l went on his journeys from the south, even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el, and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had ^m made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 And Lot also, which went with Abram, ⁿ had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might ^o dwell together: for their substance ^p was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a ^q strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite ^r dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, ^s Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we ^t be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: ^u If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it ^v was ^w well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.

11 Then Lot ^x chose him ^y all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom ^z were wicked, ^a and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, to ^b thee will I give it, and to ^c thy seed ^d for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the ^e dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land, in the ^f length of it, and in the breadth of it: for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which ^g is in Hebron, and build there ^h an altar unto the LORD.

15 And he ^w divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he ^x brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to ^y meet him, (after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him,) at the valley of Saveh, which is the ^z king's dale.

18 And ^{aa} Melchizedek king of Salem brought ^{ab} forth bread and wine; and he was the ^{ac} priest of the most high God.

20 And he ^{af} blessed be the most high God, which hath ^{ag} delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have ^{ah} lift up my hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not ^{ai} take from a thread even to a shoe-latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, ^{aj} lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich:

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram ^{ak} in a vision, saying, ^{al} Fear not, Abram: I am thy ^{am} shield, and thy exceeding ^{an} great reward.

2 And Abram said, LORD God, what wilt thou give me, ^{ao} seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, ^{ap} one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own ^{aq} bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now towards heaven, and tell the ^{ar} stars, if thou be able to number them. And he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

6 And he ^{as} believed ^{at} in the LORD; and ^{au} he counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of ^{av} ^{aw} Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, LORD God, ^{ax} whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, ^{ay} Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and ^{az} divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another; but the birds divided he not.

1 Abraham entertaineth three angels. Sarah is reproved for laughing at the strange promise. 17 The destruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham; 23 Abraham maketh intercession for the men thereof.

AND the LORD ^a appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent-door in the heat of the day:

2 And he lift up his eyes, and looked, and, ^b lo, ^b three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ^c ran to meet them from the tent-door, and ^d bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found ^e favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and ^f wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of ^g bread, and

^b comfort ye your hearts; after that you shall pass on: for ^a therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly, ^a three measures of ^a fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf ^a tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he ^a stood by them under the tree, and they did ^a eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the ^a tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly ^a return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent-door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, and ^a well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the ^a manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah ^a laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, ^a my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, ^a Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child which am old?

14 Is any thing ^a too hard for the LORD? At ^a the time appointed ^a I will return unto thee according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah ^a denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them ^b to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which ^c I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed ^d in him?

19 For ^e I know him, that he will ^f command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because the ^a cry of ^a Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 I ^a will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will ^a know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham ^a stood yet before the LORD.

23 And Abraham ^a drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy ^a the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner,

² And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, ^c and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, ^d Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

³ And he ^e pressed upon them greatly; and they ^f turned in unto him, and entered into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake ^g unleavened bread, and they did eat.

⁴ But ^h before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, ⁱ both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

⁵ And ^j they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may ^k know them.

⁶ And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, ⁷ And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

⁸ Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, ^m bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the ⁿ shadow of my roof.

¹² ^u And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, ^v bring them out of this place:

¹⁷ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that ^{ad} he said, Escape ^{ae} for thy life; ^{af} look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the ^{ag} mountain, lest thou be consumed.

¹⁸ And Lot said unto them, Oh, ^{ah} not so, my lord:

The son of my people.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun was ^a risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the Lord rained upon ^a Sodom, and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and ^a that which grew upon the ground.

26 But his wife ^b looked back from behind him, and she became ^a a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where ^c he stood before the Lord:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the ^a smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God ^d remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt ^e in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; who feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and ^f there is ^a not a man in the earth ^g to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 ^a Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father ^a drink wine that night: and the first-born went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the first-born said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child ^b by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a son, and called his name ^c Moab: the same is the father of the ^c Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name ^c Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

1 Abraham sojourneth at Gerar, 2 denieth his wife, and loseth her. 3 Abimelech is reproved for her in a dream. 9 He rebuketh Abraham, 14 restoreth Sarah, 16 and reproveth her. 17 He is healed by Abraham's prayer.

AND Abraham journeyed ^a from thence towards the south country, and dwelled between ^b Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, ^a She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But ^d God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but ^a a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had ^e not come near her: ^f ch. 4, 1. and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also ^a a righteous nation? ^g verses 17, 18.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, ^a Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also ^a withheld thee from sinning ^a against me: therefore ^d suffered I thee not to touch her. ^b 1 Kings 21, 29. ^c Jonah 3, 10. ^d Prov. 21, 1. ^e 1 Sam. 25, 26. ^f ch. 31, 7. ^g 1 Ps. 51, 4. ^h chap. 39, 9. ⁱ Heb. gave her not. ^j Psal. 81, 12. ^k m Jer. 14, 15. ^l n Jer. 14, 11. ^o 1 Kings 13, 6. ^p e Lev. 6, 4. ^q 7. ^r p 2 Sam. 24, 17. ^s ch. 12, 15. ^t q Job 1, 5.

7 Now, therefore, restore the man ^a his wife; for he is ^a a prophet, and he ^a shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou ^a restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, ^b thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech ^a rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a ^a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. ^b 1 Pet. 2, 14. ^c s Rom. 2, 14. ^d ch. 38, 24. ^e Lev. 20, 10. ^f 2 Sam. 12, 9. ^g 10, 11.

12 And yet indeed she is ^a my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to ^a wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother. ^b Heb. 11, 8.

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and women-servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given ^a thy brother a thousand ^a pieces of silver; behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes unto all that are with thee, and with all other: ^b thus she was reproved. ^c verse 3. ^d Prov. 27, 5. ^e z Jonah 1, 6.

1 Isaac is born: 4 He is circumcised. 6 Sarah's joy. 9 Hagar and Ishmael are cast forth. 15 Hagar in distress. 17 The angel comforteth her. 22 Abimelech's covenant with Abraham at Beer-sheba.

AND the LORD ^a visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah ^b as he had spoken:

2 For Sarah ^c conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the ^d set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, ^e Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, being ^f eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, ^g so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, ^b Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children ⁱ suck? for I have borne ^h him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was ^k weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the ^l same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne unto Abraham, ^m mocking:

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, ⁿ Cast out this bond-woman and her son: for the son of this bond-woman shall not be ^o heir with my son, ^p even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight, ^q because of his son.

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad, and because of thy bond-woman: in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for ^r in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bond-woman will I ^s make a nation, because he ^t is thy seed.

14 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave ^u it unto Hagar, (putting ^v it on her shoulder,) and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and ^w wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was ^x spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went and sat her down over against ^y him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the ^z death of the child. And she sat over against ^a him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar?

fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a ^b well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his ^c mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that ^d Abimelech, and Pichol the chief captain of his host, spake unto Abraham, saying, ^e God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now, therefore, ^f swear unto me here by God, ^g that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: ^h but according to the kindness that ⁱ I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, ^j I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of ^k a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, ^l I wot not who hath done this thing; neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I ^m of it but to-day.

27 And Abraham ⁿ took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe-lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe-lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, ^o For these seven ewe-lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be ^p a witness unto me that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place ^q Beer-sheba; because there they swore both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: Then Abimelech rose up, and Pichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, ^r the everlasting God.

3 And Abraham ^g rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt-offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lift up his eyes, and ^h saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, ⁱ Abide you here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and ^k come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and ^l laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood; but where ^m is the ⁿ lamb for a burnt-offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, ^o God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt-offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of: and Abraham built ^p an altar there, and laid the wood in order; and ^q bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife ^r to slay his son.

11 And the ^s angel of the Lord called unto him ^t out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, ^u Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now ^v I know that thou ^w fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, ^x behind him ^y a ram caught in ^z a thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt-offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place ^{||} Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the Lord ^{||} it shall be seen.

1 Abraham sweareth his servant : 10 The servant's journey : 12 His prayer : 14 His sign. 15 Rebekah meeteth him, 18 fulfilleth his sign, 22 receiveth jewels, 23 sheweth her kindred, 25 and inviteth him home. 26 The servant blesseth God : 29 Laban entertaineth him. 34 The servant sheweth his message : 50 Laban and Bethuel approve it. 53 Rebekah consenteth to go : 62 Isaac meeteth her.

AND Abraham was old, and [†] well stricken in age : and the LORD ^a had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his ^b eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand ^c under my thigh ;

4 But thou shalt go unto ^g my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, ^h Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land : must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest ?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou, that thou bring not my son ⁱ thither again.

7 The LORD God of heaven, which ^k took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land, he shall send ^l his angel before thee ; and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be ^m clear from this my oath : only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 And the servant took ten camels, of the camels of his master, and departed ; (for all the goods of his master were in his hand ;) and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels ⁿ to kneel down without the city by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O LORD ^o God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, ^p send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I ^q stand here by the well of water ; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water :

15 And it came to pass, ^s before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her ^t pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel [†] was very fair to look upon, a virgin ; neither had any man ^u known her : and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord : and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And, when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man, ^v wondering at her, ^w held his peace, to wit, whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ^x ear-ring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold, 23 And said, Whose daughter art thou ? tell me, I pray thee. Is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in ?

C H A P. XXV.

2 The sons of Abraham by Keturah: 5 The division of his goods: 7 His age and death: 9 His burial. 12 The generations of Ishmael: 17 His age and death. 21 Isaac prayeth for Rebekah, being barren. 22 The children strive in her womb. 24 The birth of Esau and Jacob. 27 Their difference. 29 Esau selleth his birth-right.

THE name again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Ephher, and Hanoah, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son (while he yet lived) eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life, which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac: and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The first-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest towards Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Isaac begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac entreated the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was entreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her: and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the Lord.

23 And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels: and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint.

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birth-right.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die; and what profit shall this birth-right do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birth-right unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birth-right.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, ° I know not the day of my death:

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and † take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that ° I may eat; that my ° soul may bless † thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 † And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the Lord ° before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, ° obey my voice, according to that which I command thee:

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is ° a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him ° as a deceiver; and I shall bring ° a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, ° Upon me be thy curse, my son; only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took † goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: And he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first-born; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, ° Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he ° blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, ° I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell ° of a field which the Lord hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the ° dew of heaven, and the ° fatness of the earth, and plenty of ° corn and wine:

29 Let people ° serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: ° cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy first-born, Esau.

33 And Isaac † trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and ° he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding ° bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father!

35 And he said, Thy brother came with ° subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he righte ° named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birth-right; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father! And Esau lift up his voice, and ° wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the ° fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

16 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD ^a is in this place, and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place ! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place ^b Beth-el : but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me ^c bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace, then shall the LORD ^d be ^d my God :

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, [†] Is he well? And they said, He is well; and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is [†] yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, [‡] We cannot until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 And ^h while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she ⁱ kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob ^k kissed Rachel, and ^l lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her ^m father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all ⁿ these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art ^o my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art ^p my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender-eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well-favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will ^q serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is ^r better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served ^s seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but ^t a few days, for the ^u love he had to her.

21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me ^v my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may ^w go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made ^x a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he ^y took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him: and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah his maid, for ^z a handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the ^a morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? Did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou ^b beguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first-born.

27 ^c Fulfil her week, and we will give thee ^d this also, ^e for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his handmaid, to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 And when the LORD ^f saw that Leah was ^g hated, he ^h opened her womb: but Rachel was ⁱ barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name ^j Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now, therefore, my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name ^k Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have borne him three sons: therefore ^l was his name called ^m Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name ⁿ Judah; and ^o left bearing.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Rachel in grief for her barrenness giveth Bilhah her maid unto Jacob: 5 She beareth Dan and Naphtali. 9 Leah giveth Zilpah her maid, who beareth Gad and Asher. 14 Reuben findeth mandrakes, with which Leah buyeth her husband of Rachel. 17 Leah beareth Issachar, Zebulun, and Dinah. 22 Rachel beareth Joseph. 25 Jacob desireth to depart. 27 Laban stayeth him on a new covenant. 37 Jacob's policy, whereby he becometh rich.

AND when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel ^a envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or ^b else I die.

2 And Jacob's ^c anger ^d was kindled against Rachel; and he said, Am I ^e in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold ^f my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also ^g have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name ^h Dan.

- 16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

- 25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my ^o country.
- 26 Give meⁱ my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.
- 27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the Lord hath blessed me ^p for thy sake.
- 28 And he said, ^q Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.
- 29 And he said unto him, ^r Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.
- 30 For it was little which thou hadst ^s before I came, and it is † now increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee † since my coming: and now, when shall I † provide for mine own house also?
- 31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt ^t not give me any thing. If thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:
- 32 I will pass through all thy flock to-day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and of such shall be ^u my hire.

- 37 And Jacob took him ^a rods of green poplar, and of the † hazel and ^b chesnut-tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.
- 38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs, when the flocks came to drink, that they should † conceive when they came to drink.
- 39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ring-straked, speckled, and spotted.
- 40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ring-straked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.
- 41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods:
- 42 But when the cattle were ^c feeble he put them not in: so the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

AND ^a he heard the words of ^b Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath ^c taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this ^d glory.

2 And Jacob beheld ^e the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And ^f the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the ^g land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be ^h with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, ⁱ unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before: but the God of my father hath been ^k with me.

6 And ye know, that with ^l all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ^m ten times: but ⁿ God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, ^o The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ring-straked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ring-straked.

9 ^p Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass, at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and ^q saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ring-straked, speckled, and grised.

11 And the ^r angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ring-straked, speckled, and grised: ^s for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, ^t where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And ^u Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet ^v any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath ^w sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours and our children's: now then, ^x whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels:

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the ^y images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over ^z the river, and ^a set his face toward the mount ^b Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the ^c third day, that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his ^d brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' ^e journey; and they overtook him in the mount of Gilead.

24 And ^f God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, ^g Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob ^h either good or bad.

25 Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters ⁱ as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that ^j I might have sent thee away with mirth and with songs, with ^k tabret and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me ^l to kiss my sons and my daughters? Thou hast now done ^m foolishly in so doing.

29 It is ⁿ in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of ^o your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longest after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen ^p my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was ^q afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: ^r before our brethren, discern thou what is true with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into ^s Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now ^t Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease ^u my lord that I cannot ^v rise up before thee; for the ^w custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 And Jacob was ^x wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass, what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household-stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 These twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I ^y not eaten.

39 That which was torn ^z of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it: of my hand didst thou ^a require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought ^b consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house: I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, had been with me; surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne?

44 Now, therefore, come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones: and they took stones, and made an heap; and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha; but Jacob called it Galeed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed;

49 And Mizpah: for he said, The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us: see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee; and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, the God of thy father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Jacob's vision at Mahanaim. 3 His message to Esau. 6 He is afraid of Esau's coming. 9 He prayeth for his deliverance. 13 He sendeth a present to Esau. 24 He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, where he is called Israel. 31 He halteth.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and men-servants, and women-servants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over thy Jordan, and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, Thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the drives, saying, On this manner shall you speak unto Esau, when you find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease peace him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him; and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, ^p and took his two wives, and his two women-servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled ^a a man with him until the ^a breaking of the day:

25 And when he saw that he ^t prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was ^u out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, ^x Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, ^y I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called ^z no more Jacob, but Israel: for ^a as a prince hast thou power with God and ^b with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, ^c Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place ^{||} Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Penuel the ^d sun rose upon him, and he ^e halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

1 The kindness of Jacob and Esau at their meeting. 17 Jacob cometh to Succoth. 18 At Shalem he buyeth a field, and buildeth an altar called El-elohe-Israel.

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he ^a divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

3 And he passed over ^b before them, and ^c bowed himself to the ground ^d seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ^e ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and ^f kissed him: and they ^g wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children ^h which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, ⁱ What meanest thou by all this ^{i ch. 32, 16.} drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; [†] keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee; if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the ^k face of God, ^{k Ps. 41, 11.} and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my ^l blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because [†] I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should over-drive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on ^m softly, according ⁿ as the cattle that goeth before me, and the children ^{be} able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? ^o let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to ^p Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

18 And Jacob came to ^q Shalem, a city of ^r Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he ^s bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of ^t Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there ^u an altar, and called it ^{||} El-elohe-Israel.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field; and Jacob^g held his peace until they were come.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought^h folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thingⁱ ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter; I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and^k give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be^l before you: dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father, and unto her brethren, Let me^m find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 † Ask me never so muchⁿ dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father^o deceitfully, and said, Because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is^p uncircumcised; ^q for that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised, 16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all^r the house of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the^s gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us, therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs, be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was^t circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 And it came to pass on the third day, when they were^u sore, that^v two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew^w all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came^x upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had^y defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field;

29 And all their^z wealth, and^a all their little ones, and their wives, took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to^b Simeon and Levi, Ye have^c troubled me, to make me to^d stink among the inhabitants of the land, amongst the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being ^e few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, ^f Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

A^gND^h God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there; and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thouⁱ fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his^j household, and to all that were with him, ^k Put away the strange gods that are among you, and^l be clean, and change your^m garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, whoⁿ ^o hath answered me in the day of my^p distress, and was^q with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all^r the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their^s ear-rings which were in their ears; and Jacob^t hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the^u terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to^v Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he, and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built^w there an altar, and called the place^x El-beth-el; because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

21 ¶ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

2 Joseph is hated of his brethren : 5 His two dreams : 13 Jacob sendeth him to visit his brethren : 18 His brethren conspire his death : 21 Reuben saveth him : 26 They sell him to the Ishmeelites :

31 His father, deceived by the bloody coat, mourneth for him : 36 He is sold to Potiphar in Egypt.

AN Jacob dwelt in the land [†] wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 ¶ These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's ^a wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their ^b evil report.

3 Now Israel ^c loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the ^d son of his old age: and he made him ^e a coat of many colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they ^f hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 And Joseph ^g dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him ^h yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed :

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood ⁱ round about, and ^k made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed ^l reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the ^m sun, and the moon, and the eleven ⁿ stars, made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren, indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father ^o observed the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, [†] see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, ^p I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to ^q Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they ^r conspired against him to slay him.

1 Joseph advanced in Potiphar's house: 7 He resisteth his mistress's temptation: 13 He is falsely accused: 20 He is cast into prison: 21 God is with him there.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and a Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the Lord was b with Joseph, and he was c a prosperous man: and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And d his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph e found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him f overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass, from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house: for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, h save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was i a goodly person, and well-favoured.

7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife j cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, k Lie with me.

8 But he l refused; and said unto his master's wife, m Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand:

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: n how then can I do this o great wickedness, and sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be p with her.

11 And it came to pass, about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was q none of the men of the house there within.

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to t mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

1 The butler and baker of Pharaoh in prison : 4 Joseph hath charge of them : 5 He interpreteth their dreams : 20 They come to pass according to his interpretation. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

AND it came to pass, after these things, that the *||*butler of the king of Egypt, and his baker, had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them a in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the b prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the c captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them ; and they continued a season in ward.

5 And they d dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man e according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were f sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore † look ye so sadly to-day ?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations g belong to God ? h Tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, i behold, a vine was before me ;

10 And in the vine were three branches : and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth, and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes :

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand ; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it : The three branches are k three days.

13 Yet l within three days shall Pharaoh || lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place : and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me ; and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me m out of this house :

15 For indeed I was n stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews ; and here also have I p done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 ¶ When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head :

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh ; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof : The three baskets are three days.

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree ; and q the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's r birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants : and he lifted up the head of the chief butler, and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again ; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand :

22 But he hanged the chief baker, s as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but t forgot him.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine, and fat-fleshed ; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, c ill-favoured, and lean-fleshed ; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept, and dreamed the second time : and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men: leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone;

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: All these things are ^a against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay ^b my two sons if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall ^c not go down with you; for his brother ^d is dead, and he is ^e left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the ^f grave.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren. 31 He maketh them a feast.

AND the famine was ^a sore in the land. 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, ^b buy us ^a a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, ^c The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall ^d not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the ^e lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then ^f let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; Take of the [†] best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man ^a a present, a little ^b balm, and a ^c little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand: and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks ^a carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 [†] Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And [†] God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. ^a If I be bereaved of ^b my children, I am bereaved.

15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ^a ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and [†] slay, and make ready; for these men shall die with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were ^a afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in, that he may [†] seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, [†] O sir, ^a we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we ^a opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, ^a Peace be to you, fear not: ^a your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them ^a water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, ^a and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their [†] welfare, and said, [†] Is your father well? the old man of whom ye spake, is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him by themselves: because the Egyptians might not ^aeat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an ^aabomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birth-right, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was ^afive times so much as any of theirs: And they drunk, and ^athey were merry with him.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 Joseph's policy to stay his brethren. 18 Judah's humble supplication to Joseph.

AND he commanded the ^asteward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with ^afood, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth:

2 And ^abut my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn-money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 ¶ As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he ^adivineth? Ye have done evil in so doing.

6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both ^alet him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be ^ablameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they ^arent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there; and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? Wot ye not that such a man as I can ^acertainly divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or ^ahow shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the ^ainiquity of thy servants: behold, ^awe are my lord's servants, both we, and ^ahe also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up ^ain peace unto your father.

18 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, ^aOh, my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even ^aas Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his ^aold age, ^aa little one: and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may ^aset mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, you shall see my face ^ano more.

24 And it came to pass, when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that ^amy wife bare me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, ^aSurely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not ^asince:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my ^agray hairs with ^asorrow to the grave.

30 Now, therefore, when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life ^ais bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide ^ainstead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great ¹ deliverance.

8 So now, it was not you that sent me hither,
^a but God: and he hath made me ^a a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste you, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee, (for yet there are five years of famine,) lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is ^a my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and ye shall haste, and bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and ^p wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren ^q talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come:
And it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the ^r fat of the land.

19 Now ^a thou art commanded, this do ye;
Take you waggons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also † regard not your stuff: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: And Joseph gave them waggons, according to the † commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man ^c changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred ^c pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner;
ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye † fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father,

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt.
And Jacob's heart ^u fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the waggons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, ^x It is enough: Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his ^k daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Israel which came into Egypt: Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's first-born.

9 And the sons of Reuben; ¹ Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Simeon; ^m Gemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar; and Shaul, the son of ^a a Canaanitish woman.

11 And the sons of Levi; ^o Gershon, ^p Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan ^a died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were ^r Hezron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of ^r Issachar; ^t Tola, and ^u Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in ^s Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the sons of his sons and his daughters were ^v thirty and three.

16 And the sons of Gad; ^z Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: And the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's ^a wife; Joseph and Benjamin.

20 And unto Joseph, in the land of Egypt, were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Ase-nath, the daughter of Poti-pherah ¶ priest of On, bare unto him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin were ^b Belah, and Becher, and ^c Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, ^d Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 And the ^e sons of Dan; Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and ^f Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter; and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his ^g loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six:

27 And the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls: All the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were ^h threescore and ten.

28 ¶ And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him: and he ⁱ fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now ^j let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, ^k My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for ^l they trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your ^l oc-cupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen: for every shepherd is an ^m abomination unto the Egyptians.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, 7 and his father, before Pharaoh: 11 He giveth them habitation and maintenance: 13 He getteth all the Egyptians' money, 16 their cattle, 18 their lands to Pharaoh: 22 The priests' land was not bought. 23 He letteth the land to them for a fifth part. 28 Jacob's age: 29 He sweareth Joseph to bury him with his fathers.

THEN Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, ⁿ My father, and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, ^o What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are ^p shepherds, both we, and ^q also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is ^r before thee: in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of ^s activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will ⁿ not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent ; my lord also hath our herds of cattle : there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands :

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh ; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them : so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the ^{||} priests bought he not ; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their ^o portion which Pharaoh gave them ; wherefore they sold not their lands.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years : so [†] the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, ^k whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will ^l bless them.

10 (Now the eyes of Israel were [†] dim for age, so that he could not see.) And he brought them near unto him ; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face ; and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out ^m his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, [†] guiding his hands wittingly ; for Manasseh was the first-born.

15 And he blessed ^a Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac ^o did walk, the God which ^p fed me all my life long unto this day, 16 The ^q angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads ; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac ; and let them [†] grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it ^r displeased him : and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father : for this is the first-born ; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it my son, I know it : he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great ; but truly his younger brother shall be ^s greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, ^t In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh. And he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die ; but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover, ^u I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with ^v my sword and with my bow.

C H A P. XLIX.

1 Jacob calleth his sons to bless them : 3 Their blessings in particular : 29 He chargeth them about his burial : 33 He dieth.

AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may ^w tell you that which shall befall you in the ^x last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob ; and hearken ^y unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art my ^z first-born, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power :

4 Unstable as water, [†] thou shalt not excel ; because thou [†] wentest up to thy father's bed, then defiledst thou it : he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi are ^{aa} brethren ; ^b instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their ^c secret ; unto their assembly, mine ^k honour, be not thou united : for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their ^d anger, for it was fierce ; and their wrath, for it was cruel : I will ^e divide them in Jacob, and ^e scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise ; thy hand shall be in the ^f neck of thine enemies : thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is ^g a lion's whelp ; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up : he stooped down, he ^h couched as a lion, and as an old lion ; who shall rouse him up ?

10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor ⁱ a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come ; and unto him shall be the ^j gathering of the people be :

11 Binding his foal unto the ^k vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine ; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the ^l blood of grapes :

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ Zebulun shall dwell at the ^m haven of the sea ; and he shall be for an haven of ships : and his border shall be unto Zidon.

14 ¶ Issachar is ⁿ a strong ass, couching down between two burdens :

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant ; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan shall ^o judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be ^p a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I have ^q waited for thy salvation, O LORD !

19 ¶ Gad, ^r a troop shall overcome him : but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of Asher ^s his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

23 ^a The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him :

24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the ^b hands of the mighty God of Jacob ; (from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel :)

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee ; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with ⁱ blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the ^k breasts and of the womb :

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed ⁱ above the blessings of my progenitors, unto the ^m utmost bound of the ^a everlasting hills ; they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was ^o separate from his brethren.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall ^p ravin as a wolf ; in the morning he shall devour the prey, and ^q at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the ^r twelve tribes of Israel : and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them ; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be ^s gathered unto my people : bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of ^t Ephron the Hittite ;

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a burying-place.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife ; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife ; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field, and of the cave that is therein, was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his ^u feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was ^x gathered unto his people.

1 The mourning for Jacob : 4 Joseph getteth leave of Pharaoh to go to bury him. 7 The funeral. 15 Joseph comforteth his brethren, who craved his pardon : 22 His age : 23 He seeth the third generation of his sons : 24 He prophesieth unto his brethren of their return : 25 He taketh an oath of them for his bones : 26 He dieth, and is put in a coffin.

AND Joseph fell upon his ^a father's face, and ^b wept upon him, and ^c kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father : and the physicians ^d embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him ; (for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed ;) and the Egyptians mourned for him ^e threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph ^f spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, ^g I die : in my grave which I have ^h digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou ⁱ bury me. Now, therefore, let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, according ^k as he made thee swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father : and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house : only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen ; and it was ^l a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of ^m Atad, which is ⁿ beyond Jordan ; and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation : and he made a mourning for his father ^o seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the ^p Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians : wherefore the name of it was called ^q ^r ^s ^t ^u ^v ^w ^x ^y ^z ^{aa} ^{ab} ^{ac} ^{ad} ^{ae} ^{af} ^{ag} ^{ah} ^{ai} ^{aj} ^{ak} ^{al} ^{am} ^{an} ^{ao} ^{ap} ^{aq} ^{ar} ^{as} ^{at} ^{au} ^{av} ^{aw} ^{ax} ^{ay} ^{az} ^{ba} ^{bb} ^{bc} ^{bd} ^{be} ^{bf} ^{bg} ^{bh} ^{bi} ^{bj} ^{bk} ^{bl} ^{bm} ^{bn} ^{bo} ^{bp} ^{bq} ^{br} ^{bs} ^{bt} ^{bu} ^{bv} ^{bw} ^{bx} ^{by} ^{bz} ^{ca} ^{cb} ^{cc} ^{cd} ^{ce} ^{cf} ^{cg} ^{ch} ^{ci} ^{cj} ^{ck} ^{cl} ^{cm} ^{cn} ^{co} ^{cp} ^{cq} ^{cr} ^{cs} ^{ct} ^{cu} ^{cv} ^{cw} ^{cx} ^{cy} ^{cz} ^{da} ^{db} ^{dc} ^{dd} ^{de} ^{df} ^{dg} ^{dh} ^{di} ^{dj} ^{dk} ^{dl} ^{dm} ^{dn} ^{do} ^{dp} ^{dq} ^{dr} ^{ds} ^{dt} ^{du} ^{dv} ^{dw} ^{dx} ^{dy} ^{dz} ^{ea} ^{eb} ^{ec} ^{ed} ^{ee} ^{ef} ^{eg} ^{eh} ^{ei} ^{ej} ^{ek} ^{el} ^{em} ^{en} ^{eo} ^{ep} ^{eq} ^{er} ^{es} ^{et} ^{eu} ^{ev} ^{ew} ^{ex} ^{ey} ^{ez} ^{fa} ^{fb} ^{fc} ^{fd} ^{fe} ^{ff} ^{fg} ^{fh} ^{fi} ^{fj} ^{fk} ^{fl} ^{fm} ^{fn} ^{fo} ^{fp} ^{fq} ^{fr} ^{fs} ^{ft} ^{fu} ^{fv} ^{fw} ^{fx} ^{fy} ^{fz} ^{ga} ^{gb} ^{gc} ^{gd} ^{ge} ^{gf} ^{gg} ^{gh} ^{gi} ^{gj} ^{gk} ^{gl} ^{gm} ^{gn} ^{go} ^{gp} ^{gq} ^{gr} ^{gs} ^{gt} ^{gu} ^{gv} ^{gw} ^{gx} ^{gy} ^{gz} ^{ha} ^{hb} ^{hc} ^{hd} ^{he} ^{hf} ^{hg} ^{hh} ^{hi} ^{hj} ^{hk} ^{hl} ^{hm} ^{hn} ^{ho} ^{hp} ^{hq} ^{hr} ^{hs} ^{ht} ^{hu} ^{hv} ^{hw} ^{hx} ^{hy} ^{hz} ^{ia} ^{ib} ^{ic} ^{id} ^{ie} ^{if} ^{ig} ^{ih} ⁱⁱ ^{ij} ^{ik} ^{il} ^{im} ⁱⁿ ^{io} ^{ip} ^{iq} ^{ir} ^{is} ^{it} ^{iu} ^{iv} ^{iw} ^{ix} ^{iy} ^{iz} ^{ja} ^{jb} ^{jc} ^{jd} ^{je} ^{jf} ^{jj} ^{jk} ^{jl} ^{jm} ^{jn} ^{jo} ^{jp} ^{jq} ^{jr} ^{js} ^{jt} ^{ju} ^{jv} ^{jw} ^{jx} ^{ky} ^{kz} ^{la} ^{lb} ^{lc} ^{ld} ^{le} ^{lf} ^{lg} ^{lh} ^{li} ^{lj} ^{lk} ^{ll} ^{lm} ^{ln} ^{lo} ^{lp} ^{lq} ^{lr} ^{ls} ^{lt} ^{lu} ^{lv} ^{lw} ^{lx} ^{ly} ^{lz} ^{ma} ^{mb} ^{mc} ^{md} ^{me} ^{mf} ^{mg} ^{mh} ^{mi} ^{mj} ^{mk} ^{ml} ^{mm} ^{mn} ^{mo} ^{mp} ^{mq} ^{mr} ^{ms} ^{mt} ^{mu} ^{mv} ^{mw} ^{mx} ^{my} ^{mz} ^{na} ^{nb} ^{nc} nd ^{ne} ^{nf} ^{ng} ^{nh} ⁿⁱ ^{nj} ^{nk} ^{nl} ^{nm} ⁿⁿ ^{no} ^{np} ^{nq} ^{nr} ^{ns} ^{nt} ^{nu} ^{nv} ^{nw} ^{nx} ^{ny} ^{nz} ^{oa} ^{ob} ^{oc} ^{od} ^{oe} ^{of} ^{og} ^{oh} ^{oi} ^{oj} ^{ok} ^{ol} ^{om} ^{on} ^{oo} ^{op} ^{oq} ^{or} ^{os} ^{ot} ^{ou} ^{ov} ^{ow} ^{ox} ^{oy} ^{oz} ^{pa} ^{pb} ^{pc} ^{pd} ^{pe} ^{pf} ^{pg} ^{ph} ^{pi} ^{pj} ^{pk} ^{pl} ^{pm} ^{pn} ^{po} ^{pp} ^{pq} ^{pr} ^{ps} ^{pt} ^{pu} ^{pv} ^{pw} ^{px} ^{py} ^{pz} ^{qa} ^{qb} ^{qc} ^{qd} ^{qe} ^{qf} ^{qg} ^{qh} ^{qi} ^{qj} ^{qk} ^{ql} ^{qm} ^{qn} ^{qo} ^{qp} ^{qq} ^{qr} ^{qs} ^{qt} ^{qu} ^{qv} ^{qw} ^{qx} ^{qy} ^{qz} ^{ra} ^{rb} ^{rc} rd ^{re} ^{rf} ^{rg} ^{rh} ^{ri} ^{rj} ^{rk} ^{rl} ^{rm} ^{rn} ^{ro} ^{rp} ^{rq} ^{rr} ^{rs} ^{rt} ^{ru} ^{rv} ^{rw} ^{rx} ^{ry} ^{rz} ^{sa} ^{sb} ^{sc} ^{sd} ^{se} ^{sf} ^{sg} ^{sh} ^{si} ^{sj} ^{sk} ^{sl} sm ^{sn} ^{so} ^{sp} ^{sq} ^{sr} ^{ss} st ^{su} ^{sv} ^{sw} ^{sx} ^{sy} ^{sz} ^{ta} ^{tb} ^{tc} ^{td} ^{te} ^{tf} ^{tg} th ^{ti} ^{tj} ^{tk} ^{tl} tm ^{tn} ^{to} ^{tp} ^{tq} ^{tr} ^{ts} ^{tt} ^{tu} ^{tv} ^{tw} ^{tx} ^{ty} ^{tz} ^{ua} ^{ub} ^{uc} ^{ud} ^{ue} ^{uf} ^{ug} ^{uh} ^{ui} ^{uj} ^{uk} ^{ul} ^{um} ^{un} ^{uo} ^{up} ^{uq} ^{ur} ^{us} ^{ut} ^{uu} ^{uv} ^{uw} ^{ux} ^{uy} ^{uz} ^{va} ^{vb} ^{vc} ^{vd} ^{ve} ^{vf} ^{vg} ^{vh} ^{vi} ^{vj} ^{vk} ^{vl} ^{vm} ^{vn} ^{vo} ^{vp} ^{vq} ^{vr} ^{vs} ^{vt} ^{vu} ^{vv} ^{vw} ^{vx} ^{vy} ^{vz} ^{wa} ^{wb} ^{wc} ^{wd} ^{we} ^{wf} ^{wg} ^{wh} ^{wi} ^{wj} ^{wk} ^{wl} ^{wm} ^{wn} ^{wo} ^{wp} ^{wq} ^{wr} ^{ws} ^{wt} ^{wu} ^{wv} ^{ww} ^{wx} ^{wy} ^{wz} ^{xa} ^{xb} ^{xc} ^{xd} ^{xe} ^{xf} ^{fg} ^{xh} ^{xi} ^{xj} ^{xk} ^{xl} ^{xm} ^{xn} ^{xo} ^{xp} ^{xq} ^{xr} ^{xs} ^{xt} ^{xu} ^{xv} ^{xw} ^{xx} ^{xy} ^{xz} ^{ya} ^{yb} ^{yc} ^{yd} ^{ye} ^{yf} ^{yg} ^{yh} ^{yi} ^{yj} ^{yk} ^{yl} ^{ym} ^{yn} ^{yo} ^{yp} ^{yq} ^{yr} ^{ys} ^{yt} ^{yu} ^{yv} ^{yw} ^{yx} ^{yy} ^{yz} ^{za} ^{zb} ^{zc} ^{zd} ^{ze} ^{zf} ^{zg} ^{zh} ^{zi} ^{zj} ^{zk} ^{zl} ^{zm} ^{zn} ^{zo} ^{zp} ^{zq} ^{zr} ^{zs} ^{zt} ^{zu} ^{zv} ^{zw} ^{zx} ^{zy} ^{zz} the son of Manasseh, were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die : and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up ^e my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old : and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

¶ The SECOND Book of Moses, called EXODUS.

C H A P. I.

† The children of Israel, after Joseph's death, do multiply : 8 The more they are oppressed by a new king, the more they multiply. 15 The godliness of the midwives in saving the men-children alive. 22 Pharaoh commandeth the male children to be cast into the river.

NOW these are the ^a names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt ; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 ^b Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 ^c Issachar, Zebulun, and ^d Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were ^e seventy souls : ^f for Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died, and all ^g his brethren, and all that generation.

7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and ^h increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty ; and the land was filled with them.

8 ¶ Now there arose up a ⁱ new king over Egypt, which ^k knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are ^l more and mightier than we :

10 ^m Come on, let us ⁿ deal wisely with them ; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters, to afflict them with their ^o burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pitom and Raameses.

12 † But the more they afflicted them the more they multiplied and grew. And they were ^p grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with ^q rigour :

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field : all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives ; (of which the name of one was Shiprah, and the name of the other Puah :)

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall ^r kill him ; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives ^s feared God, and did not ^t as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, ^u Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive ?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women ; for they are lively, and are delivered ^v ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt ^w well with the midwives : and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he ^x made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh ^y charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

C H A P. II.

2 Moses is born, 3 and in an ark cast into the flags. 5 He is found and brought up by Pharaoh's daughter : 11 He slayeth an Egyptian : 13 He reproveth an Hebrew : 15 He fleeth into Midian : 21 He marrieth Zipporah. 22 Gershom is born. 23 God respecteth the Israelites' cry.

AND there went ^a a man of the house of Levi, and ^b took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare ^c a son : and when she saw him that he was ^d a goodly child, she ^e hid him three months.

3 And when she could ^f no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein ; and she laid ^g it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And ^h his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 And the ⁱ daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river ; and her maidens walked along by the river's side : and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened ^j it, she saw the child : and, behold, the babe wept. And she had ^k compassion on him, and said, This is one of the ^l Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee ?

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, ^b A rod.

3 And He said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became ^c a serpent; and Moses ^d fled from before it.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness ⁵ to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and ⁶ kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and ⁷ all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 And Moses and Aaron went, and gathered together all the ⁸ elders of the children of Israel:

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron for their message. 6 He increaseth the Israelites' task. 15 He ciekketh their complaints. 19 They cry out upon Moses and Aaron. 22 Moses complaineth to God.

AND afterward ¹ Moses and Aaron went in, and ² told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold ³ a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, ⁴ Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews ⁵ hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with ⁶ pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, ⁷ Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are ⁸ many, and you make them rest from their burdens.

6 ¶ And Pharaoh commanded the same day the ⁹ task-masters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall ¹⁰ no more give the people straw to make brick, ¹¹ as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them; you shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 ¶ Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard ¹² vain words.

10 And the task-masters of the people ¹³ went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where you can find it: yet not ought of your ¹⁴ work shall be diminished.

12 ¶ So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the task-masters hastened them, saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's task-masters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle; therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were ¹⁵ in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not diminish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh;

21 And they said unto them, The LORD ¹⁶ look upon you, and ¹⁷ judge; because you have made our saviour to be ¹⁸ abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 ¶ And Moses ¹⁹ returned unto the LORD, and said, LORD, wherefore hast thou so evil-entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to ²⁰ Pharaoh to speak in ²¹ thy name, he hath done evil to this people; ²² neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded ; and he ^t lift up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants ; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to ^u blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river ^a died ; and the river ^y stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river : and there was blood throughout ² all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt ^a did so with their enchantments : and Pharaoh's heart was ^b hardened, neither did he hearken unto them ; as the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned, and went into his house, neither did he ^c set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink ; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, ^a Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs :

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading-troughs :

4 And the frogs shall come up, both ^b on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt ; and the ^c frogs came up, and ^d covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians ^e did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, ^f Entreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people ; and I will let the people ^g go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh : and Moses ^k cried unto the LORD, because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did ^l according to the word of Moses ; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon [†] heaps ; and the land ^m stank.

15 ¶ But when Pharaoh saw that there was ⁿ respite, he, [†] hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them ; as the LORD had said.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of || swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to-morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so: and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is ^a not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the ^a abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and ^a will they not stone us?

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall ^a command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: y entreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: but let not Pharaoh ^z deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

22 The plague of hail. 27 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, 35 but yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, ^a Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the ^b hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous ^c murrain.

4 And the LORD shall ^d sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD ^e appointed a set time, saying, ^f To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and ^g all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was ^h hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you ⁱ handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a ^j boil breaking forth with blains ^k upon man and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven: and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man and upon beast.

11 And the magicians ^m could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD ⁿ hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon ^o thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will ^p stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed ^q for this cause have I ^r raised thee up, ^r for to shew in thee my power; and that ^s my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 ^t As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

20 He that ^u feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that [†] regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent ^x thunder and ^y hail, and the ^z fire ran along upon the ground: and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was ^a none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that ^{was} in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel ^{were}, was there ^b no hail.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city I will spread abroad ^e my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the ^f earth ^{is} the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will ^g not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten; for the barley ^{was} in the ear, and the flax ^{was} bolled.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten; for they ^{were} [†] not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD; and the thunders and hail ^h ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and ⁱ hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

7 ¶ And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man ^{be} ^f a snare unto us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: Knowest thou not yet that Egypt ^{is} destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: [†] but [†] who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our ^h young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our ⁱ flocks and with our herds will we go: for we ^{must} hold ^k a feast unto the LORD.

17 Now, therefore, forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and ^a entreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this ^v death only.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and ^z entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the ^a Red Sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 ¶ But the LORD ^b hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a ^a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They ^d saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had ^e light in their dwellings.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it, according to the number of the souls: ^d every man, according to his eating, shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be ^e without blemish, a male of the first year; ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the ^f fourteenth day of the same month: and the ^g whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it ^h in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and ⁱ strike it on the two side-posts and on the ^j upper door-post of the houses wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and ¹ unleavened bread; and with ^m bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it ^a raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast ^o with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall ^p burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your ^q loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand: and ye shall eat it ^r in haste; it is the LORD's passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all ^s the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will ^t pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you [†] to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; you shall keep it ^u a feast by an ordinance ^x for ever.

15 ^y Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye ^z shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be ^a cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be ^b an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall ^c be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this self-same day have ^d I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 In the ^e first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven ^f found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that ^g soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he ^h be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 [†] Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out, and take you a lamb, according to your families, and kill the ^h passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of ⁱ hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and ^k strike the lintel and the two side-posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall ^j go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will ^m not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever,

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according ⁿ as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, ^o What mean you by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head, and worshipped.

28 [†] And the children of Israel went away, and did ^p as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And it came to pass, that, ^q at midnight, the LORD smote all ^r the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the first-born of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the first-born of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was ^s a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he ^t called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and ^u bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were ^v urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We ^w be ^x all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their ^y kneading-troughs bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they ^z borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people ^a favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they ^b lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 And the children of Israel journeyed from ^c Rameses to Succoth, about ^d six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a ^e mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were ^f thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the ¹sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was ²four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even ³the self-same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night ⁴to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall ⁵no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is ⁶bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then ⁷shall he eat thereof.

45 ⁸A foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 ⁹In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a ¹⁰bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall ¹¹keep it.

48 And when ¹²a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will ¹³keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then ¹⁴let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for ¹⁵no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 ¹⁶One law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel: as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass, the self-same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

C H A P. XIII.

1 The first-born are sanctified to God. 3 The memorial of the passover is commanded. 11 The firstlings of beasts are set apart. 17 The Israelites go out of Egypt, and carry Joseph's bones with them. 20 They come to Etham.

21 God guideth them by a pillar of a cloud, and a pillar of fire.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, ²A Sanctify unto me all the ³first-born, whatsoever ⁴openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 And Moses said unto the people, ⁵Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for ⁶by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no ⁷leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, in the month Abib.

5 And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be ⁸a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days: and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee; neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt ⁹shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for ¹⁰a sign unto thee ¹¹upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes; that the LORD's law may be in thy ¹²mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD ¹³all that openeth the matrix, and every ¹⁴firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ¹⁵ass thou shalt redeem with ¹⁶a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt ¹⁷break his neck: and all the first-born of man among thy children shalt thou ¹⁸redeem.

14 And it shall be, when thy son asketh thee ¹⁹in time to come, saying, ²⁰What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought ²¹us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh ²²would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beasts: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for ²³frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not ²⁴through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they ²⁵see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, ²⁶through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up ²⁷harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the ²⁸bones of Joseph with him; for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD ²⁹went before them by day in ^d a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of ^e fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

C H A P. XIV.

1 God instructeth the Israelites in their journey. 5 Pharaoh pursueth after them. 10 The Israelites murmur. 13 Moses comforteth them: 15 God instructeth Moses. 19 The cloud removeth behind the camp. 21 The Israelites pass through the Red Sea, 23 which drowneth the Egyptians.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp ^a before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against ^b Baalzephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are ^c entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will ^d harden Pharaoh's heart that he shall follow after them; and I will ^e be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the people ^f fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, ^g Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred ^h chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an ⁱ high hand.

9 But the Egyptians ^k pursued after them, (all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army,) and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baalzephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lift up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were ^l sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were ^m no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, ⁿ Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 And Moses said unto the people, ^o Fear ye not, stand still, and see ^p the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall ^q see them again no more for ever:

14 The LORD shall ^r fight for you, and ye shall ^t hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore ^u criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea; and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall ^v know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the ^w angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed, and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a ^x cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea ^y to go back by a strong ^z east wind all that night, and made the sea ^a dry land, and the waters were ^b divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into ^c the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters ^d were ^e a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the ^f morning, watch the LORD ^g looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the ^h pillar of fire and of the cloud, and ⁱ troubled the host of the Egyptians, 25 And took off their chariot-wheels, that they drove them ^j heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^k Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may ^l come again upon the Egyptians, upon their ^m chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when ⁿ the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD ^o overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained ^p not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel ^q walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

THEN sang Moses and the children of Israel ^athis song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 THE LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

3 THE LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

8 And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together: the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, O glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, and the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them: all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them: by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in; in the sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

18 THE LORD shall reign for ever and ever.
 19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 ¶ So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

27 ¶ And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm-trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER. XVI.

1 The Israelites come to Sin. 2 They murmur for want of bread. 4 God promiseth them bread from heaven. 11 Quails are sent, 14 and manna. 16 The ordering of manna: 25 It was not to be found on the sabbath: 32 An omer of it is preserved.

AND they took their journey from Elim; and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full! for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, wilderness, to kill this ^a whole assembly with hunger.

4 Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will ^a rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather [†] a certain rate every day, that I may ^k prove them, whether they will walk in my law or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt;

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the ^j glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings ^m against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are ⁿ not against us, but against the LORD.

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near ^o before the LORD; for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the ^p wilderness, and, behold, the ^q glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat ^r flesh, and in the morning ye shall be ^s filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the ^t quails came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when [†] the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round ^u thing, as small as the hoar-frost, on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, || It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat:

16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded: Gather of it every man according to his eating; an omer ^x for every man: according to the number of your persons, take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, ^y some more, some less.

18. And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had ^z nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it ^a bred worms, and stank; and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, ^b it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to ^c pass, that on the sixth day they gathered ^e twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and ^d told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the ^e holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which you will bake to-day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you, to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade; and it did ^f not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, ^g Eat that to-day; for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall ^h be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there ⁱ went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they ^k found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep ^l my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place; let no man go ^m out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people ⁿ rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was ^o like coriander-seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it, to be kept ^p for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take ^q a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up ^r before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the testimony, ^s to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did ^t eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

and this people that is with thee : for this thing is too heavy for thee ; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, ^a and God shall be with thee : Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the ^a causes unto God :

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and ^v the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people ^a able men, such as ^a fear God, ^v men of truth, ^v hating covetousness ; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens :

22 And let them judge the people ^d at all seasons : and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee ; but every small matter they shall judge : so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall ^c bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, ^f and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses ^g hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses ^h chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons : the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father-in-law depart ; and he ⁱ went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The people come to Sinai. 3 God's message by Moses unto the people out of the mount. 8 The people's answer returned again. 10 The people are prepared against the third day. 12 The mountain must not be touched. 16 The fearful presence of God upon the mount.

IN the ^a third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of ^b Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness ; and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up ^c unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel ;

4 ^d Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on ^e eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be ^f a peculiar treasure unto me ^g above all people : for all the earth is mine :

6 And ye shall be unto me ^h a kingdom of priests, and an ⁱ holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And ^k Moses came, and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered ^l together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken ^m we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a ⁿ thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak ^o with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and ^p sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day : for the ^q third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt ^r set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it : whosoever ^s toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death :

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through ; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live : when the ^t trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people ; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day : come not ^u at your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and ^v a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the ^w trumpet exceeding loud ; so that all the people that was in the camp ^x trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to ^y meet with God ; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on ^z a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it ^a in fire ; and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the ^b whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, ^c Moses spake, and God answered him ^d by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount : and the LORD called Moses ^e up to the top of the mount ; and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to ^f gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let ^g the priests also, which ^h come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people ⁱ cannot come up to mount Sinai : for thou ^j chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

13 And if a man ^a lie not in wait, but ^a God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee ^a a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come ^a presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine ^a altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth ^a his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

16 ¶ And he that ^a stealeth a man, and ^a sell-eth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that ^a curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed;

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his ^a staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the ^a loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his ^a servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely ^a punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue ^a a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he ^a is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her; and yet no mischief follow; he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall ^a pay as the judges determine.

23 And if ^a any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 ^a Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his man-servant's tooth, or his maid-servant's tooth; he shall let him go free ^a for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die; then the ox shall be surely ^a stoned, and his flesh shall ^a not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit:

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him ^a a sum of money, then he shall give, for the ransom of his life, whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a man-servant, or maid-servant; he shall give unto their master ^a thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig ^a a pit, and ^a not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath ^a used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two ^p chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen-work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make ^a breast-plate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be, being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a ° sardius, ° a topaz, and a ° carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an ° emerald, ° a sapphire, and a ° diamond.

19 And the third row a ° ligure, an ° agate, and an ° amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a ° beryl, and an ° onyx, and a ° jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate chains at the ends of wreathen-work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-plate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breast-plate, in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the fore-part thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breast-plate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breast-plate of judgment ° upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a ° memorial before the LORD continually.

30 And thou shalt put in the breast-plate of judgment the || Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth

31 And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of ^b woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that ⁱ it be not rent.

anointed with oil; of ^d wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the ^e tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt ^f wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and ^g put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-plate, and ^h gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod:

6 And thou shalt put the ⁱ mitre upon his head, and put the ^k holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour ^l it upon his head, and ¹ anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt ^m consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall ⁿ put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the ^o door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put ^p it upon the horns of the ^q altar with thy ^r finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul ^s that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the ^t fat that is upon them, and burn ^u them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire ^v without the camp: it is a sin-offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle ^w it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and ^x wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put ^y them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt ^z burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the LORD: it is a ^a sweet savour, an offering made by ¹ fire unto the LORD.

19 And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put ^b their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put ^c it upon the ^a tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right ^b hand, and upon the great toe of their right ^c foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the ^d altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of ^e the anointing oil, and ^f sprinkle ^g it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul ^h above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that ⁱ is upon them, and the ^j right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

23 And one ^k loaf of bread, and one cake ^l of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that ^m is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons, and shalt ⁿ wave them ^o for a wave-offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn ^p them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for ^q a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it ^r for a wave-offering before the LORD: and it shall be ^s thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the ^t heave-offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, ^u even of that which is for Aaron, and of ^v that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute ^w for ever from the children of Israel; for it is an heave-offering: and it shall be an heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace-offerings, ^x even their heave-offering unto the LORD.

29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be ^y anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on ^z seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation, to minister in the holy place.

31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the ^a holy place.

32 And ^b Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that ^c is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the ^d atonement was made to consecrate and to sanctify them: but ^e a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the ^f remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin-offering for ^a atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar ^a most holy: whatsoever ^a toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year, ^b day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer ^c at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth-deal of flour mingled with ^d the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat-offering of the morning, and according to the drink-offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a ^a continual burnt-offering throughout your generations, at the ^e door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD; where I will ^f meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified ^h by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 And ⁱ I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell amongst them: I am the LORD their God.

C H A P. XXX.

1 The altar of incense. 11 The ransom of souls.
18 The brasen laver. 22 The holy anointing oil. 34 The composition of the perfume.

AND thou shalt make an ^a altar to burn incense upon; of shittim-wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the ^b horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with ^c pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it ^d a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof; upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will ^e meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense ^a every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron ^b lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it; ^c a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no ^k strange incense thereon, nor burnt-sacrifice, nor ^l meat-offering; neither shall ye pour drink-offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it ^m once in a year with the blood of the ⁿ sin-offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it, throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel, after their number, then shall they give every man ^o a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be ^p no plague amongst them when thou numberest them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, ^q half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty ^r gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement-money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it ^s for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a ^t laver of brass, and his ^u foot also of brass, to wash ^v withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein:

19 For Aaron and his sons shall ^w wash their hands and their ^x feet thereat.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation they shall wash with water, that they ^y die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, ^z even to him and to his seed, throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Moreover, the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee ^a principal spices, of ^b pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, ^c even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what ^a is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the ^a golden ear-rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people ^a brake off the golden ear-rings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a ^b molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To-morrow is a ^k feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings: and the people ^l sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^m Go, get thee down; for thy ⁿ people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have ^o corrupted themselves:

8 They have ^p turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a ^q stiff-necked people:

10 Now therefore ^r let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee ^s a great nation.

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, ^t why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 ^u Wherefore should the Egyptians speak and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and ^v repent of this evil against thy people:

13 ^w Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest ^x by thine own self, and saidst unto them, ^y I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the ^b LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the ^c mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides: on the one side and ^d on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the ^e work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when ^f Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome; but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' ^g anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and ^h brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ⁱ ground it to powder, and strewed it ^k upon the water, and made the children of Israel ^l drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they ^m are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there ⁿ came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were ^o naked, (for Aaron had made them naked ^p unto their shame, among ^q their enemies,)

26 Then Moses ^r stood in the gate of the camp, and said, ^s Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the ^t sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and ^u slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about ^v three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, ^w Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, even every man upon his ^x son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now ^y I will go up unto the LORD; ^z peradventure I shall make an ^a atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned ^b unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold;

32 Yet now, ^c if thou wilt forgive their sin—and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy ^d book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, ^e him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now ^f go, lead the people unto ^g the h 2 Sam. 12, 35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 The Lord refuseth to go, as he had promised, with the people. 4 The people mourn thereat. 7 The tabernacle is removed out of the camp. 9 The Lord talketh familiarly with Moses. 12 Moses desireth to see the glory of God.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swear unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it.

2 And I will send ^b an angel before thee; and I will drive out the ^c Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with ^d milk and honey: for I will ^e not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art ^f a stiff-necked people; lest I ^g consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, they ^h mourned; and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now I put off thy ornaments from thee, that ^k I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the ^l mount Horeb.

7 ¶ And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar ^m off from the camp, and called it, The Tabernacle of the Congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which ⁿ was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man ^a at his tent-door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and ^o the LORD talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle-door: and all the people rose up and ^p worshipped, every man in his tent-door.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses ^q a face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, ^r thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, ^s I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now ^t thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight; and consider that this nation is ^u thy people.

14 And he said, ^v My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If ^w thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be ^x separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^y I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me ^z thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my ^a goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be ^b gracious, and will shew ^c mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou ^d canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me ^e and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon ^f a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in ^g a cleft of the rock, and will cover ^h thee with ⁱ my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my ^j back parts; but my face shall ^k not be seen.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 The tables are renewed. 5 The name of the LORD proclaimed. 8 Moses entreateth God to go with them. 10 God maketh a covenant with them, repeating certain duties of the first table.

28 Moses, after forty days in the mount, cometh down with the tables. 29 His face shineth, and he covereth it with a veil.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, ^a Hew thee two tables of stone ^b like unto the first; and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which ^c thou brakest.

2 And be ready ^d in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And no man ^e shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 And he hewed two tables of stone, like unto the first: and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 ¶ And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and ^f proclaimed the name of the LORD.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from amongst you an offering unto the LORD : whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, ^b an offering of the LORD ; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And ⁱ blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim-wood,

8 And ^k oil for the light, and spices for ^l anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, 9 And onyx-stones, and stones ^m to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-plate.

10 And every wise-hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded ;

11 The ⁿ tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The ^o ark and the staves thereof, with the mercy-seat, and the vail of the ^p covering,

13 The ^q table and his staves, and all his vessels, and the ^r shew-bread,

14 The candlestick also for the ^s light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light,

15 And the ^t incense-altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle,

16 The ^u altar of burnt-offering, with his brazen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his ^v foot,

17 The ^w hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the ^x pins of the court, and their cords, 19 The clothes of ^a service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart ^b stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought ^c bracelets, and ear-rings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold : and every man that ^d offered, offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering : and every man with whom ^e was found shittim-wood, for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the ^e women that were wise-hearted did ^f spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx-stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-plate :

28 And ^g spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them ^h willing to bring, for all manner of work ⁱ which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hands of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name ^k Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah ;

31 And ^l he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship ;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he and ^m Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of ⁿ the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that ^o devise cunning work.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 The offerings are delivered to the workmen. 5 The liberality of the people is restrained. 8 The curtains with cherubims. 14 The curtains of goats' hair. 19 The covering of skins. 20 The boards with their sockets. 31 The bars. 35 The vail. 37 The hanging for the door.

THE LORD wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding, to know how to work ^a all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to ^b all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called ^c Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it :

3 And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free-offerings every ^d morning.

4 And all ^e the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made ; people bring [†] much more than enough for the service of the work which the Lord commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were ^g restrained from bringing.

7 For the ^h stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ And every wise-hearted man among them that wrought the work of the ⁱ tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with ^k cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight ^l cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another; and the other five curtains he coupled one unto ^m another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the ⁿ edge of one curtain, from the selvege in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 ^o Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent ^p over the tabernacle; eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

20 And he made boards for the tabernacle of ^q shittim-wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two [†] tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side, southward.

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards, 26 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle [†] westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were [†] coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under [†] every board two sockets.

31 And he made bars of shittim-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the [†] tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it ^o of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four [†] pillars of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 And he made an hanging for the tabernacle-door, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of [†] needle-work;

38 And the five pillars of it, with their hooks: and he overlaid their [†] chapters and their [†] fillets with gold; but their five sockets were of brass.

1 The ark. 6 The mercy-seat with cherubims. 10 The table with his vessels. 17 The candlestick with his lamps and instruments. 25 The altar of incense. 29 The anointing oil, and sweet incense.

AND ¶ Bezaleel made the ^a ark of shittim-wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it.

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold ^b within and without, and made ^c a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold; to be set by the ^d four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them ^e with gold.

5 And he put the ^f staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the ^g mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy-seat;

8 One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side : out of the mercy-seat made he the cherubims, on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubims ^b spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy-seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.

10 And he made the ⁱ table of shittim-wood : two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an hand-breadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves, to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his ^k dishes, and his ^l spoons, and his ^m bowls, and his covers, to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 And he made the ⁿ candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same :

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof :

19 Three bowls made he after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower; so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like ^o almonds, his knops, and his flowers :

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches ^p going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same : all of it was one ^q beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his ^r seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuff-dishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 And he made the ^s incense altar of shittim-wood : the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit, (it was foursquare,) and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the ^t top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it : also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves, to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the ^u holy anointing oil, and the pure ^v incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

1 The altar of burnt-offering. 8 The laver of brass. 9 The court. 21 The sum of that the people offered.

AND he made the ^a altar of burnt-offering of shittim-wood : five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof, (it was ^b foursquare,) and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the ^c horns thereof on the four corners of it : the horns thereof were of the same : and he overlaid it with ^d brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the ^e shovels, and the basons, and the ^f flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans; all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar ^g a brasen grate ^g of net-work, under the compass thereof, beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the ^h grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made ⁱ the staves of ^k shittim-wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal : he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 And he made the ^l laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the ^m looking-glasses of the women ⁿ assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 And he made the court : on the south side southward, the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits :

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty : the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty : the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward, fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the ^p one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

13 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needle-work, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the || pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of ^a Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made ^r all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and ^a a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work, in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the ^t offering, was twenty and nine || talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and three-score and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 || A bekah for [†] every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for ^a six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an ^x hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, 31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

1 The clothes of service, and holy garments. 2 The ephod. 3 The breast-plate. 22 The robe of the ephod. 27 The coats, mitre, and girdle of fine linen. 30 The plate of the holy crown. 32 All is viewed and approved by Moses.

AND of the ^a blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made clothes of service, to do service in the ^b holy place, and made the ^c holy garments for Aaron; as the Lord commanded Moses.

2 ¶ And he made the ^d ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with ^e cunning work.

4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the ^f curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; ^g as the Lord commanded Moses.

6 And they wrought ^h onyx-stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with ⁱ the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for ^k a memorial to the children of Israel; as the Lord commanded Moses.

8 And he made the ^l breast-plate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare: they made the breast-plate double: a span was the length thereof, and a ^m span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it ⁿ four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were ^o according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breast-plate ^p chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two ^q gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breast-plate.

17 And they put the two ^r wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-plate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ^s ephod before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breast-plate, upon the border border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the fore-part of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breast-plate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate might not be loosed from the ephod: as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates, upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 And they made coats of fine linen, of woven work, for Aaron and for his sons;

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen;

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets,

34 And the covering of rams' skins, dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the vail of the covering,

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy-seat,

36 The table and all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread,

37 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light,

38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle-door,

39 The brassen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 The clothes of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

C H A P. XL.

1 The tabernacle is commanded to be reared, 9 and anointed. 13 Aaron and his sons to be sanctified.

16 Moses performeth all things accordingly. 34 A cloud covereth the tabernacle.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail.

4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt-offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt-offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office : for their anointing shall surely be an ^a everlasting priesthood, throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses ; according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the ^a second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the ^b tabernacle, and ^a fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the ^c tent over the tabernacle, and put the ^d covering of the tent above upon it ; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put the ^e testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the ^f mercy-seat above upon the ark.

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and ^g covered the ark of the testimony ; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the ^h bread in order upon it before the LORD ; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the ⁱ candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he ^j lighted the lamps before the LORD ; as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the ^k golden altar in the tent of the congregation, before the vail :

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon ; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the ^l altar of burnt-offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt-offering and the meat-offering ; ^m as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And he set the ⁿ laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash ^o withal.

31 And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, ^p washed their hands and their feet thereat :

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed ; ^q as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the ^r court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 Then a ^s cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the ^t glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was ^u not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel ^v went onward in all their journeys :

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 For ^w the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of ^h sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin-offering; the ^k fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth ^m without the camp unto a clean place, ⁿ where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And if the ^o whole congregation of Israel sin through ^p ignorance, and the thing be ^q hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD, concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin which they have sinned against it is known, then the congregation shall offer a ^r young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and commit a ^a trespass ^b against the LORD, and ^c lie unto his neighbour in that which was ^d delivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away [†] by violence, or hath ^e deceived his neighbour;

3 Or have found that which was ^f lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall ^g restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the ^h fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, ⁱ in the day of his trespass-offering.

6 And he shall bring his ^k trespass-offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest:

7 And the priest shall make ^l an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This ^m is the law of the burnt-offering: (it ⁿ is the burnt-offering, because of the burning upon the altar all ^o night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.)

10 And the priest shall put on his ^p linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon ^q his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath ^r consumed with the burnt-offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put ^s on other garments, and carry forth the ashes ^t without the camp, unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall ^u not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt-offering in order upon it, and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace-offerings.

13 The fire shall ^v ever be burning upon the altar: it shall never go out.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the ^w meat-offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat-offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which ^x is upon the meat-offering, and shall burn ^y it upon the altar, for ^z a sweet savour, even the memorial of it ^{aa} unto the LORD.

16 And the ^{ab} remainder thereof shall Aaron and ^{ac} his sons eat: with ^{ad} unleavened bread shall it be eaten ^{ae} in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall ^{af} not be baked with leaven. I have given it ^{ag} unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is ^{ah} most holy, as ^{ai} is the sin-offering, and as the trespass-offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: ^{aj} it shall be a statute for ever in your generations, concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them ^{ak} shall be holy.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This ^{al} is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is ^{am} anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat-offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and ^{an} when it is baked thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meat-offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: ^{ao} it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be ^{ap} wholly burnt.

23 For every meat-offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This ^{aq} is the law of the sin-offering: In the place where the burnt-offering is ^{ar} killed shall the sin-offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy.

26 The priest that ^{as} offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be ^{at} holy: and when there is sprinkled of the ^{au} blood thereof upon any garment, thou ^{av} shalt wash that whereon it is sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken; and if it be sodden in a brasen

C H A P. VII.

1 The law of the trespass-offering, 11 and of the peace-offerings, 12 whether it be for a thanksgiving, 16 or a vow, or a free-will-offering. 22 The fat, 26 and the blood, are forbidden. 28 The priest's portion in the peace-offerings.

LIKEWISE this is the law of ^a the trespass-offering: it is ^b most holy.

2 In the ^c place where they kill the burnt-offering shall they kill the trespass-offering: and the blood thereof shall he ^d sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the ^e inwards, 4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is ^f on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass-offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the [†] sin-offering is, so is the trespass-offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt-offering, even the priest shall have to himself the ^g skin of the burnt-offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat-offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is drpsed in the ^h frying-pan, and in the pan, ⁱ shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat-offering, mingled ^k with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have; one as much as another.

11 ¶ And this is the law of the sacrifice of ^l peace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the ^m sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and ⁿ unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, ^o fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering ^p leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an ^q heave-offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace-offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall ^r be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a ^s vow, or a ^t voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the ^u third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall ^v not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an ^w abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall ^x bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that ^a toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover, the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of ^b man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of ^c peace-offerings which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no ^d manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the ^e beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use; but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall ^f be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover, ye shall eat no manner of ^g blood, whether it be of fowl, or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offerings unto the LORD, shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

30 ^h His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire; the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be ⁱ waved for a wave-offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar; but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for ^k an heave-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have ^l the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave-breast and the heave-shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons, by a statute ^m for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 This is the portion of the ^a anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt-offering, of the meat-offering, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the ^a consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in ^p mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their ^a oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Moses consecrateth Aaron and his sons. 14 Their sin-offering. 18 Their burnt-offering. 22 The ram of consecration. 31 The place and time of their consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Take ^a Aaron, and his sons with him, and the garments, and the ^b anointing oil, and a bullock for the ^c sin-offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the ^d door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did ^a as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with ^f water.

7 And he put upon him the ^g coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the ^h breast-plate upon him; also he put in the breast-plate the ⁱ Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he put the mitre upon his head: also upon the mitre, even upon his ^k fore-front, did he put the golden plate, the ^l holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the ^m anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar, and all his ⁿ vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon ^o Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullock for the ^p sin-offering: and Aaron and his sons laid ^q their hands upon the head of the bullock for the ^r sin-offering.

15 And he ^s slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the ^t horns of the altar round about with his finger, and ^u purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and ^v sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the ^w fat that was upon the inwards, and the ^x caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock and his hide, his flesh and his dung, he burnt with fire ^y without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

18 And he brought the ram for the ^z burnt-offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he ^a killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces, and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt-sacrifice for ^b a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he brought the other ^c ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his ^d right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the ^e rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of ^f oiled bread, and one ^g wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and ^h waved them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt-offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

for a wave-offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' ^k part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

C H A P. IX.

1 The first-offerings of Aaron for himself and the people. 8 The sin-offering, 12 and the burnt-offering for himself. 15 The offerings for the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the LORD upon the altar.

AND it came to pass, ^u on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the ^v elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin-offering, and ^w a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and ^x offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin-offering; and a calf, and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt-offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and ^y a meat-offering mingled with oil: for to-day the LORD will ^z appear unto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near, and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do; and the ^a glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, ^b Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin-offering, and thy burnt-offering, and make an atonement ^c for thyself and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin-offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the ^d horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

10 But the ^e fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin-offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the ^f hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt-offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt-offering unto him, with the ^g pieces thereof, and the head; and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did ^h wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt-offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin-offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it ⁱ for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt-offering, and offered it according to the ^j manner.

17 And he brought the meat-offering, and ^k took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt-sacrifice of the ^l morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he ^m sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the ⁿ rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the ^o fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for ^p a wave-offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lift ^q up his hand towards the people, and ^r blessed them; and ^s came down ^t from offering of the sin-offering, and the burnt-offering, and peace-offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron ^u went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and ^v blessed the people: and the ^w glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before ^x the LORD, and ^y consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they ^z shouted, and fell on their faces.

The laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning the leprosy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, ^a a scab, or ^b bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the ^e plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And ^a the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and when the hair in the plague is turned ^e white, and the plague in sight be ^e deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and ^a pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up ^a him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is but a scab: and he shall ^b wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab ⁱ spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab ^k spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall ⁱ pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be ^m quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin ⁿ of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall ^t pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean: it is ^e a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was ^h a boil, and ^p is healed;

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy ^a broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark, then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is ^a a hot ^t burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a ^a white bright spot, somewhat reddish or white,

25 Then the priest shall ^a look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark, then the priest shall ^a shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day; and if it be spread ^a much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark, it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is an inflammation of the burning.

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days:

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin,

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing, 36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein, the scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh, bright spots, even white bright spots, 39 Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white, it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald: yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead-bald: yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead:

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh,

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp or woof, of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin, the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread, it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it, then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any thing of skin, it is a spreading plague; thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire:

58 And the garment, either warp or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

of his cleansing: he shall be brought unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be ^a healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds ^b alive and ^c clean, ^d and cedar-wood ^e and scarlet, ^f and hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in ^g an earthen vessel over ^h running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in ⁱ the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy ^j seven times, and shall ^k pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird ^l loose into the ^m open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and ⁿ wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave ^o all his hair off his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall ^p be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take ^q two he-lambs without ^r blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat-offering, mingled with ^s oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh ^t him clean shall present the man that is to be ^u made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the priest shall take one he-lamb, and offer him for a ^v trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and wave them ^w for a wave-offering before the LORD:

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place ^x where he shall kill the sin-offering and the burnt-offering, in the holy place: for as the sin-offering ^y is the priest's, so is the trespass-offering; it ^z is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take ^a some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it upon the ^b tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

15 And the priest shall take ^c some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD:

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, ^a upon the blood of the trespass-offering:

18 And the remnant of the ^b oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed; and the priest shall ^c make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the priest shall ^d offer the sin-offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill ^e the burnt-offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt-offering, and the ^f meat-offering, upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be poor, and ^g cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb ^h for a trespass-offering to ⁱ be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat-offering, and a log of oil;

22 And two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day, for his cleansing, unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD.

24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them ^j for a wave-offering before the LORD.

25 And he shall ^k kill the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall take ^l some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the ^m right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right ⁿ hand, and upon the great toe of his right ^o foot:

26 And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27 And the priest shall ^p sprinkle with his right finger ^q some of the oil that is in his left hand, ^r seven times before ^s the LORD:

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of ^t the blood of the trespass-offering:

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the ^u head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an ^v atonement for him before the LORD.

30 And he shall offer the ^w one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get;

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, with the meat-offering: and ^x the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD.

32 This is the law of ^y him in whom is the plague of leprosy, ^z whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

14 And

31 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

35 And he that owneth the house shall come, and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house;

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house ^a be not made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in ^b the walls of the house, with hollow strikes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house,

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city, into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is unclean.

45 And he shall ^d break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city, into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that ^e goeth into the house, all the while that it is shut up, shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that ^f eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered; then the priest shall ^g pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to ^h cleanse the house two birds, and cedar-wood, and ⁱ scarlet, and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

51 And he shall take the cedar-wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the ^k blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar-wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an ^l atone-ment for the house: and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for ^m all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall,

55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of an house,

56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot;

57 ⁿ To teach when it is unclean, and [†] when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering or ^m sacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not unto the ^a door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

11 For the ^p life of the flesh is in the blood; and ^q I have given it to you upon the altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for ^r it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 ^s Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which ^t hunteth, and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even ^u pour out the blood thereof, and ^v cover it with dust.

AND the LORD ^a spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, ^b I am the LORD ^c your God.

3 After the doings of the land of ^d Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of ^e Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither shall ye ^f walk in their ordinances.

4 Ye shall do ^g my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments; which if a man do, he shall ^h live in them: I am the LORD.

6 ⁱ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their ^k nakedness: I am the LORD.

7 The nakedness of thy ^l father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy father's ^m wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, (she is thy sister,) thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy ⁿ daughter-in-law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy ^o brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take a wife ^p to her sister, to ^q vex her, to uncover her nakedness, besides the other, in her life-time.

19 ¶ Also, thou shalt ^r not approach unto a woman, to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is ^s put apart for her uncleanness.

20 Moreover, thou shalt not ^t lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy ^u seed pass through the fire to ^v Molech, neither shalt thou ^w profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 Thou shalt not ^x lie with mankind as with womankind: it is abomination.

24 Defile not you yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do ^z visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself ^a vomiteth out her inhabitants.

28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

11 Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

13 Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling-block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD.

15 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 Thou shalt not go up and down as a tale-bearer among thy people; neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

18 Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

19 Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind. Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed; neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woolen come upon thee.

20 And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman that is a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her, she shall be scourged: they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass-offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him, with the ram of the trespass-offering, before the LORD, for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

23 And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you; it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy, to praise the LORD withal.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

26 Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood; neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times.

27 Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

29 Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

31 Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32 Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD.

33 And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him.

the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee :

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it : for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another ; but thou shalt ^r fear thy God : for I am the Lord your God.

18 Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them ; and ye shall dwell in the land ^s in safety.

19 And the land shall ^t yield her fruit, and ye shall ^u eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, ^v What shall we eat the seventh year ? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase :

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and ^z eat yet of old fruit unto the ninth year ; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 The land shall not be sold for ever : for the land ^a is mine ; for ye ^b were strangers and ^c sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant ^d a redemption for the land.

25 If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away ^e some of his possession, and if ^f any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which ^g his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and ^h himself be able to redeem it ;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it, that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore ⁱ it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee : and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his ^j possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold ; ^k within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that ^l is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations : it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no walls round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country ; they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee : for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may ^m not be sold ; for it ⁿ is their perpetual possession.

35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee, then thou shalt ^o relieve him ; ^p yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner ; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no ^q usury of him, or ^r increase ; but fear thy God ; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the Lord ^s your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and ^t be sold unto thee, thou shalt not ^u compel him to serve as a bond-servant :

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee :

41 And then shall he ^v depart from thee, both he and his ^w children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are ^x my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt : they shall not be sold as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with ^y rigour, but shalt ^z fear thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the ^a heathen that are round about you ; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover, of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye ^b buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land : and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession ; ^c they shall be your bondmen for ever : but over your brethren, the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax ^d rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the ^e stock of the stranger's family :

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again ; one of his brethren may redeem him :

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or ^f any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may ^g redeem him ; or, if he be able, ^h he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee : and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years ; according to the ⁱ time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year^b of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants, whom^c I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Of idolatry. 2 Religiousness. 3 A blessing to them that keep the commandments. 14 A curse to those that break them. 40 God promiseth to remember them that repent.

YE shall make you no idols nor graven^a image, neither rear you up a^b standing image, neither shall ye set up any^c image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 Ye shall keep^d my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

3 If ye^e walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 Then I will give you^f rain^g in due season, and the land shall yield^h her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing-time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your landⁱ safely.

6 And I will give^j peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make^k you afraid: and I will rid^l evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall^m before you by the sword.

8 Andⁿ a five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you^o fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat^p a old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

11 And I will^q set my tabernacle amongst you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

12 And I will^r walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

13 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their^s bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go up-right.

14 But if ye will^t not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall^u despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you^v terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall^w consume the eyes, and^x cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your^y enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be^z slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall^{aa} reign over you; and ye shall flee when^{ab} none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet^{ac} for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the^{ad} pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as^{ae} iron, and your earth as brass.

20 And your strength shall be spent^{af} in vain: for your land shall not yield her^{ag} increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will^{ah} not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you, according to your sins.

22 I will also send^{ai} wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high-ways shall be^{aj} desolate.

23 And if ye will not be reformed^{ak} by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 Then will I also^{al} walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and, when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the^{am} staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by^{an} weight: and ye shall eat, and^{ao} not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And ye shall eat the^{ap} flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And I will destroy your high places and cut down your images, and^{aq} cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and^{ar} my soul shall abhor you.

31 And I will make your^{as} cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 And I will bring the land into^{at} desolation; and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular^a vow, the^b persons shall be for^c the LORD by thy estimation.

3 And thy estimation shall be, of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be^d fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the^e sanctuary.

4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be^f thirty shekels.

5 And if it be from^g five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from^h a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to hisⁱ ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any^k unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add^l a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 And when a man shall^m sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctifyⁿ unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an^o homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from^p the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the^q jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

33 And I will^r scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it^s shall rest; because it did^t not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send^u a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a^v shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shall^w perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall^x pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their^y fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 If they shall^z confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then they^a uncircumcised hearts be^b humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity;

42 Then will I^c remember my covenant^d with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember^e the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity; ^f because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the^g land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to^h destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORDⁱ their God.

45 But I will^j be for their sakes remember the covenant of their^k ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in^l mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more;

21 But the ^afield, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as [†]a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of [†]thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubilee: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 In the year of the jubilee the field ³shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty ^{||}gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's [†]firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox or sheep; [†]it is the LORD's.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding, no ^adevoted thing that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is ^amost holy unto the LORD.

29 [†]None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be ^aredeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

30 And all ^{||} the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it is ^aholy unto the LORD.

31 And if a man will ^bat all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever ^cpasseth under the rod, the ^dtenth shall be holy unto the LORD.

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel, in ^emount Sinai.

¶ The FOURTH Book of Moses, called NUMBERS.

CHAP. I.

1 God commandeth Moses to number the people.

5 The princes of the tribes. 17. The number of every tribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of ^aSinai, in the ^btabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the ^csecond month, in the second year ^dafter they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Take ye the ^esum of all the congregation of the ^fchildren of Israel, after their ^gfamilies, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their poll;

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are ^hable to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall [†]number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: Of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zuri-shaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Ammi-nadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of ^{||}Gideoni.

12 Of Dan; Abiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of [†]Deuel.

15 ^bOf Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the [†]renowned of the congregation, ^aprinces of the tribes of their fathers, ^bheads of ^cthousands in Israel.

17 And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 [†]As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were ^z fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30 Of the children of ^a Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were ^b fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

32 Of the ^c children of Joseph, namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

33 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were ^d forty thousand and five hundred.

34 Of the children of ^e Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Manasseh, were ^e thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

36 Of the children of ^f Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the 37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were ^h thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

38 Of the children of ⁱ Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

39 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were ^k threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

40 Of the children of ⁱ Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

41 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were ^m forty and one thousand and five hundred.

42 Of the children of ⁿ Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

44 These are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being ^o twelve men: each one was for ^o the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 Even all they that were numbered were ^p six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

47 But the ^q Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the ^r tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall ^r bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle ^t setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the ^u stranger that cometh nigh shall be ^x put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own ^y standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be ^z no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the ^a charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

1 The sons of Aaron. 5 The Levites are given to the priests for the service of the tabernacle, 11 instead of the first-born. 14 The Levites are numbered by their families. 21 The families, number, and charge of the Gershonites, 27 of the Kohathites, 33 of the Merarites. 38 The place and charge of Moses and Aaron. 40 The first-born are freed by the Levites. 44 The over-plus are redeemed.

THESE also are the ^a generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the ^b first-born, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he ^c consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

4 And Nadab and Abihu ^d died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the ^e sight of Aaron their father.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they shall keep his ^f charge, and the charge of the ^g whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to ^h do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt ⁱ give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given ^k unto him out of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their ^l priest's office; and the ^m stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the ⁿ first-born that ^o openeth the matrix among the children of Israel; therefore the Levites shall be mine;

13 Because all the first-born are mine: for on the day that ^p I smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the first-born in Israel, both man and beast; mine they shall be: I am the LORD.

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of ^q Levi, after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou ^r number them.

16 And Moses numbered them, according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the ^s sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and ^t Kohath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon, by their families; ^u Libni, and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath, by their families; Amram, and Izebar, ^v Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari, by their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them, were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle ^w westward.

24 And the chief of the ^x house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And ^y the charge of the sons of Gershon, in the ^z tabernacle of the congregation, shall be the tabernacle, and the ^{aa} tent, ^{ab} the covering thereof, and the ^{ac} hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, 26 And the ^{ad} hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it, for all the service thereof.

27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izebarites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the ^{ae} sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle ^{af} southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the ^{ag} Levites, and have the ^{ah} oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

38 But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males, from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the first-born of the males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the first-born among the children of Israel.

43 And all the first-born males, by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the first-born of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll; after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty a-gelahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption-money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the first-born of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And upon the table of shew-bread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon.

23 From thirty years old and upward, until fifty years old, shalt thou number them ; all that enter in [†] to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for ^e burdens.

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them : so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service : and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation : and their charge shall be ^f under the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

29 As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers :

30 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old, shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation ; the ^g boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and ^h sockets thereof,

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their ⁱ sockets, and ^k their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service : and ^l by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the ^m service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

34 And Moses and Aaron, and the chief of the congregation, ⁿ numbered the sons of the Kohathites, after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

35 From ^o thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation :

36 And those that were numbered of them, by their families, were ^p two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number, ^q according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

38 And those that were ^r numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old and upward, even unto ^s fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the houses of their fathers, were ^t two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that ^u might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, 44 Even those that were numbered of them, after their families, were ^v three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the ^w chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers, 48 Even those that were numbered of them, were ^a eight thousand and five hundred and four-score.

CHAPTER V.

1 The unclean are removed out of the camp. 5 Restitution is to be made in trespasses. 11 The trial of jealousy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put ^a out of the camp every ^b leper, and every one that hath an ^c issue, and whosoever is defiled by the ^d dead:

3 Both ^a male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they ^d defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I ^e dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel; When a man or woman shall commit ^b any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall ^c confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the ^d fifth part thereof, and give it ^e unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; beside the ^m ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every ^a offering of ^a all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring ^p unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it ^q shall be his.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife ^r go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man lie with her ^s carnally, and it ^t be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be ^u no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the ^v spirit of ^v jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled;

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the ^w priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the ^x tenth part of an ephah of ^b barley meal; he shall pour no ^y oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and ^z set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take ^a holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the ^b dust that is in the floor of the ^c tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and ^b uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which ^c is the jealousy-offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the ^d bitter water that ^e causeth the curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another ^f instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man hath ^g lain with thee beside thine husband;

21 Then the priest shall ^h charge the woman with an oath of cursing; and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee ^a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to ^b rot, and thy belly to swell:

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, ⁱ Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in ^j a book, and he shall ^k blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy-offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh ^l shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall ^m conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to ⁿ another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

2 The law of the Nazarite. 24 The form of blessing the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall ^a separate themselves to ^b vow a vow of a ^c Nazarite, to separate themselves ^d unto the LORD;

3 He shall separate himself from ^e wine, and ^f strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the ^g vine-tree, from the ^h kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no ⁱ razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the ^k locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall come at no ^l dead body.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because the consecration of his God ^m is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he ⁿ is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall ^o shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two ^p young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he ^q sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall ^r consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering: but the days that were before shall be ^s lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 And this ^t is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be ^u brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation;

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin-offering, and one ram without blemish for ^v peace-offerings, 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and ^w wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat-offering, and ^x their drink-offerings.

16 And the ^y priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering.

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his ^z meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall ^{aa} shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put ^{ab} it in the ^{ac} fire which ^{ad} is ^{ae} under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the ^{af} sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put ^{ag} them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall ^{ah} wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD: this ^{ai} is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast and heave-shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This ^{aj} is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD ^{ak} for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 ¶ And the LORD ^{al} spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his ^{am} sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

24 The LORD ^{an} bless thee, and ^{ao} keep thee;

25 The LORD ^{ap} make his face shine upon thee, and be ^{aq} gracious unto thee;

26 The LORD ^{ar} lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee ^{as} peace.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and ^{at} I will bless them.

54 ¶ On the eighth day offered Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh:

55 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat-offering:

56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

57 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

58 One kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

59 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur.

60 ¶ On the ninth day Abidan, the son of Gideon, prince of the children of Benjamin, offered:

61 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with ^a oil, for a meat-offering:

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

63 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

64 One kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

65 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Abidan, the son of Gideon.

66 ¶ On the tenth day Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan, offered:

67 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat-offering:

68 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

69 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

70 One kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

71 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai.

72 ¶ On the [†]eleventh day Pagiel, the son of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher, offered:

73 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat-offering:

74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, ^a full of incense:

75 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

76 One kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

77 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Pagiel, the son of Ocran.

78 ¶ On the twelfth day Ahira, the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali, offered:

79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat-offering:

80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

81 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

82 One kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

83 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahira, the son of Enan.

84 This was the ^a dedication of the ^a altar, in the day when it was ^a anointed, by the ^y princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: ^a all the silver vessels weighed ^a two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

89 ¶ And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak ^c with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the ^a mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two ^e cherubims : and he ^f spake unto him.

C H A P. VIII.

1 How the lamps are to be lighted. 5 The consecration of the Levites. 23 The age and time of their service.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou ^a lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the ^b candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work : according unto the ^c pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the ^d Levites from ^e among the children of Israel, and ^f cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them : Sprinkle [†] water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their ^g clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat-offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation : and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together :

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD : and the ^h children of Israel shall ⁱ put their hands upon the Levites :

11 And Aaron shall ^k offer the Levites before the LORD for an ^l offering of the children of Israel, that they may ^m execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks : and thou shalt offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, unto the LORD, to make ⁿ an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel : and the Levites shall ^o be mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the ^p service of the tabernacle of the congregation : and thou shalt cleanse them, and ^q offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel ; instead of such as ^r open every womb, even instead of the first-born of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast : on the day that I smote every first-born in the land of Egypt, ^s I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel.

19 And I have given the Levites as ^t a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, ^u to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel : that there be ^v no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the ^w sanctuary.

20 And ^x Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were ^y purified, and they washed their clothes ; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD ; and Aaron ^z made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons : as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites : from ^a twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in ^b to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation :

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall ^c cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more :

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

1 The passover is commanded again. 6 A second passover allowed for them that were unclean or absent. 15 The cloud guideth the removings and encampings of the Israelites.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the ^d first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the ^e passover at his ^f appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, ^g at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season : according to all the ^h rites of it, and according to all the ⁱ ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at even, in the wilderness of Sinai : according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men who were defiled by the ¹ dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer ² an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear ³ what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey ⁴ afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and ⁵ eat it with ⁶ unleavened bread and ⁷ bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it ⁸ unto the morning, ⁹ nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and ¹⁰ forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be ¹¹ cut off ¹² from his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear ¹³ his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall ¹⁴ sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the ¹⁵ manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

15 ¶ And on the day that the tabernacle was ¹⁶ reared up, the ¹⁷ cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the ¹⁸ tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the ¹⁹ appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was always: the ²⁰ cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then ²¹ after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and ²² at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud ²³ tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed; whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 ¶ At the commandment of the LORD they rested in their tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the ²⁴ hand of Moses.

1 The use of the silver trumpets. 11 The Israelites remove from Sinai to Paran. 14 The order of their march. 29 Hobab is entreated by Moses not to leave them. 33 The blessing of Moses at the removing and resting of the ark.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two ¹ trumpets of silver: of a ² whole piece shalt thou make ³ them, that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow ⁴ but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are ⁵ heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an ⁶ alarm, then the camps that lie on the ⁷ east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the ⁸ south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that ⁹ oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with ¹⁰ the trumpets; and ye shall ¹¹ be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your ¹² gladness, and in your ¹³ solemn days, and in the ¹⁴ beginnings of your months, ye shall blow ¹⁵ with the trumpets over your ¹⁶ burnt-offerings, and over the sacrifices of your ¹⁷ peace-offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the ¹⁸ second month, in the ¹⁹ second year, that the ²⁰ cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of ^a Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of ^a Paran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the ^v commandment of the LORD by the hand of ^z Moses.

14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children ^a of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel, the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was ^b taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, ^b bearing the tabernacle.

18 And the standard of the camp of ^a Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the ^a sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.

25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the ^a rearward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 [†] Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 And Moses said unto ^a Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will ^b not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee: forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of ^a eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 And they departed from the ^k mount of the LORD [†] three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting-place for them.

34 And the ^m cloud of the LORD was ^a upon them ^o by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, ^p Rise up, LORD, and let ^a thine enemies be ^r scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.

1 The burning at Taberah quenched by Moses' prayer. 4 The people lust for flesh, and loathe manna. 10 Moses complaineth of his charge. 16 God divideth his burden unto seventy elders. 31 Quails are given in wrath at Kibroth-hattaavah.

AND when the people ^a complained, it ^b displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the ^c fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was ^d quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place ^{||} Taberah; because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 And the ^e mixed multitude that was among them [†] fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, ^f Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the ^g garlick:

6 But now our soul is ^h dried away: there is nothing at all, besides this manna, ⁱ before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander-seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of ^k bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ^l ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made ^m cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of ⁿ fresh oil.

9 And when the dew ^o fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou ^p afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not ^q found favour in thy sight, that thou layest ^r the burden of all this people upon me?

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my ^x wretchedness.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me ^y seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and ^z officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will come ^a down and talk with thee there: and I will ^b take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; ^c and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: ^d for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people amongst whom I am, are ^e six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to ^f suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's ^g hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy ^h men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down in a ⁱ cloud, and spake unto him, and ^k took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they ^j prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were ^m written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, ^o forbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, ^p Enviest thou for my sake? ^q Would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And there went forth ^a a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ^t ten homers: and they spread them ^u all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while the flesh [†] was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with ^x a very great plague.

34 And he ^y called the name of that place || Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto ^z Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth.

1 God rebuketh the sedition of Miriam and Aaron.
 10 Miriam's leprosy is healed at the prayer of Moses. 14 God commandeth her to be shut out of the host.

AND [†] Miriam and Aaron ^a spake against Moses because of the ^b Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also ^c by us? And the LORD ^d heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very ^e meek, ^f above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD ^g spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come ^h out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD ⁱ came down in the pillar of the ^k cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a ^j prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a ^m vision, and will speak unto him in a ⁿ dream.

7 My servant Moses is not ^o so, who is faithful in all ^p mine house?

1 The names of the men who were sent to search the land. 17 Their instructions. 21 Their acts. 26 Their relation.

AND the ^a LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ^b Send thou men, that they may ^c search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel : of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the ^d commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran : all those men were ^e heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names : Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Judah, || Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, || Sethur the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua.

17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way ¹ southward, and go up into the ^a mountain :

18 And see the land, what it is ; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many ;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be ^b good or bad ; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds ;

20 And what the land is, whether it be ^c fat or lean, whether there be wood therein or not : and be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

21 So they went up, and searched the land, from the wilderness of ^b Zin unto ¹ Rehob, as men come to ^m Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto ^a Hebron, where ^c Ahiman, Sheshai, and ^d Talmai, ^e the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was ^f built seven years before ^g Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of || Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff ; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty ^a days.

26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of ^b Paran, to ^c Kadesh ; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely ^v it floweth with milk and honey ; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are ^a walled, and very great : and, moreover, we saw the children of ^a Anak there.

29 The ^b Amalekites dwell in the land of the south ; and the ^c Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the ^d mountains ; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And ^e Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once and possess it ; for ^f we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the ^g men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people ; for they are stronger than we.

32 And they brought up ^h an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are ^k men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants; and we were in our own sight as ^l grasshoppers; and so we were ^m in their sight.

1 The people murmur at the news. 6 Joshua and Caleb labour to still them. 11 God threateneth them. 13 Moses persuadeth God, and obtaineth pardon. 26 The murmurers are deprived of entering into the land. 36 The men who raised the evil report die by a plague. 40 The people that would invade the land against the will of God are smitten.

AN ^a all the congregation lifted up their voice, and ^b cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured ^c against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, ^d Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore ^e hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, ^f Let us make a captain, and let us ^g return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron ^h fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that ⁱ searched the land, ^j rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is ^k an ^l exceeding good land.

8 If the Lord delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the Lord, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are ^m bread for us: their ⁿ defence is departed from them, and the Lord is ^o with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation bade ^p stone them with stones. And the glory of the Lord ^q appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, before all the children of Israel.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people ^r provoke me? and how long will it be ere they ^s believe me, for ^t all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the ^u pestilence, and disinherit them, and will ^v make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 And Moses said unto the Lord, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou Lord ^w art among this people; that thou Lord art ^x seen face to face; and that thy cloud ^y standeth over them; and that thou goest before them, by day-time in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now, if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the Lord ^z was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The Lord is ^a long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by ^b no means clearing the guilty; ^c visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people, according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people from Egypt even ^d until now.

20 And the Lord said, I have ^e pardoned, according to thy word:

21 But as ^f truly as I live, all the earth shall be ^g filled with the glory of the Lord.

22 Because all those men which have seen ^h my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 ⁱ Surely they shall not see ^j the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant ^k Caleb, because he had ^l another spirit with him, and hath ^m followed me fully, him will I bring into the land wherinto he went; and his seed shall ⁿ possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) ^o To-morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the ^p Red Sea.

26 ^q And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, 27 ^r How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the Lord, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcases shall ^s fall in this wilderness; and all that were ^t numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land concerning which ^u I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they ^v shall know the land which ye have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years; and ye shall know my breach of promise:

35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me; in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 ¶ And the men which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, 37 Even those men, that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 ¶ And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do you transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 But they presumed to go up unto the hill-top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt-offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a free-will-offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock;

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat-offering of a tenth-deal of flour, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil.

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering shalt thou prepare, with the burnt-offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat-offering two tenth-deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

7 And for a drink-offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt-offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace-offerings unto the LORD;

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat-offering of three tenth-deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink-offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one, according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you;

19 Then it shall be, that when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave-offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an heave-offering: as ye do the heave-offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave-offering in your generations.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin-offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the ^a stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 And if ^a any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she-goat of the † first year for a sin-offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 You shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born amongst the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

31 Because he hath ^d despised the word of the LORD, and hath ^e broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his ^f iniquity shall be upon him.

32 ¶ And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath-day.

36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

37 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them ^l fringes in the borders of their garments, throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a riband of blue:

39 And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and ^m remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye ⁿ seek not after your own heart, and your ^o own eyes, after which ye use to go a ^p whoring:

9 Seemeth it but a ^p small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath ^q separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the ^r service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and ^s to stand before the congregation, to ^t minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together ^u against the LORD: and ^v what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 And Moses ^w sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; which said, We will not come up.

thou make thyself altogether ^a a prince over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast ^a not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou [†] put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very ^b wroth, and said unto the LORD, ^c Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken ^d one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered ^e all the congregation against them, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the ^f glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

^g 21 ^h Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them ⁱ in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the ^j God of the spirits of ^k all flesh, shall ^l one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the ^m elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and ⁿ touch nothing of theirs, ^o lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and ^p stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine ^q own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me:

30 But if the LORD make ^r a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that ^s appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the ^t pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them.

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and ^u swallowed them up, and their ^v houses, and ^w all the men that ^x appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that ^y appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth ^z closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the ^a cry of them: for they said, ^b Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out ^c a fire from the LORD, and consumed the ^d two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire ^e yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these ^f sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be ^g a sign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar;

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that ^h no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not ⁱ as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said ^j to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ^k But, on the ^l morrow, all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, ^m Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and ⁿ the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 ^o Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they ^p fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on ^q incense, and go quickly ^r unto the congregation, and make an ^s atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took, as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he ^t put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them ^a a rod, according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods : write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of ^b Levi : for ^c one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation, ^d before the testimony, ^e where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall ^f blossom : and I will make to cease from the the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel ; and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, [†] for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods : and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that, on the morrow, Moses went into the tabernacle of witness ; and, behold, the rod of Aaron, for the house of Levi, was budded, and brought forth ^g buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded ^h almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from ⁱ before the LORD unto all the children of Israel : and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be ^k kept for a token against the [†] rebels ; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so : as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we ^l die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die : shall we be ^m consumed with dying ?

17 But ^g the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt ^h not redeem; they ⁱ are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat ^j for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave-breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All the ^k heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a ^l covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee, and to thy seed with thee.

20 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, ^m Thou shalt have no ⁿ inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any ^o part among them: I am thy ^p part, and thine inheritance, among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the ^q tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, ^r even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth ^s come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear ^t their iniquity. It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer ^u as ^v an heave-offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes, which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave-offering of it for the LORD, ^w even a tenth ^x part of the tithe.

27 And ^y this your heave-offering shall be reckoned unto you as though ^z it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the ^a fulness of the wine-press.

29 Out of all your ^c gifts ye shall offer every heave-offering of the LORD, of all the ^d best thereof, ^e even the hallowed part thereof, out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.

31 And ye shall eat it ^f in every place, ye and your households: for it is your ^g reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye ^h pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer. 11 The law for the use of it in purification of the unclean.

AND the ^a LORD spake unto Moses, and unto ^b Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer ^c without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which ^d never came yoke.

3 And ye shall give her unto ^e Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth ^f without the camp, and ^g one shall slay her before his face.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his ^h finger, and ⁱ sprinkle of her blood directly before the ^j tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

5 And ^k one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take ^l cedar-wood, and ^m hyssop, and ⁿ scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall ^o wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man ^p that is clean shall gather up the ^q ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a ^r clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for a water of ^s separation: it is a purification ^t for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 ¶ He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall ^u be unclean seven days.

12 He shall ^v purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut ^w off from Israel: because the water of ^x separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

Before CHRIST 1471.
14 This is the law when a man dieth in a tent; All that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every ^a open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, ^a is unclean.

16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a ^a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a ^a bone of a man, or ^a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and [†] running water shall be put thereto in a vessel;

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip [†] it in the water, and sprinkle [†] it upon the tent, and upon all ^a the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

19 And the clean person shall ^b sprinkle upon the unclean on the ^c third day, and on the seventh day; and on the ^d seventh day he shall purify himself, and ^e wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath [†] defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he ^a is unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall ^a wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even.

22 And whatsoever the unclean person ^b toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

1 The children of Israel come to Zin, where Miriam dieth. 2 They murmur for want of water. 7 Moses, smiting the rock, bringeth forth water at Meribah. 14 Moses at Kadesh desireth a passage through Edom, which is denied him. 22 At mount Hor Aaron resigneth his place to Eleazar, and dieth.

THEN came the children of Israel, even the ^a whole congregation, into the desert of ^b Zin, in the ^c first month: and the people ^d abode in ^e Kadesh; and Miriam ^f died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was ^a no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people ^a chode with Moses, and spake, saying, [†] Would God that we had died when ^b our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from [†] the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they ^m fell upon their faces; and the glory of the LORD ⁿ appeared unto them.

7 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 8 Take the ^a rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou and Aaron thy brother, and ^p speak ye unto the rock [†] before their eyes; and it shall ^q give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod ^a from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock; and he said unto them, ^a Hear now, ye ^b rebels; ^c must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lift up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out ^a abundantly: and the ^b congregation drank, and their ^c beasts also.

12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron: Because ye ^a believed me not, to ^b sanctify me in the ^c eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall ^d not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This ^a is the water of ^{||} Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was ^c sanctified in them.

14 ¶ And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of [†] Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath [†] befallen us;

15 How our fathers ^a went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt ^b a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us and our fathers:

16 And when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an ^a angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt; and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through ^b thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's ^c high-way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high-way, and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will ^a pay for it: I will only, without ^b doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel ^a turned away from him.

22 ¶ And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto ^a mount Hor.

26 And ° strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son : and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded : and they went up into mount Hor, in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses ° stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them ° upon Eleazar his son ; and Aaron died there in the ° top of the mount : and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron ° was dead, they mourned for Aaron ° thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

1 Israel with some loss destroy the Canaanites at Hormah. 4 The people murmuring are plagued by fiery serpents. 7 They repenting are healed by a brazen serpent. 10 Sundry journeys of the Israelites. 21 Sihon is overcome, 33 and Og.

AND when ° a king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the ° south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the ° spies ; then he fought against Israel, and took ° some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel ° vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will ° utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD ° hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites ; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities : and he called the name of the place Hormah.

4 ¶ And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to ° compass the land of Edom : and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the ° way.

5 And the people spake ° against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness ? for there is no bread, neither is there any water ; and our soul loatheth this ° light bread.

6 And the LORD sent fiery ° serpents among the people, and they bit the people ; and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have ° sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee ; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses ° prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a ° fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole : and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he ° looketh upon it, shall ° live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of ° brass, and put it upon a ° pole : and it came to pass, that ° if a serpent had bitten any man, when he ° beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in ° Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at ° Tje-abarim, in the wilderness which is before ° Moab, toward the sun-rising.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of ° Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of ° Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites : for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, What he did in the Red Sea, and in the ° brooks of Arnon, 15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Beer : that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I ° will give ° them water.

17 Then Israel ° sang this song, Spring up, O well : sing ye unto it.

18 The ° princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the ° law-giver, with their ° staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah :

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel : and from Nahaliel to Bamoth :

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon.

21 ¶ And Israel ° sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 ° Let me pass through thy land : we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards ; we will not drink of the waters of the well : but we will go along by the king's high-way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon ° would not suffer Israel to pass through his border ; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness : and he came to ° Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And ° Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon : for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities : and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak ° in proverbs say, ° Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared :

28 For there is ° a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of ° Sihon : it hath ° consumed Ar

Ar of Moab, and * the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 ^v Wo to thee, Moab ! thou art undone, O ^z people of Chemosh : ^a he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them : Heshbon is perished even unto ^b Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto ^c Medeba.

31 [†] Thus Israel dwelt in the land ^a of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out ^e Jaazer ; and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 And they turned, and went up by the way of Bashan : and Og ^f the king of ^e Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not ; for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land ; and thou shalt ^b do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive : and they ⁱ possessed his land.

1 Balak's first message for Balaam is refused : 15 His second message obtaineth him. 22 An angel would have slain him, if his ass had not saved him. 36 Balak entertaineth him.

AND the children of Israel ^a set forward, and ^a pitched in the plains of Moab, on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 And ^b Balak, the son of Zippor, ^c saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was sore ^d afraid of the people, ^e because they were many : and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company ^f lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak, the son of Zippor, was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers, therefore, unto ^g Balaam, the son of Beor, to ^h Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt : behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me.

6 ⁱ Come now, therefore, I pray thee, ^j curse me this people, for they are ^k too mighty for me : peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land : for I wot that he ^l whom thou blestest is blessed, and he whom thou curstest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Midian, departed with ^m the rewards of divination in their hand ; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here ⁿ this night, and I will bring you word again, ^o as the LORD shall speak unto me : And the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And ^p God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee ?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, 11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth : come now, ^q curse me them ; peradventure I ^r shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them ; thou shalt ^s not curse the people : for they ^t are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land : for the LORD ^u refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam ^v refuseth to come with us.

15 And Balak ^w sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak, the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me :

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and ^x I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me : come, therefore, I pray thee, curse ^y me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his ^z house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD ^a my God, to do ^b less or more.

19 Now, therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that ^c I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and ^d go with them ; but yet ^e the word which I shall say unto thee, that ^f shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam ^g rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And ^h God's anger was kindled because he went : and the ⁱ angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ^j ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his ^k sword drawn in his hand : and the ^l ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field ; and Balaam ^m smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

21 He hath not ^d beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord ^e his God is with him, and the ^f shout of a king ^g is among them.

22 God ^h brought them out of Egypt: ⁱ he hath as it were ^k the strength of an unicorn.

23 Surely there is ^l no enchantment ^m against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, ⁿ What hath God wrought!

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great ^o lion, and ^p lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the ^q prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

25 And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither
^r curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that I must do?

27 And Balak said unto Balaam, ^s Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place:
peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the ^t top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Balaam leaving divinations, prophesieth the happiness of Israel: 10 Balak in anger dismisseth him: 15 He prophesieth of the Star of Jacob, and the destruction of some nations.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, [†] to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lift up his eyes, and he saw Israel ^a abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the ^b spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man [†] whose eyes are open hath said;

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty,
^c falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy ^d tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they ^e spread ^f forth, as gardens by the ^g river's side, as the trees of ^h lign-aloes which the Lord ⁱ hath planted, and as ^k cedar-trees beside the waters.

7 He shall ^j pour the water out of his buckets, and ^m his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than ⁿ Agag, and his kingdom shall be ^o exalted.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt, he hath as it were the strength of an ^p unicorn: he shall ^q eat up the nations his enemies, and shall ^r break their bones, and pierce them through with his ^s arrows.

9 He ^t couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: ^u who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he ^v smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now ^w flee thou to thy place: ^x I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the Lord hath ^y kept thee back from honour.

12 And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of ^z mine own mind; but what the Lord saith, that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise ^a thee what this people shall do to thy people in the ^b latter days.

15 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said;

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 I shall ^c see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not ^d nigh: there shall come ^e a Star out of Jacob, and a ^f Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the ^g corners of Moab, and ^h destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And ⁱ Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do ^k valiantly.

19 Out of Jacob shall come ^l he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the ^m first of the nations; but his latter end shall be, that he perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the ⁿ Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling-place, and thou puttest thy ^o nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the ^p Kenite shall be wasted until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of S Chittim,

25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Israel at Shittim commit whoredom and idolatry. 6 Phinehas killeth Zimri and Cozbi. 10 God therefore giveth him an everlasting priesthood. 16 The Midianites are to be vexed.

AND Israel abode in ^a Shittim, and the ^b people began to commit ^c whoredom with the ^d daughters of Moab.

2 And they ^e called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people ^f did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel ^g joined himself unto ^h Baal-peor: and the ⁱ anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor.

6 ¶ And, behold, one of the children of Israel came, and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman, in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who ^j were ^k weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw ^l it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the ^m plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

9 And those that died in the plague were ⁿ twenty and four thousand.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, (while he was ^o zealous for my sake among them,) that I consumed not the children of Israel in my ^p jealousy.

12 Wherefore, say, Behold, I give unto him my ^q covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, ^r even the covenant of an ^s everlasting priesthood; because he ^t was zealous for his God, and made an ^u atonement for the children of Israel.

14 Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, ^v even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 ^w Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they vex you with their ^x wives, where-with they have beguiled you, in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague, for Peor's sake.

7 And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink-offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 And on the sabbath-day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof.

10 This is the burnt-offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

11 And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And three tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth-deal of flour mingled with oil for a meat-offering unto one lamb, for a burnt-offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink-offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt-offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin-offering unto the LORD shall be offered, besides the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

16 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

17 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire, for a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:

20 And their meat-offerings shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth-deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth-deals for a ram;

21 A several tenth-deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin-offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt-offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt-offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

25 And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work:

26 Also in the day of the first-fruits, when ye bring a new meat-offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work:

27 But ye shall offer the burnt-offering for a sweet-savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their meat-offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth-deals unto one bullock, two tenth-deals unto one ram;

29 A several tenth-deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye shall offer them besides the continual burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish,) and their drink-offerings.

This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 If a man ^e vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an ^d oath to ^e bind his soul with a bond; he shall [†] not break his word, he shall do according to [†] all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If ^a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul ^h shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul, ⁱ shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when [†] she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it; then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband ^k disallow her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a ^l widow, and of her that is ^m divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath [†] utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand; her husband hath made them void, and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to ⁿ afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband [†] altogether hold his peace at her, from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void, after that he hath heard them; then he shall ^{||} bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which the LORD ^o commanded Moses, between a man and his ^p wife; between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain.
13 Moses is wroth with the officers, for saving the women alive. 19 How the soldiers, with their captives, and spoil, are to be purified. 25 The proportion whereby the prey is to be divided. 48 The voluntary oblation unto the treasury of the Lord.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ^a Avenge the children of Israel of the ^b Midianites: afterward shalt thou be ^c gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and ^d avenge the LORD of Midian.

4 [†] Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and ^e Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the ^f holy instruments, and the ^g trumpets to blow, in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males.

8 And they slew the kings of ^h Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and ⁱ Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five ^k kings of Midian: ^l Balaam also, the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the ^m prey, and the spoil, unto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to ⁿ meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the [†] host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the ^o counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath ^p known man by lying with [†] him.

20 And purify ^{all your} raiment, and all [†] that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 And ^a Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This ^t is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead, 24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterwards ye shall come into the camp.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation;

27 And divide the prey into ^a two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a tribute ^a unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep.

29 Take ^{it} of their half, and give ^{it} unto ^a Eleazar the priest, for an heave-offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of ^a all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which ^a keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, ^{being} the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand, and seventy thousand, and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half, ^{which was} the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand, and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:

37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.

38 And the beeves ^{were} thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute ^{was} threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses ^{were} thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's ^a tribute ^{was} threescore and one.

40 And the persons ^{were} sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute ^{was} thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, ^{which was} the LORD's heave-offering, unto ^a Eleazar the priest; as the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half which Moses divided from the men that warred, 43 (Now the half that ^{pertained} unto the congregation was three hundred thousand, and thirty thousand, and seven thousand and five hundred sheep.

44 And thirty and six thousand beeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons,)

47 Even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which ^a kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

48 ¶ And the officers which ^{were} over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which ^{are} under our [†] charge, and there [†] lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath [†] gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an ^a atonement for our souls before the LORD.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, ^{even} all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty ^a shekels.

53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for ^a memorial for the children of Israel ^a before the LORD.

2 The children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 ^s Ataroth, and ^b Dibon, and Jazer, and ⁱ Nimrah, and ^k Heshbon, and Elealeh, and ^l Shebam, and Nebo, and ^m Beon,

4 Even the country which the Lord ⁿ smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle :

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and ^o bring us not over Jordan.

6 And Moses said unto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here ?

7 And wherefore [†] discourage ye ^p the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the Lord hath given them ?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 For ^q when they went up unto the valley of Eschol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the Lord had given them.

10 And the Lord's anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying,

11 Surely ^r none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob ; because they have not [†] wholly followed me ;

12 Save ^s Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun ; for they have wholly followed the Lord.

13 And the Lord's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them ^t wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the Lord was ^u consumed.

14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your father's stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the ^v fierce anger of the Lord toward Israel.

15 For if ye turn away ^w from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness, and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheep-folds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones ;

17 But we ourselves will ^x go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place : and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance :

19 For we will not inherit ^y with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward ; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed ^b before the Lord to war,

21 And will go ^c all of you armed over Jordan before the Lord, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him,

22 And the land be subdued before the Lord ; then afterward ye shall return, and be ^d guiltless before the Lord, and before Israel ; and this land shall be ^e your possession before the Lord.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord : and be sure ^f your sin will ^g find you out.

24 Build ye cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep ; and do that which hath ^h proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead ;

27 But thy servants will ⁱ pass over, every man ^k armed for war, before the Lord to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel :

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle before the Lord, and the land shall be subdued before you, ^l then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession :

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, answered, saying, As the Lord hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.

33 And Moses ^m gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto ⁿ half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities ; and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being ^p changed,) and Shilmah : and ^q gave other names unto the cities which they builded.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Two and forty journeys of the Israelites. 50 The Canaanites are to be destroyed.

THESE are the ^a journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their ^b armies, under the ^c hand of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys, by the ^d commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they departed from ^e Rameses in the ^f first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month: on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with an ^g high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 (For the Egyptians buried all their first-born which the LORD had ^b smitten among them: upon their ⁱ gods also the LORD executed judgments.)

5 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in ^k Succoth.

6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in ^l Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto ^m Pi-habiroth, which is before Baalzephon: and they pitched before Migdol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-habiroth, and passed through the ⁿ midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of ^o Etham, and pitched in ^p Marah.

9 And they removed from Marah, and came unto Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten ^q palm-trees; and they pitched there.

10 And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea.

11 And they removed from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of ^r Sin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush.

14 And they removed from Alush, and encamped at ^s Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of ^t Sinai.

16 And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched at || Kibroth-hattaavah.

17 And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at ^u Hazeroth.

18 And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in || Rithmah.

19 And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at || Rimmon-parez.

20 And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in ^v Libnah.

21 And they removed from Libnah, and pitched at Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah.

23 And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher.

24 And they removed from mount Shapher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they removed from Haradah, and pitched in || Makheloth.

26 And they removed from Makheloth, and encamped at Tahath.

27 And they departed from Tahath, and pitched at Tarah.

28 And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mitheah.

29 And they went from Mitheah, and pitched in Hashmonah.

30 And they departed from Hashmonah, and encamped at ^y Moseroth.

31 And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in ^z Bene-jaakan.

32 And they removed from Bene-jaakan, and encamped at ^a Hor-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in || Jotbathah.

34 And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah.

35 And they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at ^b Ezion-gaber.

36 And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness ^c of Zin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the ^d edge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up into mount Hor, at the commandment of the LORD, and ^e died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month.

39 And Aaron was an hundred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount Hor.

40 And king ^f Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, in the land of Canaan, ^g heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

41 And they departed from ^h mount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon, and pitched in ⁱ Oboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, in the border of Moab.

thaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before ^o Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan from ^o Beth-jesimoth, even unto ^{||} Abel-shittim, in the plains of Moab.

50 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

51 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan, into the land of Canaan :

52 Then ye shall ^o drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their ^o pictures, and destroy all their ^o molten images, and ^o quite pluck down all their high places.

53 And ye shall ^o dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein : for I have given you the land to possess it.

54 And ye shall divide the land ^o by lot for an inheritance among your families ; and to ^o the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance : every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth ; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit.

55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you ; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be ^o pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall ^o vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

56 Moreover, it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 The borders of the land. 16 The names of the men which shall divide the land.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, (this is the land that shall ^o fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan, with the ^o coasts thereof,) 3 Then your south quarter shall be from the ^o wilderness of Zin, along by the coast of ^o Edom ; and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the ^o salt sea eastward.

4 And your border shall turn from the south to the ^o ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin : and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon.

5 And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto the ^o river of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

6 And as for the western border, you shall even have the great sea for a border : this shall be your west border.

7 And this shall be your north border ; from the great sea you shall point out for you ^o mount Hor.

8 From mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the ^o entrance of Hamath : and the goings forth of the border shall be to ^o Zedad.

9 And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at ^o Hazar-enan : this shall be your north border.

10 And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to ^o Shepham.

11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham to ^o Riblah, on the east side of Ain ; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the sea of ^o Chinnereth eastward.

12 And the border shall go down to ^o Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the salt sea : this shall be your land, with the coasts thereof ^o round about.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the Lord commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe.

14 For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have ^o received their inheritance, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance :

15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho, eastward, toward the sun-rising.

16 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you ; ^{||} Eleazar the priest, and ^o Joshua the son of Nun.

18 And ye shall take ^o one prince of every tribe, to ^o divide the land by inheritance.

19 And the names of the men are these : of the tribe of Judah, ^o Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20 And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of ^o Ammihud.

21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23 The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiptan.

25 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahibud the son of Shelomi.

28 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

29 These are they whom the Lord ^o commanded to ^o divide the inheritance unto the ^o children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, ^a of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward, a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city unto the ^b east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the city.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities for [†] refuge, which ye shall appoint for the man-slayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add ^c forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have many ye shall ^d give many: but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come ^e over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

11 Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth ^f any person at [†] unawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities of refuge from the [†] avenger; that the man-slayer die not, until he stand [†] before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of the cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give ^g three cities on this side Jordan, ^h and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the ⁱ sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 And if he smite him with an ^k instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be [†] put to death.

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand-weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he ^m meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him ⁿ of hatred, or hurl at him by laying ^o of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die; he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm;

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the ^p high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come ^q without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; [†] he shall not be guilty of blood;

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for ^r a statute of judgment unto you, throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the ^s mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is [†] guilty of death; but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it ^t defileth the land: and the [†] land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD ^u dwell among the children of Israel.

6 This is the thing which the Lord doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them ^f marry to whom they think best; only to the ^f family of the tribe of their fathers shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for every one of the children of Israel shall ^f keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove ^g from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even ^h as the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their ⁱ father's brothers' sons.

12 And they were married ^j into the families of the sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph; and their inheritance ^j remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments which the Lord commanded, by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel, in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and ^a judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall not [†] respect persons in judgment; but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment ^a is God's: and ^y the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time ^a all the things which ye should do.

19 And when we ^a departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and ^b terrible wilderness, which you saw by the way of the ^c mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying ^a pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And they turned, and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of ^c Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the ^f fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is ^a a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD ^b hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have [†] discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great, and walled ^b up to heaven: and, moreover, we have seen the sons of the ^b Anakims there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God, which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God ^a bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did ^a not believe the LORD your God, 33 Who ^a went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 Surely there shall ^y not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swear to give unto your fathers, 36 Save ^a Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath [†] wholly followed the LORD.

37 Also the LORD was angry ^a with me ^a for your sakes, saying, ^t Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But ^a Joshua the son of Nun, which ^a standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: ^y encourage him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your little ones, which ye said should be ^a a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge ^a between good and evil, they ^b shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn ye, and take your journey into the wilderness, by ^c the way of the Red Sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have ^a sinned against the LORD; we will go up, and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am ^a not among ^a you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and you would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you as ^b bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, ^a even unto Horeb.

45 And ye returned, and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would ^a not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in ^b Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD ^a spake unto me: and we compassed ^b mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying, 3 Ye have compassed this mountain ^a long enough: turn you northward.

the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be ^a afraid of you: take ye ^a good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 ^a Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, [†] no not so much as a foot breadth, because I have ^b given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall ^a buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also [†] buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand; he, ^k knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with [†] thee, thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we ^m passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, through the way of the plain from ^a Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned, and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ^o Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given ^p Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The ^a Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 The Horims also dwell in Seir before-time; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwell in their stead; ^a as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you ^a over the brook ^a Zered: and we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until ^a all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD swore unto them.

15 For indeed the ^a hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

16 So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day.

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of ^a Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them; for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwell therein in old time, and the Ammonites call them ^a Zamzummins;

21 A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwell in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the [†] Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwell in their stead even unto this day:

23 And the ^a Avims which dwell in Hazerim, even unto ^a Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of ^b Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwell in their stead.)

24 Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the ^a river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand ^a Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put the ^a dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in ^a anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of ^a Kedemoth, unto Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of ^b peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along [†] by the high-way; I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through [†] on my feet;

29 (As the children of ^k Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan, into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God [†] hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to ^m give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, ^a to fight at ^a Jahaz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we ^p smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed [†] the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city; we left none to remain:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of ^a Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God ^a delivered all unto us.

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto ^a any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, [†] nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbade us.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of ^e Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave ^f unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes, and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep, therefore, and do them: for this is your ^g wisdom and your understanding in the ^h sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God ⁱ so ¹ high unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they ^k depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but ^l teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specialty ^m the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will ⁿ make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near, and stood under the mountain; and the mountain ^o burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, ^p and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw ^q no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of ^r stone.

14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you ^s statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore ^t good heed unto yourselves, (for ye saw ^u no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire,)

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any ^x figure, the likeness of male or female;

17 The likeness of any ^y beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air;

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the ^z sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldst be ^a driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God ^b hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of ^c the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of ^d inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore, the LORD was angry with me ^e for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must ^f not ¹ go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, ^g lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming ^h fire, even a ¹ jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and shalt have ⁱ remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger;

26 ^k I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly ^l perish from off the land whereunto you go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left [†] few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither ^m see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if ⁿ from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things [†] are come upon thee, even in ^o the latter days, if thou ^p turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice, 31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God,) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

32 For ^q ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon earth, and ask from the ^r one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this ^s great thing is, or hath been heard like ^s it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, ^t and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by 21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were ^cPharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with ^aa mighty hand:

22 And the LORD shewed signs and wonders, great and [†]sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, ^ebefore our eyes:

23 And he ^fbrought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, ^zfor our good always, that he might preserve us ^balive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be ⁱour righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

C H A P. VII.

1 All communion with the nations is forbidden, 4 for fear of idolatry, 6 for the holiness of the people, 9 for the nature of God in his mercy and justice, 23 for the assuredness of victory which God will give over them.

WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath ^acast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, ^bseven nations greater and mightier than thou:

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them ^cbefore thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them: thou shalt ^dmake no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make ^emarriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve ^fother gods: so will the anger of the LORD be ^zkindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them: ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their [†]images, and cut down their ^bgroves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For thou art an ⁱholy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be ^ka special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the ^lfewest of all people;

8 But because the LORD loved ^myou, and because he would keep the ⁿoath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of ^obondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the ^pfaithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that ^qlove him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will ^rrepay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, [†]if ye hearken to these judgments, and ^tkeep and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the ^umercy which he ^zswore unto thy fathers:

13 And he will ^vlove thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the ^zfruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female ^abarren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the ^bevil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt ^cconsume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no ^dpity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be ^ea snare unto thee.

17 If thou shalt say ^fin thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I ^zdispossess them?

18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well ^bremember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all ⁱEgypt;

19 The great ^ktemptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out; so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover, the LORD thy God will send the ^lhornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among ^myou, a mighty God and ⁿterrible.

22 And the LORD thy God will [†]put out those nations before thee by ^olittle and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the ^pbeasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them [†]unto thee, and shall ^qdestroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he shall deliver ^rtheir kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

C H A P. VIII.

An exhortation to obedience in regard of God's dealing with them.

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye ^aobserve to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember ^ball the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to ^cprove thee, ^dto know what ^ewas in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And be ^ehumbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with ^fmanna, (which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know,) that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread ^gonly, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD ^hdoth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed ⁱnot old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man ^kchasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk ^lin his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God ^mbringeth thee into a good land; a land of brooks of water, of ⁿfountains, and depths that spring out of ^ovalleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranates; a land of ^poil-olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt ^qeat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any ^rthing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten, and art ^sfull, then thou shalt ^tbless the LORD thy God, for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou ^uforget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest, ^vwhen thou hast eaten and ^wart full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt ^xtherein;

13 And ^ywhen thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart ^zbe lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who ^aled thee through that great and ^bterrible wilderness, ^cwherein were ^dfiery serpents, and scorpions, and ^edrought; where ^fthere was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the ^grock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy ^hlatter end;

17 And thou ⁱsay in thine heart, My power, and the might of ^jmine hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for ^kit is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he sware unto thy fathers, as ^lit is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after ^mother gods, and serve them, and worship them, ⁿI testify against you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, ^oso shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

C H A P. IX.

Moses dissuadeth them from the opinion of their own righteousness, by rehearsing their several rebellions.

HEAR, O Israel; Thou art to ^apass over Jordan ^bthis day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great, and fenced up to heaven;

2 A people great and tall, the children of the ^cAnakims, whom thou knowest, and of ^dwhom thou hast heard say, ^eWho can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God ^fis he which ^ggoeth over before thee; as ^ha consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them ⁱquickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not ^jthou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For ^kmy righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land; but ^lfor the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may ^mperform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this ⁿgood land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art ^oa stiff-necked people.

7 ^pRemember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in ^p Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you, to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the ^a mount, to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights; I ^a neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me ^a two tables of stone, written with the ^t finger of God: and on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spake with you in the mount, out of the midst of fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the ^a covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have ^a corrupted themselves: they are ⁱ quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them ^a a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the LORD spake unto me, saying, ^a I have seen this people, and, behold, it is ^b a stiff-necked people:

14 ^a Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned, and came down from the mount, and the mount [†] burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And ^d I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And ^{||} I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 ^a And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, ^t forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger:

19 For I was ^a afraid of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry ^b with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took ⁱ your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the ^a brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at ⁱ Taberah, and at ^m Massah, and at ⁿ Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise, when the LORD sent you from ^a Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the [†] commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that ^p I knew you.

25 Thus I ^a fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I ⁱ fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, ^a destroy not ^t thy people, and thine ^a inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy ^a greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember ^y thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin;

28 ^a Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD ^a was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are ^a thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power, and by thy stretched-out arm.

AT ^a that time the LORD said unto me, ^b Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and ^a come up unto me into the mount, and make thee ^d an ark of wood:

2 And ^a I will write on the tables the words that ^a were in the first tables, which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of ^t shittim-wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the [†] ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the ^a day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself, and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and ^b there they be, as the LORD ^a commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their ⁱ journey from Beeroth of the children of ^k Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office ⁱ in his stead.

19 ^b Take heed to thyself that thou ⁱ forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 When the LORD thy God shall ^k enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, (because thy soul longeth to eat flesh,) thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath ⁱ chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even as the ^m roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them ; the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be sure that thou ⁿ eat not the blood : for the blood is the life ; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it ; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it ; that it may ^o go well with thee, and with thy ^p children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right ^q in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy [†] holy things which thou hast, and [†] thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose :

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God : and the blood of thy [†] sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe and hear all these words which [†] I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children ⁿ after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29 When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land ;

30 Take heed to thyself, that thou be not ^s snared ^v by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee ; and that thou inquire, not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods ? ^s even so will I do likewise.

31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God : for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods ; for even their sons and their daughters they have ^a burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it : thou shalt ^b not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

1 Enticers to idolatry, 6 how near soever unto thee, 10 are to be stoned to death. 15 Idolatrous cities are not to be spared.

IF there ^a arise ^b among you a prophet, or a dreamer of ^c dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a ^d wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder ^e come to pass whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them ;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams : for the LORD your God [†] proveth you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and ^s cleave unto him.

5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death ; because he hath [†] spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in : So shalt thou put the [†] devil away from the midst of thee.

6 If thy ⁱ brother, the ^k son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy ⁱ brother, or thy friend, which is as thine ^m own soul, entice thee ⁿ secretly, saying, Let us go and serve ^o other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers ;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth ;

8 Thou shalt not ^p consent unto him, nor hearken unto him ; neither shall thine ^q eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him ;

9 But thou shalt surely ^r kill him ; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die ; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [†] bondage.

11 And all Israel shall ^s hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt hear say in one of thy ^t cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, the [†] children of Belial, are gone out from ^u among you, and have ^s with-drawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve ^v other gods, which ye have not known ;

14 Then shalt thou ² inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 Thou shalt surely smite the ^a inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, ^b destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the ^c city, and all the ^d spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be an heap for ^e ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall ^f cleave nought of the ^g cursed thing to thine hand; that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers;

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

YE are the ^a children of the LORD your God: ye shall ^b not cut yourselves, nor make any ^c baldness between your eyes for the dead:

2 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to ^d be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

3 ¶ Thou shalt not eat any ^e abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts which ye shall eat; the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The ^f hart, and the ^g roebuck, and the fallow-deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the ^h wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that ⁱ parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the ^k camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof: therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have ^l fins and scales shall ye eat:

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is ^m unclean unto you.

11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the ⁿ eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the ^o vulture after his kind,

14 And every raven after his kind,

15 And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan,

17 And the pelican, and the gier-eagle, and the cormorant,

18 And the ^p stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

19 And every creeping thing that ^q fieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all ^r clean fowls ye may eat.

21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that ^s dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the ^t stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art an ^u holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

22 ¶ Thou shalt ^v truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth ^w year by year.

23 And thou shalt eat ^x before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the ^y tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds, and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to ^z fear the LORD thy God [†] always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee;

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and ^b bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

depart, must in the seventh year go forth free and well furnished. 19 All firstling males of the cattle are to be sanctified unto the Lord.

AT the ^aend of every seven years thou shalt make ^ba release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every [†]creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the ^cLord's release.

3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother, thine hand shall release;

4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the Lord shall ^dgreatly bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the Lord thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt ^elend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt ^freign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates, in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt ^gnot harden thy heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother;

8 But thou shalt ^hopen thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not ⁱ†a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine ^jeye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the Lord against thee, and it ^kbe sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and ^lthine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall ^mbless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For the poor shall ⁿnever cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in the land.

12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be ^osold unto thee, and serve thee six years, then in the seventh year thou shalt let him ^pgo free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath ^qblessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember that thou ^rwast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to-day.

16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, ^sI will not go away from thee, (because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee,)

17 Then thou shalt take ^tan awl, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant ^u†for ever: And also unto thy ^vmaid-servant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a ^wdouble hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 [†]All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt ^ysanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep:

20 ^zThou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God year by year, in the place which the Lord shall ^achoose, thou and thy household.

21 And if there be ^bany blemish therein, as if it be ^blame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the Lord thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it ^cwithin thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the ^dblood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the ^dpass-over unto the Lord thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the Lord shall choose to place his name there.

3 Thou shalt eat no ^eleavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the ^fbread of affliction; (for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste; that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread ^gseen with thee in all thy coasts seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of the gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the ^hgoing down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt ⁱroast and eat it in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go ^kunto thy tents.

THOU shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock or sheep wherein is ^a blemish, or any evil-favouredness ; for that is an ^b abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 ¶ If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, ^c man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the ^d sun, or moon, or any of the ^e host of heaven, which I have ^f not commanded ;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and ^g inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel :

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy ^h gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt ⁱ stone them with stones, till they die.

6 At the ^k mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death ; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be ^l first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. ^m So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 ¶ If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between ⁿ blood and blood, between ^o plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being ^p matters of controversy within thy gates ; then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose ;

9 And thou shalt come unto the ^q priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire ; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment :

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee ; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they ^r inform thee.

11 ^s According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do : thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand nor to the left.

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him ^a king over thee whom the LORD ^a thy God shall choose: one from among thy ^b brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a ^c stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall ^d not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to ^e Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth ^f return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he ^g multiply wives to himself, that his ^h heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself ⁱ silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a ^j copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19 And ^k it shall be with him, and he shall ^m read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be ⁿ not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

1 The Lord is the priests' and Levites' inheritance.

3 The priest's due. 8 The Levites' portion. 9

The abominations of the nations are to be avoided.

15 Christ the prophet is to be heard. 20 The presumptuous prophet is to die.

THE priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have ^a no part nor ^b inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD ^c made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The ^d first-fruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thy oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he ^e sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall ^f choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, ^g as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, besides ^h that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 ¶ When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to ⁱ pass through the fire, or that ^j useth divination, or an ^k observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be ^m perfect with the LORD thy ⁿ God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath ^o not suffered thee so to do.

15 ¶ The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee ^p a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy ^q brethren, ^r like unto me; unto ^s him ye shall hearken;

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in ^t Horeb, in the day of the ^u assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the LORD said unto me, They have ^v well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 I will ^w raise them up a ^x Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will ^y put my words in his ^z mouth; and he shall speak unto them ^a all that I shall command him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto ^b my words which he shall speak in my name, I will ^c require it of him.

20 But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name which I have ^d not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of ^e other gods, even that prophet ^f shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing ^g follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD ^h hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of ⁱ him.

the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 And this is the case of the slayer which shall flee thither, that he may live. Whoso kill-eth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not [†] in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the [†] head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and [‡] live:

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

9 If thou shalt keep all ^{g Rom. 8, 3.} these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three;

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him [†] mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him [†] thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt ^{i Num. 35, 33.} put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's ^{k Numb. 26, 53.} landmark, which [†] they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the ^{l Ps. 78, 54.} land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 ¶ One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the ^{m Zech. 2, 12.} matter be [‡] established.

16 If a ^{n Mat. 18, 16.} false witness rise up against any man, to testify against him ^{o John 8, 17.} that which is wrong;

17 Then ^{q Ex. 23, 1.} both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand ^{r ch. 17, 9.} before the LORD, before the [†] priests and the judges which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make ^{t Acts 23, 20.} diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall ye do unto him ^{u 1st Cor. 15, 5.} as he had thought to have done unto his brother:

so shalt thou put [‡] the evil away from among you.

20 And those which [‡] remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall [‡] not pity; but [‡] life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man ^{||} force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and ^z slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel ^c cried, and there was none to save her.

28 [†] If a man ^d find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father ^e fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife: because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

30 [†] A man shall not take ^f his father's wife, nor discover his father's ^g skirt.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Who may or may not enter into the congregation.
9 Uncleanness to be avoided in the host. 15 Of the fugitive servant. 17 Of filthiness. 18 Of abominable sacrifices. 19 Of usury. 21 Of vows.
24 Of trespasses.

HE that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2^a A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An ^b Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD ^c for ever:

4 Because they ^d met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to ^e curse thee.

5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the LORD thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt ^f not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 Thou shalt not abhor an ^g Edomite; for he is thy ^h brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian, because thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their ⁱ third generation.

9 ¶ When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every ^k wicked thing.

10 If there be among you any man that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chan-celth him ^l by night, then shall he go abroad out of the ^m camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall ⁿ wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad:

13 And thou shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon; and it shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which ^o cometh from thee:

14 For the LORD thy God ^p walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies ^q before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy; that he see no unclean thing in thee, and ^r turn away from thee.

15 ¶ Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is ^s escaped from his master unto thee:

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it liketh him best: thou shalt ^t not oppress him.

17 There shall be no ^u whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a ^v sodomite of the sons of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bring the ^w hire of a ^x whore, or the price of ^y a dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow: for even ^z both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 ¶ Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; ^a usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury.

20 Unto a stranger ^b thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 ¶ When thou shalt ^c vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to ^d pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be ^e sin in thee.

22 But if thou shalt ^f forbear to vow, it shall be ^g no sin in thee.

23 That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt ^h keep and perform; even a ⁱ free-will-offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast promised ^j with thy mouth.

24 ¶ When thou ^k comest into thy neighbour's vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes thy fill at thine own pleasure; but thou shalt not put ^l any in thy vessel.

25 When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbour, then thou mayest pluck the ears ^m with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbour's standing corn.

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and a married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some ^a uncleanness in her; || then let him write her a bill of ^b divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be ^c another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may ^d not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not ^e cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 ¶ When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall ^f not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free

C H A P. XXV.

3 Stripes must not exceed forty. 4 The ox is not to be muzzled. 5 Of raising seed unto a brother. 11 Of the immodest woman. 13 Of unjust weights. 17 The memory of Amalek is to be blotted out.

IF there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her.

6 And it shall be, that the first-born which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother:

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her;

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets;

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.

13 Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small.

14 Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small.

15 But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were ^s feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he ^v feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, ^z when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt ^a blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven: thou shalt not forget it.

C H A P. XXVI.

3 The confession of him that offereth the basket of first-fruits. 12 The prayer of him that giveth his third year's tithes. 16 The covenant between God and the people.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein,

2 That thou shalt take of the ^a first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt ^b go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the ^c priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thyne hand, and set it down ^d before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak, and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian || ready to perish was my father; and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a ^e few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous;

6 And the Egyptians ^f evil-entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us ^g hard bondage.

7 And when we ^h cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and ⁱ looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an ^k outstretched arm, and with great ^l terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders;

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with ^m milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the ⁿ first-fruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt ^o set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And thou shalt ^p rejoice in every ^q good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Le- vite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine ^r increase the third ^s year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled;

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments, which thou hast commanded me: I ^t have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them:

14 I have not eaten thereof in my ^u mourn- ing, neither have I taken away ^v ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ^w ought thereof for the ^x dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 ¶ Look down from thy holy habitation, ^y from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 ¶ This day the LORD thy God hath com- manded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast ^a avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ^b ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to ^c hearken unto his voice:

18 And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his ^d peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments;

19 And to ^e make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in ^f praise, and in ^g name, and in ^h honour; and that thou mayest be an ⁱ holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

2 And it shall be, on ^c the day when you shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt ^d set thee up great stones, and plaster them with ^e plaster:

3 And thou shalt write upon them ^f all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and ^q do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The blessings for obedience. 15 The curses for disobedience.

AND it shall come to pass, if thou shalt ^a hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe ^{and} to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will ^b set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and ^c overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 ^d Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the ^e fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy ^f basket and thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou ^g comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be ^h smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and ⁱ flee before thee ^k seven ways.

8 The LORD shall ^l command the blessing upon thee in thy ^m storehouses, and in all that thou ⁿ settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall ^o establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that ^p thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be ^q afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good ^r treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his ^s season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt ^t lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the ^u head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be ^x above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt ^y not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst:

20 The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the Lord shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children, that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the Lord hath laid upon it;

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath;

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and [†]ne[†]om he had not given unto them:

27 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the Lord rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Great mercies promised unto the repentant. 11 The commandment is manifest. 15 Life and death are set before them.

AND it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driven thee,

2 And shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou, and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;

3 That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5 And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the Lord thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the Lord, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers;

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

1 Moses encourageth the people: 7 He encourageth Joshua: 9 He delivereth the law unto the priests, to read it in the seventh year to the people. 14 God giveth a charge to Joshua, 19 and a song to testify against the people. 24 Moses delivereth the book of the law to the Levites to keep: 28 He maketh a protestation to the elders.

AND Moses went, and spake these words unto all Israel.

2 And he said unto them, I am an ^ahundred and twenty years old this day: I can no more ^bgo out and come in: also the LORD hath said unto me, ^cThou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, ^dhe will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and ^eJoshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the ^fAmorites, and unto the land of them whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have ^gcommanded you.

6 ^hBe strong and of a ⁱgood courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go ^kwith thee; he will ^lnot fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 ^mAnd Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the ⁿpriests the sons of Levi, which ^obare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the ^pelders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of ^qevery ^rseven years, in the solemnity of the year of ^srelease, in the ^tfeast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall ^uchoose, thou shalt ^vread this law before all Israel in their ^whearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and ^xchildren, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law;

13 And that their children, which have not known ^yany thing, may ^zhear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ^aAnd the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may ^bgive him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a ^cpillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt ^dsleep with thy ^efathers; and this people will ^frise up, and go a ^gwhoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be amongst them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which ^cI do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto thee, ^das I said unto Moses.

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to ^lall the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to ^mthe right hand or to the left, that thou mayest ⁿprosper whithersoever thou goest.

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, ^sPrepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, 13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren ^tarmed, all the ^umighty men of valour, and help them, 15 ^vUntil the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses, the LORD's servant, gave you on this side Jordan, toward the sun-rising.

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, ^wAll that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: ^xonly the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground ^f in the midst of Jordan; and all ^g the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

C H A P. IV.

1 Twelve men are appointed to take twelve stones for a memorial out of Jordan. 9 Twelve other stones are set up in the midst of Jordan. 10, 19 The people pass over. 14 God magnifieth Joshua. 20 The twelve stones are pitched in Gilgal.

AND it came to pass, when all the people were clean ^a passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you ^c twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' ^d feet stood firm, twelve ^e stones; and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place where you shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD ^f your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a ^g sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers [†] in time to come, saying, ^h What mean you by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were ⁱ cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a ^k memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the ^l midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, ^m until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to spake unto the people, according to all that ⁿ Moses commanded Joshua: and the people ^o hastened and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

13 About forty thousand ^q prepared for war passed over ^r before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 On that day the LORD ^s magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they ^t feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ^u ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, ^v Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lift up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and ^w flowed over all his banks, ^x as they did before.

19 And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of ^y the first month, and encamped in ^z Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers [†] in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the ^{aa} Red Sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over:

2 At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee † sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And ^a Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, ^c died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were ^f born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD; unto whom the LORD ^e sware that he would not shew them the land which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom ^h he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were ⁱ uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp till they were whole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the ^k reproach of Egypt ^l from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called || Gilgal unto this day.

10 And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept ^m the passover on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, in the plains of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of ⁿ the old corn of the land, on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes and parched corn in the selfsame day.

12 And the ^o manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he ^p lift up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood ^q a man over against him with his ^r sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, ^v Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is ^w † holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAP. VI.

1 Jericho is shut up. 2 God instructeth Joshua how to besiege it. 11 The city is compassed.

(183)

17 It must be accursed. 20 The walls fall down. 22 Rahab is saved. 26 The builder of Jericho is cursed.

NOW Jericho † was straitly shut up, ^a because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the ^b LORD said unto Joshua, See, ^c I have given unto thine hand Jericho, and the ^d king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall ^e compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of ^f rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city ^g seven times, and the priests ^h shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the rams' horns, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall ⁱ shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down ^j † flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven ^k priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that ^l is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on ^m before the LORD, and ⁿ blew with the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 And the armed men went before the priests (that blew with the trumpets, and the || rearward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall ^o any word proceed out of your mouth, until the ^p day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua ^q rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 And the city shall be ^{||}accursed, even it and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she ^ahid the messengers that we sent.

18 And you, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and ^ttrouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down ^aflat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city:

21 And they ^autterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, ^vas ye sware unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them ^awithout the camp of Israel.

24 And they ^aburnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 And Joshua ^bsaved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she ^cdwellth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in ^dhis first-born, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.

C H A P. VII.

5 The Israelites are smitten at Ai. 6 Joshua's complaint. 10 God instructeth him what to do. 18 Achan is taken by lot: 20 His confession: 25 He and all he had are destroyed in the valley of Achor.

BUT the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the ^banger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to ^cAi, which is beside ^dBeth-aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and ^eview the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled ^fbefore the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down; wherefore the hearts of the people ^gmelted, and became as water.

6 And Joshua ^hrent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face ⁱbefore the ark of the LORD until the even-tide, he and the ^kelders of Israel, and ^lput dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Alas! O LORD God, ^mwherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, ⁿto deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 ^oWhat shall I say, ^pwhen Israel turneth their backs before their enemies!

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us around, and ^qcut off our name from the earth: and ^rwhat wilt thou do unto thy great name?

10 And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^sGet thee up; wherefore ^tliest thou thus upon thy face?

11 ^uIsrael hath sinned, and they have also transgressed ^vmy covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also ^wstolen, and dissembled also, and they have ^xput it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel ^ycould not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, ^zsanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD ^ataketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come by man.

ed the covenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly ^a in Israel.

16 So Joshua ^r rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of ^s Judah; and he took the family of the Zarithes: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, ^b My son, give, I pray thee, ⁱ glory to the Lord God of Israel, and ^k make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I ^l saw among the spoils a goodly [†] Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I ^m coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they ⁿ are ^h hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it ^o was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and [†] laid them out before the Lord.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the [†] wedge of gold, and his ^p sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and ^q all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou ^r troubled us? the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great ^s heap of stones unto this day. ^t So the Lord turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of [†] Achor, unto this day.

1 God encourageth Joshua. 3 The stratagem whereby Ai was taken. 29 The king thereof is hanged.

30 Joshua buildeth an altar, 32 writeth the law on stones, 34 propoundeth blessings and cursings.

AND the Lord said unto Joshua, ^a Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: ^b take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, ^c I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto ^d Jericho and her king: only the ^e spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city ^f behind it.

3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out ^g thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away ^h by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie ⁱ in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will ⁱ flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us,) till we have [†] drawn them from the city: for they ^k will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the Lord your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the Lord shall ye do. See, ^l I have commanded you.

9 Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up ^m early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their [†] liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he ⁿ wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the ^o wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and ^p were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was ^q not a man left in Ai or Beth-el that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the Lord said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua ^r stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

 14 And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the ¹ mouth of the LORD.
 15 And Joshua ^a made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live : and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.
 16 And it came to pass, at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.
 17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.
 18 And the children of Israel ^t smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation ^u murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel : now, therefore, ^x we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them ; we will even let them live ; ^y lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live ; but let them be ^z hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation ; as the princes had promised them.

22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you ; when ye dwell among us ?

23 Now therefore ye are ^a cursed ; and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God ^b commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand : as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua [†] made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water, for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

C H A P. X.

5 Five kings war against Gibeon. 6 Joshua resueth it. 11 God fighteth against them with hailstones. 12 The sun and moon stand still at the word of Joshua. 13 The five kings are mured in a cave : 23 They are brought forth, 24 scornfully used, 26 and hanged. 28 Seven kings more are conquered. 43 Joshua returneth to Gilgal.

NOW it came to pass, when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it ; as he had done to ^a Jericho and her king, so he had done to ^b Ai and her king ; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them ;

2 That they ^c feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the [†] royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were ^d mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of ^e Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of ^f Lachish, and unto Debir king of ^g Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon : for ^h it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the ⁱ five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and ^k encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants ; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us : for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^l Fear them not ; for I have delivered them into thine hand : there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to ^m Beth-horon, and smote them to ⁿ Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down ^o great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died : they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 Then ^p spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon ; and thou, Moon, in the valley of ^q Ajalon.

13 And the ^r sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of [†] Jasher ? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was ^s no day like that before it : or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man : for the LORD fought for Israel.

15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But ^t these five kings fled, and ^u hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, * Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them :

19 And stay you not, but pursue after your enemies, and † smite the hindmost of them ; suffer them not to enter into their cities : for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace : none y moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, * put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage : for a thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and b hanged them on five trees : and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid c great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and † all the souls that were therein ; he let none remain : and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto d Libnah, and fought against Libnah :

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel ; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein ; he let none remain in it ; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto e Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it :

32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 Then Horam king of f Gezer came up to help Lachish ; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto g Eglon, and all Israel with him ; and they encamped against it, and fought against it :

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword ; and all the souls that were therein he utterly † destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto h Hebron ; and they fought against it :

37 And they || took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein ; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon ; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to i Debir, and fought against it :

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof ; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein ; he left none remaining : as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof ; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

40 So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings : he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed † all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from k Kadesh-barnea even unto l Gaza, and all the country of m Goshen even unto Gibeon.

ther, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for to-morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great ^a Zidon, and unto ^{||} Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and ^a burnt their chariots with fire.

10 And Joshua at that time turned back, and took ^a Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword; and he utterly destroyed them, ^v as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all ^a the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ^a As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of ^a Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from the ^{||} mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, unto Baal-gad, in the valley of Lebanon, unto mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war ^{||} a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that ^a made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the LORD to ^a harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the ^a mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, ^v according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land ^a rested from war.

NOW these are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan, toward the rising of the sun; from the river ^a Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east:

NOW Joshua was old and stricken in years; and the Lord said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there ^a remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the ^b Philistines, and all ^c Geshuri,

3 From ^d Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is ^e counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites:

4 From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the ^f Gibletes, and all ^g Lebanon, toward the sun-rising, from ^h Baal-gad under mount Hermon unto the entering into ⁱ Hamath:

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country, from Lebanon unto ^k Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will ^l I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now ^m therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes and the half tribe of Manasseh,

8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as ⁿ Moses the servant of the Lord gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the 10 And all the cities of ^q Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the ^t giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel ^u expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites; but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the ^v sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families:

16 And their coast was from ^w Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba;

17 ^x Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and ^y Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley,

20 And ^a Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and ^b Beth-jeshimoth, 21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom ^c Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 ^d Balaam also the son of Beor, the ^e soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword ^f among them that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad, according to their families:

sea of Chinneroth, on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families:

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of ^a Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities;

31 And half Gilead, and ^a Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the ^a one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But unto the ^a tribe of Levi, Moses gave not any inheritance: the Lord God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

C H A P. XIV.

1 The nine tribes and an half are to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which ^a Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 ^b By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the ^a Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were ^a two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save ^a cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of ^a Judah came unto Joshua in ^a Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the ^a man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 ^a Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people ^a melt: but I ^a wholly followed the Lord my God.

9 And Moses ^a swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God.

10 And now, behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the Lord spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years' old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both ^a to go out and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the Lord spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: ^a if so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said.

13 And Joshua ^a blessed him, and gave unto Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, ^a Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore ^a became the inheritance of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was ^a Kirjath-arba: which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had ^a rest from war.

THIS then was the ^a lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families, even to the ^b border of Edom; ^c the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the ^a salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto ^a Kadesh-barnea; and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

- 1 The general borders of the sons of Joseph. 5
The border of the inheritance of Ephraim. 10
The Canaanites not conquered.

AND the lot of the children of || Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el,

2 And goeth out from ^a Beth-el to ^b Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of ^c Archi to ^d Ataroth,

3 And goeth down westward to the coast of ^e Japhleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to ^f Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 And the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus; even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-adar, unto Beth-horon the upper:

6 And the border went out toward the sea to ^g Michmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah:

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to ^h Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from ⁱ Tappuah westward unto the ^k river Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the ^l separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they ^m drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

C H A P. XVII.

- 1 The lot of Manasseh: 7 His coast. 12 The Canaanites not driven out. 14 The children of Joseph obtain another lot.

THERE was also ^a a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, (for he was the ^b first-born of Joseph); to wit, for ^c Machir the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead; because he was ^d a man of war, therefore he had ^e Gilead and ^f Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for the ^g rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hephher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 But ^h Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore, according to the [†] commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance [†] among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell [†] ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to ^k Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of ^l Tappuah: but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the coast descended unto the || river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar, and in Asher, ^m Beth-shean and her towns, and ⁿ Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^o En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^p Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^q Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh ^r could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were ^s waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to ^t tribute; but did not [†] utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a ^u great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If ^v thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the || giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have ^w chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of ^x Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power; thou shalt not have one lot only:

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou ^y shalt cut it down: and the

1 The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh. 2 The remainder of the land is described and divided into seven parts. 10 Joshua divideth it by lot. 11 The lot and border of Benjamin. 21 Their cities.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at ^a Shiloh, and set up the ^b tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, ^c How long are ye slack to go to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you ?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe : and I will send them, and they shall rise and [†] go through the land, and ^d describe it, according to the inheritance of them ; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts : ^e Judah shall abide in their coast on the ^f south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here ^g before the LORD our God.

7 But the Levites have ^h no part among you ; for the ⁱ priesthood of the LORD ^j is their inheritance : and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8 And the men arose, and went away : and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots ^k for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

9 And the men went, and passed through the land, and described it by cities, into seven parts, in a book, and came again to Joshua at the host ^l at Shiloh.

10 And Joshua ^m cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD : and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their divisions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin ⁿ came up according to their families : and the coast of their lot came up forth ^o between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border, on the north side, was from Jordan : and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward ; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of ^p Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of ^q Luz, (which is Beth-el), southward ; and the border descended to ^r Atarothadar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward ; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal (which is Kirjath-jearim), a city of the children of Judah : this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim ; and the border went out on the north, and went out to the well of waters of ^s Nephtoi :

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of ^t Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to ^u En-rogel,

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to ^v En-shemesh, and went forth toward ^w Gelliloth, which is over against the going up of ^x Adummim, and descended to the stone of ^y Bo-han the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against ^z Arabah northward, and went down [†] unto Arabah :

19 And the border passed along to the side of ^a Beth-hoglah northward : and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay [†] of the salt sea, at the south end of Jordan : this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and [†] the valley of Keziz,

22 And ^b Beth-arabah, and ^c Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and ^d Ophrah, 24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and ^e Gaba ; twelve cities with their villages :

25 ^f Gibeon, and ^g Ramah, and ^h Beeroth, 26 And ⁱ Mizpeh, and ^j Chephirah, and Moza, 27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, 28 And ^k Zelah, Eleph, and ^l Jebusi (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kirjath ; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, ^m according to their families.

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to ^j Baalath-beer, ^k Ramath of the 9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the part of the children of Judah was ^l too much for them; therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

10 And the ^m third lot came up for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:
11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before ⁿ Jokneam; 12 And turned from Sarid eastward, toward the sun-rising, unto the border of ^o Chisloth-goeth up to Japhia, 13 And from thence passeth on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-methoar to Neah:

14 And the border compasseth it on the north side to Hannathon: and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiphtah-el:
15 And Kattath, and ^q Nahallal, and ^r Shim-ron, and Idalah, and ^s Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages.
16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.
17 And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.
18 And their border was toward ^t Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and ^u Shunem,
19 And Haphraim, and Shihon, and Ana-

22 And the coast reacheth ^w to Tabor, and goings of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.
24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.
25 And their border was ^y Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,
26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and ^z Misheal; and reacheth to ^{aa} Carmel [†] westward, and to Shihon-libnath;

27 And turneth toward the sun-rising to Bethdagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphtah-el, toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to ^{ab} Ca-bul on the left hand,

28 And ^{ac} Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and ^{ad} Kanah, even unto ^{ae} great Zidon;

29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city ^{af} Tyre; and the coast turn-eth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea, from the coast to ^{ag} Achzib:

30 Ummah also, and ^{ah} Aphek, and Rehob:
twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the ^{ai} outgoings thereof were at Jordan;

34 And then the coast turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkuk, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sun-rising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and ^{aj} Hammath, Rakkath, and ^{ak} Chinnereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and ^{al} Edrei, and En-hazor,

Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families,
the cities and their villages.

40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was ^{am} Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,

42 And Shaalabbin, and ^{an} Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and ^{ao} Thimnathah, and Ekron, lath,

45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and ^{aq} Gathrimmon,

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border ^{ar} before Japho.

47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out ^{as} too little for them; therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against ^{at} Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the ^{au} edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua

THEN came near the ^a heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at ^b Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the ^c hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel ^d gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the † commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the ^e Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had ^f by lot, out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, ^g thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot, out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ^h ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon had by lot, out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, ⁱ thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari, by their families, had, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, ^k twelve cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their ^l suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the city of ^m Arba, the father of Anak (which city is Hebron), in the hill-country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the ⁿ fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest, Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and ^o Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And ^p Jattir with her suburbs, and ^q Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

15 And ^r Holon with her suburbs, and ^s Debir with her suburbs,

16 And ^t Ain with her suburbs, and ^u Juttah with her suburbs, and ^v Beth-shemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, ^x Gibeon with her suburbs, ^y Geba with her suburbs, 18 ^z Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

41 All the cities of the Levites ^a within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD ^d gave unto Israel all the land which he swore to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The two tribes and half with a blessing are sent home: 10 They build the altar of testimony in their journey: 11 The Israelites are offended thereat: 21 They give them good satisfaction.

THEN ^a Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe ^a of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have ^b kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye have ^c not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto ^d your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.

5 But ^e take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to ^f love the LORD your God, and to walk in ^g all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua ^h blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

7 Now, to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Bashan; but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them;

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: ⁱ divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of ^k Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came unto ^l the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.

Deut. 13, 13.

11 And the children of Israel ^m heard say, Be- hold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel ⁿ gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to ^o war against them.

13 And the children of Israel ^p sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, ^q Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest ;

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel ; and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead ; and they spake with them, saying, 16 Thus saith the ^r whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might ^s rebel this day against the LORD ?

17 Is the iniquity of ^t Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD, 18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD ? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to-day against the LORD, that ^u to-morrow ye will be with the ^v whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle ^w dwelleth, and take possession among us : but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar, beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not ^x Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel ? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ^y Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, answered and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD ^z God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he ^a knoweth, and Israel he shall know ; if it be in ^b rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt-offering or meat-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it ;

24 And if we have not rather done it ^c for fear of this thing, saying, ^d In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying,

(198)

What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel ?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you ; ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad, ye have ^e no part in the LORD : so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, ^f not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice :

27 But that it may be ^g a witness between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings ; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have ^h no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should ⁱ so say to us, or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for sacrifices ; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for meat-offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, spake, ^j it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD ^k is ^l among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD : ^m now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and ⁿ brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel ; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, called the altar ^o Ed : for it shall ^p be a witness between us that ^q the LORD is God.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he ^p put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them : and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt : and ye dwelt in the wilderness ^q a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought ^r with you : and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and ^s warred against Israel, and ^t sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you :

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still : so I delivered you out of his hand.

9 And

14 Now ^a therefore fear the LORD, and serve him ^b in sincerity and in ^c truth: and put away the gods which your ^d fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served, that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ^e as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up, and our fathers, out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwell in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD; for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an [†] holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If ye [†] forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay, but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses [‡] against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore ^h put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua ⁱ made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua ^k wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and ^l set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, ^m this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath ⁿ heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the ^o servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in ^p Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of ^q Gaash.

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and ^r all the days of the elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel.

32 And the ^s bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in ^t Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Eleazar, the son of Aaron, died; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

¶ The BOOK of JUDGES.

CH A P. I.

1 The acts of Judah and Simeon. 6 Adoni-bezek justly requited. 8 Jerusalem taken. 10 Hebron taken. 13 Othniel hath Achsah to wife for taking of Debir. 16 The Kenites dwell in Judah. 17 Hormah, Gaza, Askelon, and Ekron, taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 22 Of the house of Joseph, who take Beth-el. 27 Of Manasseh. 30 Of Zebulun. 31 Of Asher. 33 Of Naphtali. 34 Of Dan.

NOW, ^a after the death of Joshua, it came to pass, that the children of Israel ^b asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, ^c Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into ^d his hand.

3 And Judah said unto ^e Simeon his brother, Come up with me into ^f my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into ^g thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them ^h Bezek ⁱ ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled: and they pursued after him, and caught him, and ^j cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, ^k Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their-meat under my table: ^l as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 ¶ Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

Or, ye will not be able to serve.

10 And Judah ^{||} went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba,) and they slew ^a She-shai, and Abiman, and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir; (and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:)

12 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, ^a to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 Also Judah took ^a Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And ^a the Lord was with Judah, and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain, but ^a could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had ^a chariots of iron.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to ^a descry Beth-el: (Now the name of the city before was ^a Luz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city; and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and ^a we will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the ^a Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.

1 An angel rebuketh the people at Bochim. 10 The wickedness of the new generation after Joshua. 14 God's anger and pity towards them. 20 The Canaanites are left to prove Israel.

AND ^a an angel of the Lord came up from ^a Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I ^a swore unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And ye shall make ^a no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall ^a throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the Lord spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people ^a lift up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place ^{||} Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the Lord.

28.

6 ¶ And when Joshua had ⁱ let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in ^k Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were ^l gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which ^m knew not the LORD, nor yet the ⁿ works which he had done for Israel.

11 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim:

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed ^o other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and ^p bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that ^r spoiled them, and he ^s sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 ^t Whithersoever they went out, the ^u hand of the LORD was against them for evil, ^v as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 Nevertheless the LORD ^y raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would ^z not hearken unto their judges, but they went ^a a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then ^b the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it ^c repented the LORD because of their ^d groanings, by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was ^e dead, that they returned and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them: they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their ^f stubborn way.

20 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice,

21 I also will ^g not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua ^h left when he died;

22 That through them I may ⁱ prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD, to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

C H A P. III.

1 The nations which were left to prove Israel: 5 By communion with them, they commit idolatry. 9 Othniel delivereth them from Chushan-rishathaim, 15 Ehud from Eglon, 31 Shamgar from the Philistines.

NOW these are the nations which the LORD left, to ^j prove Israel by them; (even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know ^k to teach them war, at the least such as before ^l knew nothing thereof;)

3 Namely, ^m five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in ⁿ mount Lebanon, from mount ^o Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, ^p to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 ¶ And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And they ^q took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and ^r served their gods.

7 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves.

8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was ^s hot against Israel, ^t and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim ^u eight years.

9 And ^v when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a ^w deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even ^x Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had ^y rest forty years: and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel did ^z evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD ^a strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

14 So the children of Israel ^u served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel ^x cried under to the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger, which had † two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab; and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the || quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer parlour, which he had for himself, alone: and Ehud said, I have † a message from God unto thee. And he ^y arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and ^z thrust it into his belly.

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the || dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came;
and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he ^a covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed; and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour: therefore they took a key and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he ^b blew a trumpet in the ^c mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me; for the ^d LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the || fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all † lusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest fourscore lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not [†] a man left.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not: and when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty: and she opened a [×] bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent; and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, [✓] No.

21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, took [×] a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground; (for he was fast asleep, and weary:) so he died.

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So [×] a God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel [†] prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of [†] Canaan.

The song of Deborah and Barak.

THEN [×] a sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the Lord for the [†] avenging of Israel, when the [×] people [†] willingly offered themselves.

3 [×] Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes: I, even I, will sing unto the Lord; I will sing praise to the Lord God of Israel.

4 Lord, when thou [†] wentest out of Seir, when thou marchdest out of the field of Edom, the [×] earth trembled, and the [†] heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the Lord, even that Sinai from before the Lord God of Israel.

6 In the days of [†] Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the [†] highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through by-ways.

7 The inhabitants of the [†] villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a [×] mother in Israel.

8 They chose [×] a new gods; then was war in the gates: was there [×] a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, that offered themselves [×] willingly among the people. Bless ye the Lord.

10 [×] Speak, ye that ride on [×] white asses, ye that [×] sit in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from [†] the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the Lord, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the Lord go down to the gates.

12 [×] Awake, awake, Deborah; awake, awake; utter a song: arise, Barak, and [×] lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

13 Then he made him that remaineth have [×] dominion over the nobles among the people: the Lord made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; [×] after thee, Benjamin, among thy people: out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on [†] foot into the valley. ^{||} For the divisions of Reuben [†] there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheep-folds, to hear the [×] bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the sea-shore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that [×] jeopardized their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 The [×] kings came and fought; then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: they took no gain of money.

20 They [†] fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.

22 Then were the [×] horse-hoofs broken by the means of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

23 Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the Lord; curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the [†] help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

24 [×] Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be; blessed shall she be above women in the [†] tent.

25 He asked water, and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera; she ^{||} smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

1 The Israelites for their sin are oppressed by Midian. 8 A prophet rebuketh them. 11 An Angel sendeth Gideon for their deliverance. 21 Gideon's present is consumed with fire. 24 Gideon builds an altar there, and calls it Jehovah-shalom. 31, 32 Joash defendeth his son, and calleth him Jerubbaal. 33 The Midianites' army. 36 Gideon's signs.

AND the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD ; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of ^a Midian seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel : and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the ^b dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the ^c Amalekites, and the ^d children of the east, even they came up against them ;

4 And they encamped against them, and ^e destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto ^f Gaza ; and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle, and their ^g tents, and they came ^h as grasshoppers for multitude : for both they and their camels were ⁱ without number : and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites ; and the children of Israel ^j cried unto the LORD.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent ^k a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage ;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and ^l drove them out from before you, and gave you their land :

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God ; fear not the ^m gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell : but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And there came an ⁿ angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the ^o Abi-ezrite : and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the wine-press, to ^p hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD ^q is ^o with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, ^r Oh, my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us ? and ^s where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt ? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD ^t looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites : ^u have not I sent thee ?

15 And he said unto him, Oh, my Lord, ^v wherewith shall I save Israel ? behold, my ^w family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the ^x least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be ^y with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 ¶ And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then ^z shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my ^a present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour : the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and ^b pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes ; and there rose up ^c fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God ! for ^d because I have seen an angel of the LORD ^e face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, ^f Peace be unto thee ; fear not : thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom : unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy ^g father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it ;

1, 7 Gideon's army of two and thirty thousand is brought to three hundred : 13 He is encouraged by the dream, and interpretation of the barley-cake : 16 His stratagem of trumpets and lamps in pitchers. 25 The Ephraimites take Oreb and Zeeb.

¶ THEN ^a Jerubbaal, (who is Gideon,) and all ^a the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of [†] Harod : so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are ^b too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, ^c Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now, therefore, go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, ^d Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return, and [†] depart early from mount Gilead : and there returned of the people twenty and two thousand, and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many ; bring them down unto the water, and I will [†] try them for thee there : and it shall be, that of ^e whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee ; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water : and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that ^f lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself ; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men : but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, ^g By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand : and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their ^h trumpets : and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men. And the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 And it came to pass the same ⁱ night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host ; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host :

11 And thou shalt ^k hear what they say ; and afterward shall thine ^l hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the [†] armed men that were in the host.

12 And the ^m Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude ; and their camels were without number, as the ⁿ sand [†] by the sea-side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was, a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, ^a a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell; and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, ^p This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the [†] interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, ^a Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with ^r empty pitchers, and ^a lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be, that as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, ^t The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the ^u middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and ^x brake the pitchers, that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal; and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they ^y stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the ^z host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the ^a LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, and to the border of ^b Abel-meholah, unto Tab-bath.

23 And the men of Israel ^c gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all ^d mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the ^e waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto ^f Beth-barah and Jordan.

25 And they took ^g two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the ^h rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the ⁱ wine-press of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other ^k side Jordan.

the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [†] taught the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the tower of Peniel, and slew the [†] men of the city.

18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at [†] Tabor? And they answered, [†] As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his first-born, [†] Up, and slay them: but the youth drew not his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, [†] Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [†] slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, [†] Rule thou over us, both thou and thy son, and thy son's son also; for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, [†] I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [†] the LORD shall rule over you.

24 And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the ear-rings of his prey: (for they had golden [†] ear-rings, because they were [†] Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the ear-rings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden ear-rings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon [†] made an [†] ephod thereof, and [†] put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither [†] a whoring after it; and all became [†] a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more: and the country was in quietness [†] forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash, went and [†] dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons [†] of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his [†] concubine, that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gideon, the son of Joash, died in [†] a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

33 And it came to pass, [†] as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel [†] remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither [†] shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

AND Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal, went [†] to [†] Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and [†] communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren [†] spake of him in [†] the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith; wherewith Abimelech hired [†] vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and [†] slew his brethren, the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, was left: for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of [†] Millo, and went and [†] made Abimelech king, by the [†] plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 And when they told [†] it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of [†] mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Harken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The [†] trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them: and they said unto the olive-tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive-tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, [†] wherewith by me they honour God and man, and [†] go to be promoted over the trees?

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to ^a Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then ^a God sent an ^u evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem ^a dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 That the ^v cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set ^a liars in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem ^a put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made ^b merry, and went into the ^c house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, ^d Who is (209)

Abimelech, and who is ^e Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the ^f son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem; for why should we serve him?

29 And ^e would to God this people were under my hand! ^h then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 And when Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal, the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech † privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed, and his brethren, be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now, therefore, up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them † as thou shalt find occasion.

34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four ^a companies.

35 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou ⁱ seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come people down by the † middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of ^{||} Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, ^k Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul ^l thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at ^c great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, ^d I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day to fight against me?

4 ^e Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, ^f Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 And the Gileadites took ^g the passages of 8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, O my LORD, let the man of God which thou dost send come again unto us, and ^a teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

9 And God ^o hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman ^p made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass: how shall we order the child? and [†] how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the ^a vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: ^{*} all that I commanded her let her observe.

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy [†] bread; and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou must offer it ^a unto the LORD: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that, when thy sayings come to pass, we may ^a do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is ^{||} secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid, with a meat-offering, and [†] offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did ^a wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar: and Manoah and his wife looked on it, and ^a fell on their faces to the ground.

21 (But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife.) Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely ^b die, because we have seen God.

23 But ^c his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, ^a he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands; neither would he have ^c shewed us all these things, nor would, as at this time, have told us such things as these.

4 And it came to pass afterward, that he ^e loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was || Delilah.

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, ^f Entice him, and see wherein his ^g great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will ^h give thee, every one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, ⁱ Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with ^k seven green withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be ^l as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she ^m bound him with them.

9 (Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber.) And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it ⁿ toucheth the fire: so his ^o strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast ^p mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took ^q new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. (And there were liars in wait abiding in the chamber.) And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou ^r weavest the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the ^s beam, and with the web.

15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was ^t vexed unto death,

17 That he ^u told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been ^v a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, ^w then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once; for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought ^x money in their hand.

19 And she made him ^y sleep upon her knees: and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was ^z departed from him.

21 But the Philistines took him, and ^{aa} put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with ^{ab} fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto ^b Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they ^c praised their god; for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, || which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us ^d sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon ^e the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there: and there were upon the ^f roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson ^g called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, † Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house ^b fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew ^a at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father, came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between ^c Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of Manoaah his father. And he judged Israel ^d twenty years.

1 Of the money that Micah first stole, then restored, his mother maketh images, ^e and he ornaments for them. 7 He hireth a Levite to be his priest.

AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken † from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me;

I took it. And his mother said, || Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly ^a dedicated the silver unto the LORD, from my hand, for my son, to make a graven image and a ^b molten image; now, therefore, I will restore it unto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took ^c two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an ^d ephod, and ^e teraphim, and † consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was ^f no king in Israel, but every man did what which was ^g right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man out of ^h Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah, to sojourn ⁱ where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me ^k a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy ^l victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, ^m Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

1 The Danites send five men to seek out an inheritance. 3 At the house of Micah they consult with Jonathan, and are encouraged in their way. 7 They search Laish, and bring back news of good hope. 11 Six hundred men are sent to surprise it. 14 In the way they rob Micah of his priest and his consecrated things. 27 They win Laish, and call it Dan. 30 They set up idolatry, wherein Jonathan inheriteth the priesthood.

IN those days there was ^a no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites ^b sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had ^c not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from ^d Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who, when they came to mount Ephraim, to the ^e house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they ^f knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath ^g hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, ^h Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And ⁱ the priest said unto them, Go in peace: ^k before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to ^l Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and † secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might ^m put them to shame in any thing: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye † still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to † a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in ⁿ Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan, unto this day: behold, it is ^o behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence, unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the ^p house of Micah.

brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now, therefore, consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and [†]saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattle, and the carriage, before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned, and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by a Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit, the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micah's graven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

1 A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife: 16 an old man entertaineth him at Gibeath.

22 The Gibeathites abuse his concubine to death.

29 He divideth her into twelve pieces, to send them to the twelve tribes.

AND it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son-in-law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law urged him; therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until after noon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold now, the day draweth toward evening; I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end; lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to-morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem: and there were with him two asses saddled; his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in unto this city of the ^b Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the ^c city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in ^d Gibeah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city; for there was no man that ^e took them into his house to lodging.

16 And, behold, there came an old man from his ^f work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were ^g Benjaminites.

17 And when he had lift up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to the ^h house of the Lord; and there is no man that ⁱ receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, ^j Peace be with thee: howsoever, ^k let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they ^l washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 Now, as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of ^m Belial, ⁿ beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may ^o know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is ^p come into mine house, do not this ^q folly.

24 Behold, here is my daughter, a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and ^r humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they ^s knew-her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman, in the dawning of the day, and ^t fell down at the door of the man's house where ^u her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going: but ^v none answered. Then the man took her ^w up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together ^x with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: ^y a consider of it, ^z take advice, and speak your minds.

THEN ^a all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together ^b as one man, from Dan ^c even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in ^d Mizpeh.

2 And the ^e chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that ^f drew sword.

3 (Now the ^g children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

4 And ^h the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge:

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me; and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed ⁱ lewdness and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, ^j ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, ^k We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house:

9 But now, this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah, we will go up ^l by lot against it:

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel ¹ sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore ² deliver us the men, the children of ³ Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would ⁴ not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time, out of the cities, ⁵ twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men [†] left-handed; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the ⁶ house of God, and ⁷ asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up ⁸ first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and ⁹ destroyed down to the ground, of the Israelites that day, twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israel, ¹⁰ encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array, in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up, and wept ¹¹ before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground, of the children of Israel again, eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the [†] house of God and wept, and ¹² sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel ¹³ inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days; 28 And ¹⁴ Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ¹⁵ stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to-morrow I will deliver them unto thine hand.

29 And Israel ¹⁶ set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people [†] and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the ¹⁷ field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baaltamar; and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they ¹⁸ knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these ¹⁹ drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: ²⁰ for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hastened, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait ²¹ drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel ²² retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, [†] Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them: and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease, over against Gibeath toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men: all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned, and fled toward the wilderness unto the ^s rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were ^b twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword: all these were men of valour.

47 ^b But six hundred men turned, and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, ⁺ as well the men of every city as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

CH A P. XXI.

1 The people bewail the desolation of Benjamin.

8 By the destruction of Jabesh-gilead they provide them four hundred wives. 16 They advise them to surprise the virgins that danced at Shiloh.

NOW the men of Israel had ^a sworn in ^b Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife.

2 And the people came to the ^c house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore;

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, ^d why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to-day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an ^a altar, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation ⁺ unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be ⁺ put to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day:

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from ^a Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand ⁺ men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall ⁺ utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred ⁺ young virgins, that had known no man by ⁺ lying with any male; and they brought them unto the camp to ^b Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin, that were in the ⁺ rock Rimmon, and ⁺ to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they ⁺ sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel have ^a sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is ^a a feast of the LORD in Shiloh ⁺ yearly, in a place which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to ^c dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, ^{||} Be favourable unto them for our sakes; because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

¶ The BOOK of RUTH.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 4 Mahlon and Chilion, having married wives of Moab, die also. 6 Naomi returning homeward, 11 dissuadeth her two daughters-in-law from going with her. 14 Orpah leaveth her, but Ruth with great constancy accompanieth her. 19 They two come to Beth-lehem, where they are gladly received.

NOW it came to pass, in the days when the judges [†] ruled, that there was ^a a famine in the land. And a certain man of ^b Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, ^c he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, ^d Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, ^e died; and she was left, and her ^f two sons.

4 And ^g they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other ^h Ruth: and they dwelled there about ⁱ ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was ^k left of her two sons and her husband.

6 Then she arose, with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the Lord had ^l visited ^m his people in giving them ⁿ bread.

7 Wherefore ^o she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and ^p they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her ^q mother's house: ^r the Lord deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt ^s with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grant you that ye may ^t find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she ^u kissed them: and they lift up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return ^v with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters, ^w why will you go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am ^x too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to-night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much, for your sakes, that the ^y hand of the Lord is gone out against me.

14 And they lift up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah ^z kissed her mother-in-law, ^a but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, ^b thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto ^c her gods: ^d I return thou after thy sister-in-law.

16 And Ruth said, ^e Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people ^f shall be my people, and ^g thy God my God.

17 Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do so to me, and more also, if ^h ought but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she ⁱ left speaking unto her.

19 So ^k they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to ^l Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them; and they said, ^m Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty ⁿ hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and the Lord hath brought me home again ^o empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath ^p testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, which ^q returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of ^r barley-harvest.

CHAP. P. II.

1 Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz. 4 Boaz taking knowledge of her, 8 sheweth her great favour. 18 That which she got she carrieth to Naomi.

AND Naomi had ^a a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and ^b glean ears of corn after ^c him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field ^d belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 And, ^e behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, ^f The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me all that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law since the death of thine husband; and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, I though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to-day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to-day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law,

Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley-harvest, and of wheat-harvest; and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

C H A P. III.

1 By Naomi's instruction, 5 Ruth lieth at Boaz's feet. 8 Boaz acknowledged the right of a kinsman: 14 He sendeth her away with six measures of barley.

THEN Naomi her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? behold, he winnoweth barley to-night in the threshing-floor.

3 Wash thyself, therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 And it came to pass, at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself; and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid; spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman.

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter; for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit, there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Hark thy night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, Philip, 4, there, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it ^a not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured ^b six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law.

CH A P. IV.

1 Boaz calleth into judgment the next kinsman. 6 He refuseth the redemption according to the manner in Israel. 9 Boaz buyeth the inheritance: 10 He marrieth Ruth: 13 She beareth Obed the grandfather of David. 18 The generation of Pharez.

THEN went Boaz up to the ^a gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the ^b kinsman, of whom Boaz spake, came by: unto whom he said, Ho, such-a-one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ^c ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they ^d sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, ^e selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And ^f I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and ^g before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will ^h redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of ⁱ Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, ^j lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the ^k manner in former time in Israel, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm all things: A man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee: So he ^l drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye ^m are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I ⁿ purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead ^o be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye ^p are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. ^q The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephrath, and be famous in Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, (whom ^r Tamar bare unto Judah,) of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 So Boaz ^s took Ruth, and she was his wife: and, when he went into her, ^t the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And the ^u women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and ^v a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law which loveth thee, which is better to thee than ^w seven sons, hath borne him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her ^x bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her ^y neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi: and they called his name ^z Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 ¶ Now these are the generations of ^a Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron, 19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, 21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed,

22 And Obed begat ^b Jesse, and Jesse begat ^c David.

¶ The FIRST Book of SAMUEL, otherwise called The FIRST Book of the KINGS.

CH A P. I.

1 Elkanah a Levite, having two wives, worshipped yearly at Shiloh: 4 He cherisheth Hannah, though barren, and provoked by Peninnah. 9 Hannah in grief prayeth for a child. 12 Eli first rebuketh her, afterwards blesteth her. 19 Hannah having borne Samuel, stayeth at home till he be weaned. 24 She presenteth him, according to her vow, to the LORD.

NOW there was a certain man of ^a Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an ^b Ephrathite:

11 ¶ And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house; and the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were sons of ^a Bealial; they ^a knew not the LORD.

13 And the priest's ^b custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck ^a it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; ^a all that the flesh-hook brought up ^a the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the ^a fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sudden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give ^a it me now: and if not, I will take ^a it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great ^a before the LORD; for men ^a abhorred the offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ^a ephod.

19 Moreover, his mother made him a little coat, and brought ^a it to him ^a from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli ^a blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman, for the loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD ^a visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare ^a three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel ^a grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings ^a by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons: for ^a it is ^a no good report that I hear; ye make the LORD's people to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man ^a sin against the LORD, who shall ^a entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, ^a because the LORD would slay them.

26 (And the child Samuel ^a grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.)

27 And there came a ^a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the ^a house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did ^a I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father ^a all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore ^a kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in ^a my habitation, and ^a honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, ^a I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, ^a Be it far from me; for them that ^a honour me ^a I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days come that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see ^a an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not ^a cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be ^a a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: ^a in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And I will ^a raise me up ^a a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart, and in my mind: and I will build him ^a a sure house; and he shall walk before mine ^a Anointed ^a for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and ^a crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

1 How the word of the LORD was first revealed to Samuel. 11 God telleth Samuel the destruction of Eli's house. 15 Samuel, though loath, telleth Eli the vision. 19 Samuel groweth in credit.

AND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD ^a before Eli. And the word of the LORD was ^a precious in those days; there was no ^a open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes ^a began to wax dim, that he could ^a not see;

3 And ere the lamp of God ^a went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep;

4 That the LORD ^a called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11 And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him, that I will judge his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD: and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: for God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

C H A P. IV.

1 The Israelites are overcome by the Philistines at Ebenezer. 3 They fetch the ark to the terror of the Philistines. 10 They are smitten again, the ark taken, Hophni and Phinehas are slain. 12 Eli at the news, falling backward, breaketh his neck. 19 Phinehas' wife, discouraged in her travail with I-chabod, dieth.

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines; and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid; for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Wo unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Wo unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought; and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way-side, watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to-day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines; and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people; and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward, by the side of the ^u gate; and his ^z neck brake, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy: and he had judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings, that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for [†] her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not, for thou hast borne [†] a son. But she answered not, [†] neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child ^{||} I-chabod, saying, ^z The glory is departed from Israel: (because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband:)

22 And ^a she said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

C H A P. V.

1 The Philistines having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon. 3 Dagon is smitten down and cut in pieces, and they of Ashdod smitten with emerods. 8 So God dealt with them of Gath, when it was brought thither; 10 and so with them of Ekron, when it was brought thither.

AND the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from ^a Eben-ezer unto ^b Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by ^c Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon ^a was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were ^o cut off upon the threshold; [†] only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, [†] tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the ^a hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod; and he ^b destroyed them, and smote them [†] with emerods, even Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod ^k saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and [†] upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent, therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, ^m What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto ⁿ Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with ^o a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to ^p Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that ^a died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

C H A P. VI.

1 After seven months the Philistines take counsel how to send back the ark. 10 They bring it on a new cart with an offering, unto Beth-shemesh. 19 The people are smitten for looking into the ark. 21 They send to them of Kirjath-jearim to fetch it.

AND the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven ^a months.

2 And the Philistines called for the ^b priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it ^c not empty; but in [†] any wise return him a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be ^d known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? ^e They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for [†] one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that [†] mar the land; and ye shall ^a give glory unto the God of Israel; peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off ^b your gods and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh [†] hardened their hearts? When he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a ^k new cart, and take [†] two milch kine on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon upon the cart: and put the [†] jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

10 And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of ¹ Beth-shemesh, [†] and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their ^m wheat-harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and ⁿ saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they ^c clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

15 And the ^p Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed sacrifices, the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one:

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities and of country villages, even unto [†] the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD; which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

19 And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had ^a looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people ^r fifty thousand and threescore and ten men. And the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, ^s Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of ^t Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

C H A P. VII.

1 They of Kirjath-jearim bring the ark into the house of Abinadab, and sanctify Eleazar his son to keep it. 2 After twenty years, 3 the Israelites, by Samuel's means, solemnly repent at Mizpeh. 9 While Samuel prayeth and sacrificeth, the Lord discomfith the Philistines by thunder at Eben-ezer. 13 The Philistines are subdued. 15 Samuel peaceably and religiously judgeth Israel.

AND the men of ^a Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of ^b Abinadab, in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel ^c lamented after the LORD.

3 [†] And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do ^d return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the ^e strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and ^f prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and ^g serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away ^b Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel ⁱ to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and ^k drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and ^l fasted on that day, and said there, We have ^m sinned against the LORD. And Samuel ⁿ judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines ^o heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were ^p afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, [†] Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for ^q a burnt-offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD ^r heard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD ^s thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and ^t discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and ^u set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it ^v Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came ^w no more into the coast of Israel, and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel

- 8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, † I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.
- 9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet, was beforetime called a Seer.)
- 10 Then said Saul to his servant, † Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.
- 11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?
- 12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you; make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for there is † a sacrifice of the people to-day ^a in the high place:
- 13 As soon as ye be come into the city ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth ^a bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.
- 14 And they went up into the city; and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.
- 15 ^a Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,
- 16 To-morrow, about this time, I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin; and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people ^a out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.
- 17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD ^a said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of: this same shall † reign over my people.
- 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.
- 19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to-day; and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.
- 20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all ^a the desire of Israel; is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?
- 21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the ^a smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the ^a least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?
- 22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them ^a sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.
- 23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the ^b portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.
- 24 And the cook took up the ^c shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.
- 25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel ^a communed with Saul upon the ^c top of the house.
- 26 And they arose early: and it came to pass, about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.
- 27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but † stand thou still † a while, that I may † shew thee the word of God.

8 And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

q ch. 19, 23. behold, a company of ^a prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? ^r Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is ^t their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told ^u him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together ^x unto the Lord to ^y Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, ^z I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

a ch. 8, 6, 7. 19 And ye have this day ^a rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have ^b said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the Lord by your ^c tribes, and by your ^d thousands.

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel ^e to come near, the tribe of Benjamin ^f was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul, the son of Kish, was taken: and when they sought him, he could ^g not be found.

22 Therefore they ^h inquired of the Lord further, if the man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Behold, he hath ⁱ hid himself among the staff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was ^k higher than any of the people, from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him ^l whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king!

25 Then Samuel told the people the ^m manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to ⁿ Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of ^o Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him ^p no presents: but he ^q held his peace.

CHAP. XI.

1 Nahash offereth them of Jabesh-gilead a reproachful condition. 4 They send messengers, and are delivered by Saul. 12 Saul thereby is confirmed, and his kingdom renewed.

THEN Nahash the ^a Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of ^b Jabesh said unto Nahash, ^c Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your ^d right eyes, and lay it for a reproach ^e upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 Then came the messengers to ^f Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the ^g herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the ^h Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his ⁱ anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and ^j hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, ^k so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out ^l with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in ^m Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow ⁿ we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the ^o morrow, that Saul put the people in three ^p companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the ^q morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the 12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul ^a reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall ^a not a man be put to death this day: for to-day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to ^a Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul ^t king before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace-offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

C H A P. XII.

1 Samuel testifieth his integrity: 6 He reproveth the people of ingratitude: 16 He terrifieth them with thunder in harvest time: 20 He comforteth them in God's mercy.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made ^a a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king ^b walketh before you: and I am ^c old and grey-headed; and, behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, ^d here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and ^e before his anointed; whose ^f ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received ^{any} ^g bribe to ^h blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, ⁱ Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought ^k in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD ^l that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may ^m reason with you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 When ⁿ Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers ^o cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent ^p Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they ^q forgot the LORD their God, ^r he sold them into the hand of ^s Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the ^t Philistines, and into the hand of the king of ^u Moab; and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served ^v Baalim and Ashtaroth:

but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent ^w Jerubbaal, and Be-dan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon, came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but ^x a king shall reign over us; when the LORD your God ^y was your king.

13 Now therefore behold the king whom ^b ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, ^c the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will ^d fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following the LORD your God:

15 But if ye will ^e not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 Now therefore stand and see ^f this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not ^g wheat-harvest to-day? I will ^h call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is ⁱ great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD ^k sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly ^l feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins ^m this evil, to ask us a king.

20 And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: (ye have done all this wickedness; ⁿ yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD ^o with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after ^p vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain:)

22 For the LORD will not forsake his people ^q for his great name's sake; because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 Moreover, for to me, God forbid that I should ^r sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the ^s good and the right way:

24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for ^t consider how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ^u ye and your king.

of the Philistines. 19 The policy of the Philistines, to suffer no smith in Israel.

SAUL † reigned ^a two years over Israel,
2 Saul chose him ^b three thousand men of Israel; ^c whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in ^e Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote ^d the garrison of the Philistines that was in ^e Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard say, ^f that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the ^g sea-shore in multitude: and they came up and pitched in Michmash, eastward from ^h Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a ⁱ strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal; and all the people † followed him trembling.

8 And he tarried ^k seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul ^l said, Bring hither a burnt-offering to me, and peace-offerings. And he ^m offered the burnt-offering.

10 And it came to pass, that, ⁿ as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 And Samuel ^o said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and ^p that thou camest not ^q within the days appointed, and ^r that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore, ^s said I, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord: ^t I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, ^u Thou hast done ^v foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath ^w sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept ^x that which the Lord commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people ^y that were present with him, ^z about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people ^{aa} that were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the ^{ab} Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way ^{ac} that leadeth to ^{ad} Ophrah, unto the land of ^{ae} Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to ^{af} Beth-horon; and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the ^{ag} valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was ^{ah} no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; (for the Philistines said, ^{ai} Lest the Hebrews make ^{aj} them swords or spears;)

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass, in the day of battle, that there was neither ^{ak} sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul, and with Jonathan his son, was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Jonathan, unwitting to his father, the priest, or the people, goeth and miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison. 15 A divine terror maketh them beat themselves. 17 Saul not staying the priest's answer, setteth on them. 21 The captivated Hebrews, and the hidden Israelites, join against them. 24 Saul's unadvised adjuration hindereth the victory: 32 He restraineth the people from eating blood: 35 He buildeth an altar. 36 Jonathan taken by lot, is saved by the people. 47 Saul's strength and family.

NOW it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, ^{ba} Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side. But he ^{bb} told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah, under a pomegranate-tree, which is in ^{bc} Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And ^{bd} Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, ^{be} I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the Lord's priest in Shiloh, ^{bf} wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a ^{bg} sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

ward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these ^a uncircumcised: ^b it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many ^c or by few.

7 And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 ^k If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand; and ^l this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the ^m garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we ⁿ will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me; for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan ^o climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer ^p slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, ^q † within as it were an half-acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was ^r a trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled; and the earth quaked: so it was ^s † a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, ^t Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)

19 And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said unto the priest, ^u Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, ^v every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had ^w hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the Lord ^x saved Israel that day: and the ^y battle passed over unto Beth-aven.

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had ^z adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any ^{aa} † food until evening, that I may be ^{ab} † avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And ^{ac} † all they of the land came to a wood, and there was ^{ad} † honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, ^{ae} † the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in ^{af} † a honey-comb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his ^{ag} † eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father ^{ah} † straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey;

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies, which they found? ^{ai} † for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people ^{aj} † did eat them with the ^{ak} † blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people ^{al} † sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have ^{am} † transgressed: ^{an} † roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul ^{ao} † built an altar unto the Lord: ^{ap} † the same was the first altar that he built unto the Lord.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.

And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us * draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul ¹ asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he ^m answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither all the [†] chief of the people; and know and see ^a wherein this sin hath been this day:

39 For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, [†] Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done: And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, ^o God do so, and more also: for thou shalt surely ^p die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not ^q one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought ^r with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul ^s took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of ^t Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he ^u vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 ¶ Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and ^v Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of their two daughters were these; the name of the first-born Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Abinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle:

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of ^w Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any ^x valiant man, he took him unto him.

1 Samuel sendeth Saul to destroy Amalek. 6 Saul favoureth the Kenites: 8 He spareth Agag and the best of the spoil. 10 Samuel denounceth unto Saul, commending and excusing himself, God's rejection of him for his disobedience. 24 Saul's humiliation. 33 Samuel killeth Agag. 34 Samuel and Saul part.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, The LORD ^a sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore ^b hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the ^c LORD of hosts, ^d I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he ^e laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go, and smite Amalek, and ^f utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ^g ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in ^h Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ⁱ ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the ^k valley.

6 And Saul said unto the ^l Kenites, ^m Go, depart, ⁿ get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye ^o shewed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul ^p smote the Amalekites from ^q Havilah until thou comest to ^r Shur, that is over against Egypt:

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people ^s spared Agag, and the ^t best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 It ^u repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is ^v turned back from following me, and hath ^w not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he ^x cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to ^y Carmel, and behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: ^b I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, I have brought them from the Amalekites: for the ^c people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to ^d sacrifice

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel sent by God under pretence of a sacrifice, cometh to Beth-lehem: 6 His human judgment is reproved: 13 He anointeth David. 19 Saul sendeth for David to quiet his evil spirit.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? I will thine horn with oil, and go; I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD; sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

12 And he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

C H A P. XVII.

1 The armies of the Israelites and Philistines being ready to battle, 4 Goliath cometh proudly forth to challenge a combat. 12 David sent by his father to visit his brethren, taketh the challenge. 23 Eliab chideth him: 30 He is brought to Saul: 32 He sheweth the reason of his confidence. 38 With-out armour, armed by faith, he slayeth the giant. 55 Saul taketh notice of David.

Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? Am not I a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was the son of that Ephraimite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born; and next unto him, Abinadab; and the third, Shamhah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren:

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him: and he came to the trench as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion (the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name) out of the armies of the Philistines, listines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, † fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to † defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will ^mgive him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the ⁿreproach from Israel? for who ^{is} this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the ^living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab, his eldest brother, heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's ^p anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy ^q pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? ^r Is there not a cause?

30 And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the † same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him.

32 And David said to Saul, ^s Let no man's heart fail because of him: thy servant ^t will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he ^u a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant † kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock;

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and ^x smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said, moreover, The Lord ^y that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will ^y deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the Lord ^{be} with thee.

38 And Saul armed David with ^z his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his ^b staff in his hand, and chose him ^e five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on, and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the ^d shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, ^e he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with ^f staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and ^g I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield; but I come to thee ^h in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

46 ⁱ This day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto ^k the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that ^l all the earth may know that there is a God ^m in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the Lord ⁿ saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle ^o is the Lord's, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand into his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone ^p sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to ^q Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to ^r Jerusalem: but he put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, ^a whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, ¶ Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul, ^a with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Jonathan loveth David. 5 Saul envieth his praise, 10 seeketh to kill him in his fury, 12 feareth him for his good success, 17 offereth him his daughters for a snare. 22 David persuaded to be the king's son-in-law, giveth two hundred foreskins of the Philistines for Michal's dowry. 28 Saul's hatred and David's glory increase.

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was ^a knit with the soul of David; and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him ^b that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself ^c wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war; and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass, as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, ^d singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music.

7 And the women ^e answered one another as they played, and said, ¶ Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying ^f displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the ^g kingdom?

9 And Saul ^h eyed David from that day and forward.

10 And it came to pass, on the morrow, that the ⁱ evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he ^j prophesied in the midst of the house; and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the ^k javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain ^m over a thousand: and he went out ⁿ and came in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore, when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to David, Behold, my ^o elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife; only be thou valiant for me, and fight the ^p LORD's battles: for Saul said, ^q Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, ^r Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?

19 But it came to pass, at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given unto ^s Adriel the ^t Meholahite to wife.

20 And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be ^u a snare to him, and that the ^v hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law in the one of the twain.

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now, therefore, be the king's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am ^w a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, ^x ¶ On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any ^y dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, ^z ¶ it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full ^{aa} tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the ^{ab} more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself ^{ac} more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was ^{ad} much set by.

1 Jonathan discloseth his father's purpose to kill David: 4 He persuadeth his father to reconciliation. 8 By reason of David's good success in a new war, Saul's malicious rage breaketh out against him. 12 Michal deceiveth her father with an image in David's bed. 18 David cometh to Samuel in Naioth. 20 Saul's messengers sent to take David, 22 and Saul himself, prophesy.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. 2 But Jonathan, Saul's son, ^b delighted much in David: and ^c Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee. Now, therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake ^d good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king ^e sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because ^f his works have been ^g to thee-ward very good.

5 For he did ^h put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the ⁱ LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst ^j rejoice; wherefore then wilt thou ^k sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul ^l swore, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 And there was war again: and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the ^m evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his ⁿ javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul ^o sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and ^p escaped that night.

11 Saul ^q also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 So Michal let David down through ^r a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an ^s image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see

David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou ^t deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; ^u why should I kill thee?

18 So David fled, and escaped, and came ^v to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was ^w told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent ^x messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets ^y prophesying, and Samuel standing ^z as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also ^a prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the ^b third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went ^c he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in ^d Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he ^e stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and ^f lay down naked all that day, and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is ^g Saul also among the prophets!

2 And he said unto him, God forbid: thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing, either great or small, but that he will shew it me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

3 And David swore moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly, ^l as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and ^m death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul ⁿ desireth, I will even do it for thee.

I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem ^b his city: for there is a ¹ yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for ^k thou hast brought thy servant unto a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if ^l there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, ¶ O LORD God of Israel, when I have [†] sounded my father about to-morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good towards David, and I then send not unto thee, and [†] shew it thee, 13 ^m The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD ⁿ be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from ⁿ my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan [†] made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even ^p require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to ^q swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him [†] as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To-morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself [†] when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone ^{||} Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; ^r as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid [†] himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, [†] as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is [†] not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, [†] Wherefore cometh not the son of [†] Jesse to [†] meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath [†] a sacrifice in the city; and my brother he hath commanded me to be there: and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, [†] Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [†] Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field [†] at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow [†] beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his [†] artillery unto his 41 ¶ And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place towards the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David [†]exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in ^apeace, || forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went ^binto the city.

C H A P. XXI.

1 David at Nob obtaineth of Ahimelech hallowed bread. 7 Doeg was present. 8 David taketh Goliath's sword. 10 David at Gath feigneth himself mad.

THEN came David to ^aNob to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was ^bafraid at the meetings of David, and said unto him, Why art thou ^calone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, 3 The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is ^challowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least ^dfrom women.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the ^evessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a ^bmanner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest ⁱgave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shew-bread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put ^khot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the ^lservants of Saul was there that ^mday, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg, an ⁿEdomite, the [†]chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the ^ovalley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and ^pfled that day for fear of Saul, and went to ^qAchish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, ^r'Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David ^slaid up these words in his heart, and was ^tsore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is ^umad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of madmen, that ye have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

C H A P. XXII.

1 Companies resort unto David at Adullam. 3 At Mizpeh he commendeth his parents unto the king of Moab. 5 Admonished by Gad, he cometh to Hareth. 6 Saul going to pursue him, complaineth of his servants' unfaithfulness. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 11 Saul commandeth to kill the priests. 17 The footmen refusing, Doeg executeth it. 20 Abiathar escaping, bringeth David the news.

DAVID therefore departed thence, and ^vescaped to the cave ^wAdullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, ^xthey went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was ^yin distress, and every one that was ^zin debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a ^acaptain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence ^bto Mizpeh of Moab: and he ^csaid unto the king of Moab, ^d'Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 ¶ And the prophet ^eGad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; ^fdepart, and get thee into the ^gland of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeath under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the ^hson of Jesse ⁱgive every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made ^ja league with the son of Jesse, and ^kthere is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath ^lstirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered ^mDoeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of ⁿAhitub.

10 And he ^einquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 ^aThen the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that ^awere in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that ^ahe should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is ^aso faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-in-law, and ^agoeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me. Let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, ^anor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt ^asurely die, Ahimelech, thou and ^aall thy father's house.

17 And the king said unto the ^afootmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; ^abecause their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king ^awould not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day ^afour score and five persons that did wear ^aa linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, ^aboth men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, ^aescaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite ^awas there, that he would surely tell Saul: ^aI have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not; for he that seeketh my life seeketh ^athy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 David inquiring of the Lord by Abiathar, rescueth Keilah. 7 God shewing him the coming of Saul, and the treachery of the Keilites, he escapeth from Keilah. 14 In Ziph Jonathan cometh and comforteth him. 19 The Ziphites discover him to Saul. 25 At Maon he is rescued from Saul by the invasion of the Philistines. 29 He dwelleth at En-gedi.

THEN ^athey told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against ^aKeilah, and they rob the threshing-floors.

2 Therefore David ^ainquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: ^ahow much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David inquired of the LORD ^ayet again. And the LORD answered him, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech ^afled to David to Keilah, that he came down ^awith an ^aephod in his hand.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath ^adelivered him into mine hand; for he is ^ashut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant ^ahath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city ^afor my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, ^aHe will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah ^adeliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men, ^awhich were about ^asix hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David ^awas escaped from Keilah: and he forbore to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a ^amountain in the wilderness of ^aZiph: and Saul sought him ^aevery day; but ^aGod delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David ^awas in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and ^astrengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee: and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father ^aknoweth.

18 And they two ^amade a covenant before the LORD. And David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came up the ^aZiphites to Saul to Gibeath, Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong ^a holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of ^b Jeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; ^c and our part shall be to deliver him unto the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, ^d Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have ^e compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, ^f prepare yet, and know and see his place where his ^g haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of ^h Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon: And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his ⁱ men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 ^j But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammah-lekoth.

29 And David went up ^k from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at ^l Engedi.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 David in a cave at Engedi, having cut off Saul's skirt, spareth his life: 8 He sheweth thereby his innocency. 16 Saul acknowledging his fault, taketh an oath of David, and departeth.

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned ^m from following the Philistines, that it was ⁿ told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of ^o Engedi.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went ^p to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheep-cotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to ^q cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold ^r the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. ^s Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's ^t robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart ^u smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto ^v my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 So David ^w stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also rose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore ^x hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee; but mine eye spared thee: and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, ^y my father, see; yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither ^z evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou ^a huntest my soul to take it.

12 The ^b LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD ^c avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be ^d upon thee.

13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, ^e Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but ^f mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom ^g is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after ^h a dead dog, after a flea?

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and ⁱ see, and ^j plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, ^k Is this thy voice, ^l my son David? And Saul lift up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast ^m rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as, when the LORD had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? Wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me ⁿ this day.

20 And now, Behold, ^o I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David ^eswore unto Saul. And Saul went home: but David and his men ^fgat them up unto the hold.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuel dieth. 2 David in Paran sendeth to Nabal. 10 Provoked by Nabal's churlishness, he mindeth to destroy him. 14 Abigail understanding thereof, 18 taketh a present, 23 and by her wisdom, 32 pacifieth David. 36 Nabal hearing thereof, dieth. 39 David taketh Abigail and Ahinoam to be his wives. 44 Michal is given to Phalti.

AND Samuel ^adied: and all the Israelites ^bwere gathered together, and ^blamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of ^cParan.

2 And there was a man in ^dMaon whose ^epossessions were in Carmel; and the man was ^fvery great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish, and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did ^gshear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men; and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to ^hthine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast sheapers: now, thy shepherds which were with us, we ⁱhurt them not, neither was there ^kought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes; for we come in ^la good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words, in the name of David, and ceased.

10 And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, ^mWho is David? and who is the son of Jesse? There be many servants now a-days that break away every man ⁿfrom his master.

11 Shall I then take ^omy bread and my ^pwater, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and ^qgive it unto men whom I know not whence they be?

12 ^rSo David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, ^sGird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword, and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were ^tnot hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were ^ua wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is ^vsuch a son of ^wBelial, that a man ^xcannot speak to him.

18 Then Abigail ^ymade haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred ^zclusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me: behold, I come after you. But she ^{aa}told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 (Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that ^{ab}this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that ^{ac}pertained unto him: and he hath ^{ad}requited me evil for good.)

22 ^{ae}So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that ^{af}pertain to him, by the morning light, any that ^{ag}pisseth against the wall.)

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And ^{ah}fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, ^{ai}upon me let this iniquity be; and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; ^{aj}|| Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the ^{ak}LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming ^{al}† to shed blood, and from ^{am}†avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as ^{an}Nabal.

27 And now this ^{ao}† blessing, which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that ^{ap}† follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord ^{aq}as a sure house; because my lord fighteth the ^{ar}battles of the LORD, and ^{as}evil hath not been found in thee ^{at}all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul : but the soul of my lord shall be ^o bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God ; and the souls of thine enemies, they shall he ^a sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel, 31 That this shall be [†] no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself : but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 And David ^r said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me :

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened, and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house : see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal : and, behold, he held ^a a feast in his house, like the feast of a king ; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very ^t drunken : wherefore she told him ^u nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told ^x him these things, that his heart ^y died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, that hath ^z pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil : for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal ^a upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, ^b to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant ^c to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hastened, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went [†] after her ; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of ^d Jezreel ; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to ^e Phalti the son of Laish, which was of ^f Gallim.

CH A P. XXVI.

1 Saul, by the discovery of the Ziphites, cometh to Hachilah against David. 5 David coming into the trench, stayeth Abishai from killing Saul, but taketh his spear and cruse. 13 David reproveth Abner, 18 and exhorteth Saul. 21 Saul acknowledgeth his sin.

AND the ^a Ziphites ^b came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon ?

2 Then ^c Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, ^d to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah which is before Jeshimon, by the way : but David abode in the wilderness ; and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out ^e spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched : and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and ^f Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host : and Saul lay in the ^g trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then ^h answered David, and said to Ahimelech the ⁱ Hittite, and to Abishai the son of ^j Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, ^k Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp ? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people ^l by night : and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster ; but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath [†] delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day : ^m now, therefore, let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not ⁿ smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not : for who can stretch forth his hand against the ^o LORD's anointed, and be guiltless ?

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, ^p the LORD shall smite him ; or ^q his day shall come to die ; or he shall descend into ^r battle and perish.

11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed : but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that ^s is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster ; and they gat them away, and no man saw ^t it, nor knew ^u it, neither awaked ; for they were all asleep ; because ^v a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off ; (a great space being between them ;)

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner

7 Then said Saul unto his servants, ^a Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit ^a at Endor.

8 And Saul ^b disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him ^a up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul ^a swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman ^a saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw ^a gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a ^a mantle. And Saul ^a perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou ^a disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am ^a sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, ^a seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17 And the LORD hath done ^b to him, as he spake ^c by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, ^a nor ^b executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover, the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines; and ^a to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul ^a fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no ^a bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have ^a put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me:

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on the way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him, and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hastened, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they arose up, and went away that ^a night.

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to ^a Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rearward ^b with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me ^c these days, or these years, and I have found ^a no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make ^a this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be ^a an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, ^a Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as ^a the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy ^b going out and thy coming in with me in the house is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless, the lords favour thee not.

1 Saul, having lost his army, and his sons slain, he and his armour-bearer kill themselves. 7 The Philistines possess the forsaken towns of the Israelites. 3 They triumph over the dead carcasses. 11 They of Jabesh-gilead, recovering the bodies by night, burn them at Jabesh, and mournfully bury their bones.

NOW the ^a Philistines fought against Israel : and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down [†] slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul, and upon his sons ; and the Philistines slew ^b Jonathan, and ^c Abinadab, and Melchishua, Saul's sons.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers ^d hit him ; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

1 The Amalekite, who brought tidings of the overthrow, and accused himself of Saul's death, is slain. 17 David lamenteth Saul and Jonathan with a song.

NOW it came to pass, after the death of Saul, when David was returned from ^a the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode ^b two days in Ziklag ;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his ^c clothes rent, and ^d earth upon his head : and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou ? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, How went the matter ? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, 4 Then said Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and ^e thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not ; for he was sore afraid : therefore Saul took a sword, and ^f fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and ^g his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and ^h all his men, that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled ; and the Philistines came ⁱ and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they ^k cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of ^l Ashtaroth ; and they fastened his body to the ^m wall of ⁿ Beth-shan.

11 And when the inhabitants of ^o Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and ^p burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and ^q buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead ; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, ^r How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead ?

6 And the young man that told him said, [†] As I happened by chance upon mount ^s Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear ; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen [†] followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me : and I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou ? And I answered him, I am ^t an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me ; for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

cause I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they ^k mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand ^a to destroy ^a the LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he ^a smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, ^p Thy blood be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17 And David lamented with ^a this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the ^r children of Judah the use of ^a the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher:)

19 The ^c beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not ^a in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the ^a daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor [†] fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been ^y anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were ^a lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, ^a weep over Saul, who ^b clothed you in scarlet, with other ^c delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the ^d mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was ^a wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the ^f weapons of war perished!

for their kindness to Saul. 8 Abner maketh Ishbosheth king of Israel. 12 A mortal skirmish between twelve of Abner's and twelve of Joab's men. 18 Asahel is slain. 25 At Abner's motion Joab soundeth a retreat. 32 Asahel's burial.

AND it came to pass after this, that David ^a inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, ^b Unto Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his ^c two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail, Nabal's wife, the Carmelite.

3 And ^d his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the ^e house of Judah. And they ^f told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, ^g Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now the LORD shew ^h kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye ⁱ valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed ^j me king over them.

8 ^k But ^k Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took ^l Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim:

9 And he made him ^l king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over ^m Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned ⁿ two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the [†] time that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12 [¶] And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to ^o Gibeon.

13 And ^p Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the ^q pool, and the other ^q on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and ^r play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose, and went over by number, twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day: and Abner was ^abeaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and ^tAsahel was ^{as} light of foot as a wild roe;

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left ^x from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his [†]armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit, he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner, with the hinder end of the spear, smote him under the ^y fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then ere thou bid the people return [†] from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, ^z unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they ^a any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all ^{||} Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that ^b three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they ^c took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came ^d to Hebron at break of day.

NOW there was ^a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David ^b waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul ^c waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto David were ^d sons born in Hebron: and his ^e first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

4 And the fourth, ^h Adonijah, the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made ⁱ himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was ^k Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth ^l came to Abner, Wherefore hast thou ^l gone into my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner ^m very wroth, for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I ⁿ a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou charest me to-day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 ^o So do God to Abner, and more also, except ^p as the Lord hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel, and over Judah, ^q from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, ^r Whose is the land? saying ^r Also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not ^s see my face, except thou ^s first bring ^t Michal, Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for an hundred ^u foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from ^x Phaltiel the son of Laish.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for ² the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, ^a By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of ^b Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner ^c came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner, and the men that were with him, a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather ^d all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: (but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.)

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace:

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is [†] quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came [†] to deceive thee, and to know thy [†] going out, and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, ² he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him [†] aside in the gate to speak with him [†] quietly, and smote him there under the [†] fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward, when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are [†] guiltless before the LORD for ever from the [†] blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 [†] Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath ^{an} issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on ^{||} a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had [†] slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 And David said ^o to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn ^p before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lift up his voice, and ^a wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man felleth before [†] wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David [†] to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till ^a the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people, and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be [†] too hard for me: the LORD shall ^a reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains ^b of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for ^c Beeroth also was reckoned to ^c Benjamin:

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was [†] lame of his feet, and was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of [†] Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon, the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, [†] went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon:

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have [†] fetched wheat; and they smote him under the [†] fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber; and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and [†] took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy † life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath ^k redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When ^l one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings :

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed ? shall I not therefore now ^m require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth ?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they ⁿ slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, ^o and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the ^p sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

1 The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel. 4 David's age : 6 He, taking Zion from the Jebusites, dwelleth in it. 11 Hiram sendeth to David. 13 Eleven sons are born to him in Jerusalem. 17 David, directed by God, smiteth the Philistines at Baal-perazim, 22 and again at the mulberry-trees.

THEN came ^a all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are ^b thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that ^c leddest out and broughtest in Israel : and ^d the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt ^e feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the ^f elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron ; and king David made a league with them in ^g Hebron before the LORD : and they ^h anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was ⁱ thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah ^k seven years and six months ; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to ^l Jerusalem unto the ^m Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land ; which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away ⁿ the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither : thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion : the same is the ^o city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever ^p getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be a chief and captain : wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it The city of David : and David built round about, from ^r Millo and inward.

10 And David went on, and grew great ; and the LORD God of hosts ^s was ^t with him.

11 And ^u Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and carpenters, and masons ; and they built David an house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom ^v for his people Israel's sake.

13 And David took ^w him ^x more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron : and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.

14 And these ^y be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem ; Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

15 Ibhhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

16 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

17 ¶ But when the Philistines ^z heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up ^a to seek David ; and David heard of it, and ^b went down to the hold.

18 The Philistines also came, and spread themselves in the valley of ^c Rephaim.

19 And David ^d inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines ? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand ? And the LORD said unto David, Go up ; for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20 And David came to ^e Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, ^f as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men ^g burnt them.

22 ¶ And the Philistines came up yet ^h again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up ; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of ⁱ a going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself : for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to ^j smite the host of the Philistines.

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him ; and smote the Philistines from ^k Geba until thou come to ^l Gazer.

A GAIN, David ^a gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, ^b thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from ^c Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, ^d whose name is called by the name of The Lord of hosts, that ^e dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they set the ark of God upon ^f a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in ^g Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the ^h house of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel, ⁱ played ^k before the Lord on all manner of instruments made of timbre, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on firebells, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 And when they came to ^l Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.

7 And the anger of the Lord was kindled ^m against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his ⁿ error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was ^o displeased, because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was ^p afraid of the Lord that day, and said, ^q How shall the ark of the Lord come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the Lord unto him into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of ^r Obed-edom the ^s Gittite.

11 And the ark of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the Lord ^t blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 And it was told king David, saying, ^u The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that ^v pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that ^w bare the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, ^x he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the Lord with all his might: and David was girded with a linen ^y ephod.

15 So David and ^z all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with ^a shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, ^b Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she ^c despised him in her heart.

17 And they brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had ^d pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the Lord.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, he ^e blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, ^f even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of ^g flesh, and a flagon of ^h wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned ⁱ to bless his household. And Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David, and said, ^j How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the ^k vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, ^l It was ^m before the Lord, which chose me before thy father, and ⁿ before all his house, to ^o appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Israel: therefore will I play before the Lord.

22 And I will yet be ^p more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maid-servants, which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no child ^q unto the day of her death.

1 Nathan, first approving the purpose of David to build God an house, 4 after, by the word of God, forbiddeth him. 12 He promiseth him benefits and blessings in his seed. 18 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

A ND it came to pass, when the king ^a sat in his house, and the Lord had ^b given him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an ^c house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within ^d curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, ^e Go, ^f do all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 And it came to pass that night, that the word of the Lord came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the Lord, ^g Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in ^h any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt even to this day, but have ⁱ walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel, spake I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded ^j to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, ^k I took thee from the sheep-cote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

9 And I was ^l with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee ^m a great name, like unto the name of the ⁿ great men that are in the earth.

10 (Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as before-time, 11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies,) Also the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD; and he said, Who am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O Lord God?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, LORD God, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And what nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel, to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become a father to thy God.

25 And now, O Lord God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. 28 And now, O LORD God, thou art that God, and thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O LORD God, hast spoken it; and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

CHAP. VIII.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

3 He smiteth Hadadezer and the Syrians. 9 Toi sendeth Joram with presents to bless him. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God.

14 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 16 David's officers.

AND after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took Methegammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive: and so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: (for Hadadezer had wars with Toi:) and Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass;

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

14 And he put garrisons in Edom; through-

David executed judgment and justice unto all

1 David by Ziba sendeth for Mephibosheth. 7 For Jonathan's sake he entertaineth him at his table, and restoreth him all that was Saul's: 9 He maketh Ziba his farmer.

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness ^a for Jonathan's sake?

2 And ^a there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba: and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the ^b kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is ^c lame on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he?
And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in ^d Lo-debar.

5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when || Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth! And he answered, Behold thy servant.

7 And David said unto him, ^e Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy ^f father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat ^g bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy ⁱ master's son all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth, thy master's son, shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, ^a so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was ^a Micah. And ^a all that dwell in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villanously entreated. 6 The Am-monites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 15 Shobach, making a new supply of the Syrians at Helam, is slain by David.

AND it came to pass after this, that the ^a king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will ^a shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him, by the hand of his servants, for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? ^a hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their ^a beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their ^c buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at ^a Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they ^a stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and ^b hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and ^b the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of ^b Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of ^a the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the ^a gate:
and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them ^a in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt ^a help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

C H A P. XI.

1 While Joab besiegeth Rabbah, David committeth adultery with Bath-sheba. 6 Uriah sent for by David to cover the adultery, would not go home neither sober nor drunken. 14 He carrieth to Joab the letter of his death. 18 Joab sendeth the news thereof to David. 26 David taketh Bath-sheba to wife.

AND it came to pass, [†] after the year was expired, ^a at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David ^b tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his ^c bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the ^d roof he ^e saw a woman ^f washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David ^g sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the ^h Hittite?

4 And David ⁱ sent messengers, and took her: and she came in unto him, and he ^k lay with her, (for she was purified from her uncleanness), and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and [†] told David, and said, I am with child.

6 And David sent to Joab, saying, ^m Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him ⁿ a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, The ^o ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and ^p my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields: shall I then go into mine house, to eat, and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David ^q wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, [†] Set ye Uriah in the fore-front of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he, may be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he ^r assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote ^s Abimelech the son of ^t Jerubesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a mill-stone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants, and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing [†] displease thee; for the sword devoureth [†] one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and ^u overthrow it; and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and [†] fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

C H A P. XII.

1 Nathan's parable of the ewe lamb, causeth David to be his own judge. 7 David, reproved by Nathan, confesseth his sin, and is pardoned. 15 David mourneth and prayeth for the child, while it lived. 24 Solomon is born, and named Jedidiah. 26 David taketh Rabbah, and tortureth the people thereof.

AND THE LORD sent ^a Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, ^b There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding ^c many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own [†] meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his ^d bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a ^e traveller unto the rich man; and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing [†] shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb [†] fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 And Nathan said to David, ^e Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^b I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul:

8 And I gave thee thy [†] master's house, and thy master's wives into thy ^k bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would, moreover, have given unto thee such [†] and such things.

9 Wherefore [†] hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore, the ^a sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^e I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have ^p sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath [†] put ^a away thy sin; thou shalt [†] not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD ^a to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore ^b besought God for the child; and David [†] fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice; how will he then vex himself if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and ^a anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the ^e house of the LORD, and ^y worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 And David [†] comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she ^a bare a son, and he ^b called his name ^{||} Solomon; and the LORD ^c loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

26 ¶ And Joab ^d fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the ^e city of waters.

1 Amnon loving Tamar, by Jonadab's counsel feigning himself sick, ravisheth her: 15 He hateth her, and shamefully turneth her away. 19 Absalom entertaineth her, and concealith his purpose. 23 At a sheep-shearing, among all the king's sons, he killeth Amnon. 30 David grieving at the news, is comforted by Jonadab. 37 Absalom fleeth to Talmai at Geshur.

AND it came to pass after this, that ^a Absalom, the son of David, had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David ^b loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell ^a sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had ^a a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother: and Jonadab was a ^a very subtle man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down upon thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar lay down to her brother Amnon's house; and he was ^b laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, ^a he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for ¹ no such thing ought to be done in ^a Israel: do not thou this ^a folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the ^a fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for ^b he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit, he would not ^a hearken unto her voice; but, being stronger than she, ^a forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her [†] exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was ^a greater than the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment ^a of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and ^a laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath [†] Amnon thy brother been with thee? but ^a hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 But when king David heard of all these things, ^a he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither ^a good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass, ^a after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in ^b Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath ^a sheep-shearers; ^a let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let ^a my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not; have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be ye valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule and fled.

30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lift up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lift up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.

37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Joab, suborning a widow of Tekoah by a parable to incline the king's heart to fetch home Absalom, bringeth him to Jerusalem. 25 Absalom's beauty, hair, and children. 28 After two years, Absalom by Joab is brought into the king's presence.

Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. 2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead;

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king, to discern good and bad; therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and † thanked the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose, and went to ^d Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not ^e see my face. So Absalom returned ^e to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 But in all Israel ^f there † was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: ^g from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it; because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it,) he weighed the hair of his head ^h at two hundred shekels, ⁱ after the king's † weight.

27 And unto Absalom there were born ^j three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and ^k saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and ^l set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then, Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and ^m if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king ⁿ kissed Absalom.

C H A P. XV.

1 Absalom, by fair speeches and courtesies, stealeth the hearts of Israel. 7 Under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron. 10 He maketh there a great conspiracy. 13 David upon the news fleeth from Jerusalem. 19 Ittai would not leave him. 24 Zadok and Abiathar are sent back with the ark. 30 David and his company go up mount Olivet weeping. 31 He curseth Ahithophel's counsel. 32 Hushai is sent back with instructions.

AND it came to pass after this, that Absalom ^a prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom ^b rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are ^c good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were ^d made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and ^e I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. So Absalom ^f stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass ^g after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and ^h pay my vow which I have vowed unto the Lord in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at ⁱ Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will ^k serve the Lord.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom ^l sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom ^m reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were ⁿ called; and they went in their ^o simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, ^p David's counsellor, from his city, even from ^q Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the ^r conspiracy was strong; for the people ^s increased continually with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, ^t The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us ^u flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the ^v king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household household after him : and the king left ⁷ ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him ; and all the ² Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to Ittai the ³ Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us ? return to thy place, and abide with the king ; for ⁴ thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us ? Seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren : ⁵ mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely ⁶ in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go, and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over : the king also himself passed over the brook ⁷ Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the ⁸ wilderness.

24 And, lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, ⁹ bearing the ark of the covenant of God : and they set down the ark of God ; and Abiathar went up, ¹⁰ until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, ¹¹ Carry back the ark of God into the city : if I shall find favour in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and shew me both it and his ¹² habitation.

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee ; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good ¹³ unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou ¹⁴ a seer ? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar ¹⁵ carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem ; and they tarried there.

30 And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head ¹⁶ covered ; and he went ¹⁷ barefoot : and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, ¹⁸ turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 And it came to pass, that when David was come to the ¹⁹ top of the mount, where he ²⁰ worshipped God, behold, Hushai the ²¹ Archite came to meet him, with his coat rent, and earth upon his head :

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me :

34 But if thou ²² return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king ; as I have been thy father's servant ²³ hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant : then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

35 And hast ²⁴ thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests ? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Behold, they have ²⁵ there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son ; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

37 So Hushai, David's ²⁶ friend, came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these ? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ⁴ ride on ; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat ; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son ? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem : for ⁵ he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this ¹ dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, ^a Curse David. ^b Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my [†] life: how much more now may this Benjaminite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse: for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine [†] affliction, and that the LORD will ^a requite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and [†] cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy [†] friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, ^a Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, ^a Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath [†] left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the ^a top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the ^a sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the [†] oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Ahithophel's counsel is overthrown by Hushai's, according to God's appointment. 15 Secret intelligence is sent unto David. 23 Ahithophel hangeeth himself. 25 Amasa is made captain. 27 David at Mahanaim is furnished with provisions.

MOREOVER, Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David ^a this night:

2 And I will come upon him while he is ^b weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only.

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be ^c in peace.

4 And the saying ^d pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not, speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is ^e not good ^f at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be [†] chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some ^g pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some [†] of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is [†] valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly ^h melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel, that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, ⁱ from Dan even to Beer-sheba, ^k as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that [†] thou go to [†] battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ^m ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small ⁿ stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had [†] appointed to defeat the ^a good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the the wilderness, but speedily † pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz ^p stayed by En-rogel, (for they might not be seen to come into the city): and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court, whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David ^a arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose; and gat him home to his house, ^u to his city, and ^x put his household in order, and ^y hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to ^z Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and ^a all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son whose name was Ithra, ^b an Israelite, that came in to ^d Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that ^a Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and ^f Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and ^g Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, ^b for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 David, viewing the armies in their march, giveth them charge of Absalom. 6 The Israelites are sore smitten in the wood of Ephraim. 9 Absalom, hanging in an oak, is slain by Joab, and cast into a pit. 13 Absalom's place. 19 Ahimaaz and Cush bring tidings to David. 33 David mourneth for Absalom.

AND David ^a numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of ^c Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will ^d not care for us; neither if half of us die will they care for us: but now thou art ^e worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou ^e succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the ^f gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ^g Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the ^h wood of Ephraim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David; and there was there ⁱ a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood [†] devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his ^k head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou savest him; and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ^l ten shekels of silver and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own [†] life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have ^m set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the ⁿ heart of Absalom, while he was ^o yet alive in the [†] midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about, and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his life-time had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's Place.

19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run and bear the king tidings, how that the Lord hath avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, yet again to Joab, But, howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But, howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Methinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lift up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the Lord hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom! my son, my son Absalom! I would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAP. XIX.

1 Joab causeth the king to cease his mourning. 9 The Israelites are earnest to bring the king back.

11 David sendeth to the priests to incite them of Judah. 18 Shimei is pardoned. 24 Mephibosheth excused. 32 Barzillai dismissed, Chimham his son is taken into the king's family. 41 The Israelites expostulate with Judah for bringing home the king without them.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons, and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore, arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the Lord, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king; for Israel had fled, every man to his tent.

9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

is dead in battle. Now, therefore, why [†] speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 And king David sent to ¹ Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye ¹ the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye ¹ are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to ^m Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the ⁿ room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of ^o one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to ^p Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 And ^q Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of ^r Bahurim, ^s hasted, and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and ^t Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his ^u fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the king's household, and to do [†] what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did ^x perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come ^y the first this day of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be ^z put to death for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be [†] adversaries unto me? Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt ^a not die. And the king swore unto him.

24 And Mephibosheth the son ^b of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither ^c dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor ^d washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thence, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath ^e slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do, therefore, what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What [†] right, therefore, have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? ^f I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 And ^g Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, [†] How ^h long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day ⁱ fourscore years old; and can I [†] discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king; and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother: but, behold, thy servant ^j Chimham, let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king ^k kissed Barzillai, and ^l blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen thee away, and have ^m brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

C H A P. XX.

1 By occasion of the quarrel, Sheba maketh a party in Israel. 3 David's ten concubines are shut up in perpetual prison. 4 Amasa, made captain over Judah, is slain by Joab. 14 Joab pursueth Sheba unto Abel. 16 A wise woman saveth the city by Sheba's head. 23 David's officers.

AND there happened to be there a man of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but he went not in unto them: so they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah in three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him, Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites; and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom: and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 Now Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites;

24 And Adoram was over the tribute; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

25 And Sheva was scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

26 And Ira also, the Jairite, was a chief ruler about David.

of Saul and Jonathan in his father's sepulchre.15 Four battles against the Philistines, wherein four valiants of David slay four giants.

1 WHEN there was ^aa famine in the days of David ^bthree years, year after year; and David ^cinquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his ^dbloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the ^eremnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them; and Saul sought to slay them ^fin his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah;)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites,
What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ^gye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have ^hno silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What you shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ⁱdevised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let ^kseven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up ^lunto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of ^mthe LORD's oath that ⁿwas between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of ^oRizpah
the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the ^pMeholathite;

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the ^qhill before the LORD: and they fell ^rall seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of ^sbarley-harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest ^tuntil water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of ^uJabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in ^vZelah, in the sepulchre of ^wKish his father; and they performed all that the king commanded: and after that, God was ^xentreated for the land.

15 ¶ Moreover, the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the ^ygiant, (the ^zweight of whose spear weighed ^{aa}three hundred shekels of brass in weight,) he, being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David:

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah ^{ab}succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him.
Then the men of David sware unto him, saying,
Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the ^{ac}light of Israel.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at ^{ad}Gob:
then ^{ae}Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where ^{af}El-hanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in ^{ag}Gath, where was a man of ^{ah}great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he ^{ai}defied Israel, ^{aj}Jonathan, the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and ^{ak}fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

C H A P. XXII.

ance and manifold blessings.

AND David spake unto the LORD the words of this ^{al}song, in the day that ^{am}the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of ^{an}Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is my rock, and

3 The God of my rock; in him will I ^{ap}trust:
he is my ^{aq}shield, and the horn of my salvation, thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the ^{as}waves of death compassed me,
the floods of ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The ^{at}sorrows of hell compassed me about;
the ^{au}snarers of death prevented me.

7 In my distress ^{av}I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God; and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry ^{aw}did enter into yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ^a ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it || not to grow.

6 But the sons of ¹ Belial shall be all of them as ^k thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

7 But the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron, and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ These be the names of ¹ the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite; he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was ^m Eleazar, the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they ^a defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the Lord wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was ^o Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite: and the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles; and the people fled from the Philistines:

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the Lord wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest-time unto the cave of ^p Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in ^q an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but ^r poured it out unto the Lord;

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O Lord, that I should ^s do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And ^t Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three: and he lift up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three.

19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of ^u Kabzeel, [†] who had done many acts; he slew two lion-like men of Moab:

he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a [†] goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him ^z with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three: and David set him [†] over his guard.

24 ¶ Asahel the || brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikesh the ^z Tekoite,

27 Abiezer the ^a Anethothite, Mebunnai the ^b Hushathite,

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29 Heleb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite; Ittai the son of Ribai, out of ^c Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,

30 Benaiah the ^d Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of ^e Gaash,

31 Abi-albon the ^f Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite; of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite; Eliam the son ^g of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai the ^h Beer-othite, armour-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah,

38 ⁱ Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite,

39 ^j Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The captains in nine months and twenty days, bring the muster of thirteen hundred thousand fighting men. 10 David having three plagues propounded by Gad, repenteth, and chooseth the three days' pestilence. 15 After the death of threescore and ten thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David by Gad's direction purchaseth Araunah's threshing-floor; where, having sacrificed, the plague stayeth.

AND ^a again the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and || he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, ^b Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host: and Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in ^e Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward ^f Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to ^g Dan-jaan, and about to ^h Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judab, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And David's heart ⁱ smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have ^j sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, ^k take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet ^l Gad, David's seer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, ^m Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the ⁿ hand of the LORD,

(for his mercies are ^o great,) and let me not fall into the hand ^p of man.

15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, ^q seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is ^r enough; stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of ^s Araunah the ^t Jebusite.

17 And David spake unto the LORD, when he ^u saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, ^x Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up, ^y as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD; that ^z the plague may be stayed from the people.

22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what ^{aa} seemeth good unto him: behold, ^{ab} here be oxen for burnt-sacrifice, and threshing-instruments and other instruments of the ^{ac} oxen for wood.

23 All these things did Araunah, ^{ad} as a king, give unto the king: and Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God ^{ae} accept thee.

24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for ^{af} fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. So the LORD was ^{ag} entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

2 Wherefore his ^b servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin; and let her ^c stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy ^d bosom, that my lord the king may get ^e heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king ^f knew her not.

5 ¶ Then ^g Adonijah the son of Haggith ⁱ exalted himself, saying, ^k I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he ^l also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he ^m conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with ⁿ Abiathar the priest: and they, following Adonijah, helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the ^o mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah ^p slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan ^q spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, † let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest † save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall ^r sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and † confirm thy words.

15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldst thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou ^s swearst by the LORD ^t thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly ^u Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne:

18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldst tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall † sleep with ^v his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted † offenders.

22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest: and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, † God save king Adonijah.

26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou ^w hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, † As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul ^x out of all distress, 30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live ^y for ever.

32 And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon ^z mine own mule, and bring him down to ^a Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet ^b anoint him there king over Israel: and † blow ye with the trumpet, and say, † God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have ^c appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over ^d Judah.

C H A P. II.

¹ 1 David, having given a charge to Solomon, 3 of religiousness, 5 of Joab, 7 of Barzillai, 8 of Shimei, 10 dieth. 12 Solomon succeedeth. 13 Adonijah, moving Bath-sheba to sue unto Solomon for Abiathar, is put to death. 26 Abiathar, having his life given him, is deprived of the priesthood. 28 Joab, fleeing to the horns of the altar, is there slain. 35 Benaiah is put in Joab's room, and Zadok in Abiathar's. 36 Shimei, confined to Jerusalem, by occasion of going thence to Gath, is put to death.

NOW the days of David drew nigh that he should ¹ die: and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

² I go ³ the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

⁴ 3 And ⁵ keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is ⁶ written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself;

⁷ 4 That the LORD may ⁸ continue his word, which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children ⁹ take heed to their way, to walk ¹⁰ before me in truth with all their heart and ¹¹ with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a ¹² man on the throne of Israel.

¹³ 5 Moreover, thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah ¹⁴ did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and ¹⁵ shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

¹⁶ 6 Do therefore according to ¹⁷ my wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the ¹⁸ grave in peace.

¹⁹ 7 But shew kindness unto the ²⁰ sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that ²¹ eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

²² 8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a ²³ grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

²⁴ 9 Now therefore ²⁵ hold him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

²⁶ 10 So David ²⁷ slept with his fathers, and was buried in the ²⁸ city of David.

²⁹ 11 And the days that David ³⁰ reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou † peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom * was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; for it was his † from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, † deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, * Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and * bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat ^b on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let * Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him ^d the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for * Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and † set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me ^e an house, as he ^b promised, Adonijah shall be ⁱ put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he ^k fell upon him that he died.

26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to ⁱ Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art ^m worthy of death: but I will not ^a at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast ^b been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might ^p fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in ^a Shiloh.

28 Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had ⁿ turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom;) and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the ^e horns of the altar.

Before CHRIST
cir. 1014.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus saith Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, And ^d fall upon him, and ^e bury him; that thou ^m mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood ^p upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their † blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be ^e peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the ^a wilderness.

35 And the king ^b put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for * Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house ^d in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook ^e Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: ⁱ thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying ^e is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass, at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto ^b Achish son of ⁱ Maachah, king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and ^k went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to ^b swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the ^m oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said, moreover, to Shimei, * Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that ^athou didst to David my father: therefore the Lord shall ^preturn thy wickedness upon thine own head:

45 And king Solomon shall be ^ablessed, and the throne of David ^rshall be established before the Lord for ever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the ^skingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

C H A P. III.

1 Solomon marrieth Pharaoh's daughter. 2 High places being in use, Solomon sacrificeth at Gibeon. 5 Solomon at Gibeon, in the choice which God gave him, preferring wisdom, obtaineth wisdom, riches, and honour. 16 Solomon's judgment between the two harlots maketh him renowned.

AND Solomon made ^aaffinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and ^btook Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the ^ccity of David, until he had made an end of building his ^down house, and the house of the Lord, and the ^ewall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in ^fhigh places, because there was ^gno house built unto the name of the Lord until those days.

3 And Solomon ^hloved the Lord, ⁱwalking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that ^kwas the great high place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in ^la dream by ^mnight: and God said, ⁿAsk what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee ^oin truth, and ^pin righteousness, and in ^quprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept ^rfor him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as ^sit is this day.

7 And now, O Lord my God, ^tthou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and ^uI am but a little child: I know not how ^vto go out or come in.

8 And thy servant ^wis in the midst of thy people which thou hast ^xchosen, a great people, that ^ycannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 ^zGive therefore thy servant an understanding heart ^ato judge thy people, that I may ^bdiscern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked ^cfor thyself ^dlong life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 Behold, ^eI have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee ^fa wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none ^glike thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast ^hnot asked, both riches and honour; so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, ⁱas thy father David did walk, then I will ^jlengthen thy days.

15 And Solomon awoke; and, behold, ^kit was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before ^lthe ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made ^ma feast to all his servants.

16 ⁿThen came there two women, that were ^oharlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, ^pO my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass, the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose ^qat midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I arose in the morning to give my child ^rsuck, behold, it was dead; but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living ^sis my son, and the dead ^tis thy son. And this said, No; but the dead ^uis thy son, and the living ^vis my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This ^wis my son that liveth, and thy son ^xis the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son ^yis the dead, and my son ^zis the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child ^awas unto the king, (for her bowels ^byearned upon her son,) and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and ^cin no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she ^dis the ^emother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the ^fwisdom of God was ^gin him, to ^hdo judgment.

had; Azariah the son of || Zadok the priest;
3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha,
^c scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder.

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and || Abiathar were the priests;

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's ^d friend;

6 And Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the ^e tribute.

7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in ^f mount Ephraim.

9 The son of Dekar, in ^g Makaz, and in Shaal-bim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan.

10 The son of Hesed, in ^h Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of ⁱ Hepher.

11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of ^k Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

12 Baana, the son of Ahilud; to him pertained ^l Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by ^m Zartanah beneath ⁿ Jezreel, from ^o Beth-shean to ^p Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond ^q Jokneam.

13 The son of Geber, in ^r Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the ^s towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead: to him also pertained the ^t region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities, with walls and brasen bars.

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had ^u Mahanaim.
15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth.

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in Issachar.
18 Shimei the son of Elah in Benjamin.

19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of ^v Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 ¶ Judah and Israel were many, as the ^w sand which is by the sea in multitude, ^x eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned ^y over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought ^z presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's [†] provision for one day was || thirty measures of fine flour, and || three-score measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from ^c Tiphshah even to ^d Azzah, ^e over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel ^f dwelt safely, every man ^g under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and ^h dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 And ⁱ God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and [†] largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the ^k east country, and all the wisdom of ^l Egypt.

31 For he was ^m wiser than all men; than ⁿ Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and ^o Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And he spake three thousand ^p proverbs;
and his ^q songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedartree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of ^r all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

unto the ^b name of the Lord my God, ¹ as the Lord spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me ^k cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the ¹ Sidonians.

7 And it came to pass, ^m when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be [†] the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from ⁿ Lebanon unto the sea; and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire in giving food for my ^o household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar-trees and fir-trees, according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [†] measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom, as he ^p promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 And king Solomon raised ^q a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: ^r and Adoniram was over the levy.

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that ^s bare burdens, and fourscore thousand ^{||} hewers in the mountains:

16 Besides the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought ^t great stones, costly stones, and ^u hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the ^{||} stone-squarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

AND ^a it came to pass, in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month ^b Zif, which is the ^c second month, that he began to build the house of the Lord.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, the length thereof was ^d threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the ^e porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made ^f windows of narrow lights.

5 And against the wall of the house he built ^g chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the ^h oracle: and he made chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built ⁱ of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither ^j hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron, heard in the house while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the ^k third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with ^l beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the Lord ^m came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my ⁿ judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:

13 And I will ^p dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards ^q of cedar, [†] both the floor of the house and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls, with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the ^r most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with || knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

20 And the oracle in the fore part was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold; and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of † olive-tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm-trees and † open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive-tree: the lintel and side-posts were || a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive-tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm-trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims and upon the palm-trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of olive-tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of † fir-tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims and palm-trees and open flowers; and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar-beams.

37 ¶ In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the Lord laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month || Bul, (which is the eighth month,) was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

CHAP. VII.

1 The building of Solomon's house, 2 of the house of Lebanon, 6 of the porch of pillars, 7 of the porch of judgment, 8 of the house for Pharaoh's daughter. 13 Hiram's work of the two pillars, 23 of the molten sea, 27 of the ten bases, 33 of the ten lavers, 40 and all the vessels.

BUT Solomon was building his own house || thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them; and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne, where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, (according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws,) within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones; stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, (after the measures of hewed stones,) and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the Lord, and for the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent, and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was ^h filled with wisdom and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he [†] cast [†] two pillars of brass, of ^{||} eighteen cubits high a-piece; and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits:

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily-work in the porch, ^h four cubits.

20 And the chapters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the net-work: and the pomegranates were [†] two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapter.

21 And he set up the ^m pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof ^{||} Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof ^{||} Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 And he made ⁿ a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were ^{||} knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve ^o oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an ^p hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 And he made ten bases of brass: four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the [†] borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brassen wheels, and plates of brass; and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it, within the chapter and above, was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round, after the work of the base, a cubit and an half; and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axle-trees of the wheels were joined to the base, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot-wheel; their axle-trees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base, the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof, were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ^{||} [†] ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved ^{||} cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 Then made he ^q ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths; and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, over against the south.

40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the ^r basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lord;

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two net-works, to cover the two bowls of the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowls of the chapters that were [†] upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 And the ^s pots, and the shovels, and the basins: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of bright brass.

8 And they ^m drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the ⁿ holy 9 There was ^o nothing in the ark, save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the ^p cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11 So that the priests could ^q not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the ^r glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then spake Solomon, The LORD said ^s that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

13 I have surely built ^t thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and ^u blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood:)

15 And he said, ^v Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which ^w spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the ^c covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 And Solomon ^d stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread ^e forth his hands toward heaven:

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall ¹ not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me, as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed ^m dwell on the earth? Behold, the ^a heaven, and heaven of heavens, ^c cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded!

28 Yet have thou respect unto the ^p prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day:

29 That thine ^a eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, ^r My name shall be there; that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall ^a make towards this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of ^t thy people Israel, when they shall pray towards this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place; and when thou hearest, ^u forgive.

31 If any man ^s trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come ^v before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, ^a condemning the wicked, to bring ^a his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have ^b sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 When heaven is ^c shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when ^d thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou ^e teach them the ^f good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities, whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness, there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by ^g any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of ^h his own heart, and spread forth his hands towards this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou ⁱ only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they may ^k fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover, concerning ^l a stranger that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a ^m far country for ^a thy name's sake;

42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy ^o strong hand, and of thy stretched-out arm;) when he shall come and pray towards this house:

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that ^p all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

44 If thy people go out ^q to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that ^r sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 Yet if they shall ^s bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;

48 And so return unto thee ^t with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling-place, and ^u maintain their cause,

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and ^w give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of ^y the furnace of iron:

all the people of the earth, to be thine ^a inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 ¶ And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from ^b kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and ^c blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, ^d according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The LORD our God be ^e with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us;

58 That he may ^f incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, ^g be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at ^h all times, as the matter shall require;

60 That ⁱ all the people of the earth may know that ^j the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart, therefore, ^k be perfect with the LORD your God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice ^l before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, ^m two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did ⁿ the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings; because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt-offerings and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held ^o a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of ^p Hamath unto the ^q river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, ^r seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the ^s eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

AND it came to pass, when Solomon had ^a finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's ^b desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the ^c second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have ^d heard thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and ^e mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk ^f before me, as David thy father walked, ^g in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and will keep my statutes and my judgments;

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, ^h as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if you shall at all ⁱ turn from following me, you or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them;

7 Then will I ^j cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them: and ^k this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be ^l as a proverb and a by-word among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be ^m astonished, and shall ⁿ hiss; and they shall say, ^o Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And ^p they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: ^q therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ And it came to pass ^r at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the ^s king's house, 11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees, and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they ^t pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, ^u my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the ^v king sixscore talents of gold.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of † pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of ^a Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold and silver, ivory, and † apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Solomon ^b exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 And ^c all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate ^d year by year.

26 And Solomon ^e gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a ^f thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made ^g silver to be in Jerusalem as ^h stones, and cedars made he to be as the ⁱ sycamore-trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 And Solomon had ^k horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the ^l linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

C H A P. XI.

1 Solomon's wives and concubines: 4 In his old age they draw him to idolatry. 9 God threateneth him. 14 Solomon's adversaries were Hadad, who was entertained in Egypt; 23 Rezon, who reigned in Damascus; 26 and Jeroboam, to whom Ahijah prophesied. 41 Solomon's acts, reign, and death: 43 Rehoboam succeedeth him.

BUT king Solomon ^a loved ^b many strange women, (together with the daughter of Pharaoh,) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD ^c said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will ^d turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives ^e turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was ^f old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil ^f in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because ^g his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him ^h twice,

10 And had ⁱ commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it, ^k for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give ^l one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which I have chosen.

14 ¶ And the ^m LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom,

15 For it came to pass, when David was in ⁿ Edom, and Joab, the captain of the host, was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten ^o every male in Edom,

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom.)

17 That Hadad fled, he, and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little ^p child.

18 And they arose out of ^q Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him ^r victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found ^s great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the ^t queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes ^u weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household, among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab, the captain of the host, was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit ^v let me go in any wise.

27 And this was the cause that he lift up his hand against the king: Solomon built ^a Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the [†] charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the ^a prophet Ahijah the ^a Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment: and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and ^c rent it in twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces; for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and have not walked in ^a my ways, to do that which is ^b right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit [†] I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes;

35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto ⁱ his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a [†] light ^a always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be ^b with thee, and build thee ^m a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but [†] not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam: and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto ^a Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the ^a book of the acts of Solomon?

thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, ¹ My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now, whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people [†] roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and ^m I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the [†] cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by [†] Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the ⁿ son of Jesse: to your ^o tents, O Israel: Now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the ^p cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent ^a Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel ^r rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they ^s sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah ^t only.

21 ¶ And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were ^u warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto ^x Shemaiah the ^y man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the ^z remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam built ^a Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built ^b Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam ^c said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do ^d sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, ^e even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill ^e me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king ^f took counsel, and made ^g two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is ^h too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in ⁱ Beth-el, and the other put he in ^k Dan.

30 And this thing became a ^l sin: for the people went to worship before the one, ^e even unto Dan.

31 And he made ^m an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of ⁿ the people, which were ^o not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained ^p a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is ^q in Judah, and ^r he offered upon the altar, (so did he in Beth-el,) sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, ^e even in the month which he had ^s devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

1 Abijah's wicked reign. 8 Asa succeedeth him. 11 Asa's good reign. 16 The war between Baasha and him causeth him to make a league with Ben-hadad. 23 Jehoshaphat succeedeth Asa. 25 Nadab's wicked reign. 27 Baasha, conspiring against him, executeth Ahijah's prophecy. 31 Nadab's acts and death. 33 Baasha's wicked reign.

NOW, in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned ^a Abijam over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^b Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was ^c not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless, ^d for David's sake, did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 Because David did that which was ^e right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside ^f from any thing that he commanded him ^g all the days of his life, ^h save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was ⁱ war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam ^k slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was ^l right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the ^m Sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that ⁿ his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah ^o his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an ^p idol in a grove: and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook ^q Kidron.

14 But the ^r high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father had ^s dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel ^t all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel ^u went up against Judah, and built ^v Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of ^y Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at ^z Damascus, saying, 19 There is a ^a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; ^b come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad ^c hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and ^d Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in ^e Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; (none was exempted;) and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded: and king Asa built with ^f them Geba of Benjamin, and ^g Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his ^h might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless, in the time of his ⁱ old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa ^k slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and ^l Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did ^m evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ⁿ way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of ^o Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasha smote him at ^p Gibbethon, which belongeth to the Philistines; (for Nadab and all Israel ^q laid siege to Gibbethon;)

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote ^r all the house of Jeroboam; ^s he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the ^t sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made ^u Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the ^v book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began began Baasha the son of Abijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, ^v twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and ^z in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

C H A P. XVI.

1, 7 Jehu's prophecy against Baasha. 6 Elah succeeded him. 8 Zimri, conspiring against Elah, succeeded him. 11 Zimri executeth Jehu's prophecy. 15 Omri, made king by the soldiers, forceth Zimri desperately to burn himself. 21 The kingdom being divided, Omri prevailed against Tibni. 23 Omri buildeth Samaria: 25 His wicked reign. 28 Ahab succeeded him. 29 Ahab's most wicked reign. 34 Joshua's curse upon Hiel the builder of Jericho.

THEN the word of the LORD came to ^a Jehu the son of ^b Hanani, against Baasha, saying,

2 Forasmuch as I ^e exalted ^d thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel, and thou hast walked in ^e the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;

3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of ^f his house; and will make thy house like the house of ^g Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and ^h him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and ⁱ his might, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in ^k Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And ^l also by the hand of the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani, came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the [†] sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with ^m the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because ⁿ he killed him.

8 ¶ In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, ^o two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah, ^p drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and ^q reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he ^r sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one that ^s pisseth against a wall, neither of his ^t kinsfolks nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy ^u all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha [†] by Jehu the prophet:

13 For ^v all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their ^x vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 ¶ In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign ^y seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made ^z Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and ^a burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, 19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the ^b sight of the LORD, in walking in the ^c way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Israel divided [†] into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, ^d Samaria.

25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and ^e did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and ^f in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and ^g his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri ^h slept with his fathers, and was buried in ⁱ Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah, began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel, in Samaria, twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD ^k above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife ¹ Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the ^m Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the ^a house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made ^o a grove; and Ahab ^p did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build ^q Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Elijah, having prophesied against Ahab, is sent to Cherith, where the ravens feed him: 8 He is sent to the widow of Zarephath: 17 He raiseth the widow's son: 24 The woman believeth him.

AND ^a Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, ^a said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom ^b I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that ^t is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have ^c commanded the ^d ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went, and did according ^e unto the word of the Lord: for he went and ^f dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him ^g bread, and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening: and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass, after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And ^h the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to ⁱ Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have ^k commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not ^m a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may ⁿ eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go, and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son:

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, ^o The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither ^p shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the Lord sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went, and did ^q according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and ^r her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no ^s breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, ^t What have I to do with thee, O thou ^u man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a ^v loft where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And ^w he cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord ^x my God, hast thou also brought ^y evil upon the widow with whom ^z I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he ^a stretched himself upon the child ^a three times, and cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he ^b revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought ^c him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto ^d his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth!

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now ^e art thou art a man of God, and that ^f the word of the Lord in thy mouth is truth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 In the extremity of famine, Elijah, sent to Ahab, meeteth good Obadiah. 9 Obadiah bringeth Ahab to Elijah. 17 Elijah, reproving Ahab, 24 by fire from heaven, convinceth Baal's prophets. 41 Elijah, by prayer obtaining rain, followeth Ahab to Jezreel.

AND it came to pass, after ^a many days, that ^a the word of the Lord came to Elijah in the ^b third year, saying, Go shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will ^c send rain upon ^d the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in ^e Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the ^f governor of his house. (Now Obadiah ^g feared the Lord greatly:

4 For it was so, when Jezebel ^h cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and ⁱ fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land,

Before CHRIST cir. 906.
land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find ^k grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them, to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and ^m he knew him, and ⁿ fell on his face, and said, Art thou that ^o my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I ^{am}: go, tell thy lord, ^p Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, ^q What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 ^r As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall ^s carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I ^t thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the ^u LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to-day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he ^x that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, ^y I have not troubled Israel; but ^z thou and ^a thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount ^b Carmel, and the ^c prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the ^d groves four hundred, which ^e eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the ^f prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long ^g halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD ^h be God, follow him: but if ⁱ Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, ^k I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are ^l four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth ^m by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under:

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal, from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us! But there was ⁿ no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah ^o mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god: either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he ^p sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves, after their ^q manner, with knives and lancets, till ^r the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that ^s regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took ^t twelve stones, according to the ^u number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, ^x Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, ^y as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood ^z in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time: and they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the ^a third time: and they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the ^b trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, ^c LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, ^d let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that ^e I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 ^f Hear me, O LORD, hear me; that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that ^g thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then ^h the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces : and they said, ^h The Lord, he is the God ; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, ⁱ Take the prophets of Baal ; ^j let not one of them escape. And they took them : and ⁱ Elijah brought them down to the brook ^m Kishon, and ⁿ slew them there.

41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, ^o Get thee up, eat and drink ; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top ^p of Carmel ; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and ^q put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant, ^r Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again ^s seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was ^t a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went ^u to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah : and he ^v girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of ^y Jezreel.

1 Elijah, threatened by Jezebel, fleeth to Beer-sheba : 4 in the wilderness, being weary of his life, he is comforted by an angel : 9 At Horeb God appeareth unto him, sending him to anoint Hazeel, Jehu, and Elisha. 19 Elisha, taking leave of his friends, followeth Elijah.

AND Ahab told Jezebel ^a all that Elijah had done, and withal, how he had slain ^b all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel ^c sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, ^d So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by ^e to-morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went ^f for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree : and he requested for himself that he might die ; and said, It is enough ; now, O LORD, ^g take away my life ; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and ^h slept upon a juniper-tree, behold, then ⁱ an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise, and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and ^j laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat ; because the journey is ^k too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went ^l in the strength of that meat ^m forty days and forty nights, unto ⁿ Horeb the mount of God.

9 And he came thither unto ^o a cave, and lodged there ; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah ?

10 And he said, I have been very ^p jealous for the LORD God of hosts : for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and ^q slain thy prophets with the sword : and ^r I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life, to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks, before the LORD ; but the LORD was not in the wind : and after the wind an earthquake ; but the LORD was not in the earthquake :

12 And after the earthquake a fire ; but the LORD was not in the fire : and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he ^s wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah ?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts ; because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword : and I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the ^t wilderness of Damascus : and when thou comest, anoint ^u Hazeel to be king over Syria.

16 And ^v Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel : and ^w Elisha the son of Shaphat, of ^x Abel-meholah, shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of ^y Hazeel shall ^z Jehu slay ; and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall ^a Elisha slay.

18 Yet I have ^b left me seven thousand in Israel, ^c all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not ^d kissed him.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ^e ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth : and Elijah passed by him, and cast his ^f mantle upon him.

20 And he ^g left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again : for ^h what have I done to thee ?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and ⁱ gave unto the people, and they did eat : then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

1 Ben-hadad, not content with Ahab's homage, besiegeth Samaria. 13 By the direction of a prophet the Syrians are slain. 22 As the prophet forewarned Ahab, the Syrians, trusting in the valleys, come against him in Aphek. 23 By the word of the prophet, and God's judgment, the Syrians are smitten again. 31 The Syrians submitting themselves, Ahab sendeth Ben-hadad away with a covenant. 35 The prophet, under the parable of a prisoner, making Ahab to judge himself, denounceth God's judgment against him.

AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were ^b thirty and two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he ^c sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel unto the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 ^d Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, ^e I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee tomorrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is ^f pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders ^g of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and ^h I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Harken not unto him, ⁱ nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, ^j The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that ^k follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, ^l Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself, as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was ^m drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array: and they set themselves in array against the city.

13 And, behold, there ⁿ came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this ^o great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt ^p know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the ^q young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, ^r Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out ^s at noon: but Ben-hadad was drinking himself ^t drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, ^u take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew ^v every one his man: and the Syrians ^w fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And ^y the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and ^z said unto him, Go, ^a strengthen thyself, and mark and see what thou doest: for at the ^b return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the King of Syria said unto him, Their gods ^c are gods of the ^d hills, therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing: ^e Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass, at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up ^f to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians ^g filled the country.

28 And there came ^h a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, ⁱ Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other ⁱ seven days; and so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians ^k an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, [†] into an inner chamber.

31 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, ^m Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities which my father took from ⁿ thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the ^o sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man ^p refused to ^{||} smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed ^q the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, ^r a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and ^s disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and ^t he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy [†] life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, ^u So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand ^v a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore ^z thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and ^y displeased, and came to Samaria.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Ahab, being denied Naboth's vineyard, is grieved. 5 Jezebel, writing letters against Naboth, he is condemned of blasphemy. 15 Ahab taketh possession of the vineyard. 17 Elijah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel. 25 Wicked Ahab repenting, God deferreth the judgment.

AND it came to pass ^a after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in ^b Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy ^c vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, ^d The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house ^e heavy and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel ^f his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now ^g govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give ^h thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's ⁱ name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters [†] unto the ^k elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim ^l a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people;

10 And set ^m two men, sons ⁿ of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst [†] blaspheme God and the king: and then carry him ^o out, and ^p stone him, that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, [†] even the elders and the nobles, who were the inhabitants in his city, ^q did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them:

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, is stoned, and is dead.

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, ^a take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the ^t word of the LORD came to ^u Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying,
Thus saith the LORD, ^a Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall ^y dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O ^a mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee; because thou hast ^a sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I will ^b bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that ^c pisseth against the wall, and him that is ^d shut up and left in Israel,

22 And will make thine house like the house of ^e Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of ^f Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

23 And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.

24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the ^g dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 But there was ^h none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife ⁱ stirred up.

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the ^k Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put ^l sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went ^m softly.

28 And the word of the LORD came ⁿ to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? Because he humbleth ^o himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his ^p son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

C H A P. XXII.

1 *Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain at Ramoth-gilead. 37 him. 41 Jehoshaphat's good reign: 45 his acts.

AND they continued ^a three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it came to pass, in ^b the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that ^c Ramoth in Gilead is ^d ours, and we ^e lie still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt ^f thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, ^g I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^h Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the ⁱ prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for ^j the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehosha-phat, There is ^k yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom ^l we may inquire of the LORD:
but ^m I hate him; for he doth not prophesy ⁿ good concerning me; but ^o evil. And Jehosha-phat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on ^p their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets ^q prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the ^r son of Chenaanah made him ^s horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying,
Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and ^t prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with ^u one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what ^v the LORD saith unto me, ^x that will I speak.

s Then

15 So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, y Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, z I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, a as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD b sitting on his throne, and all c the host of heaven d standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, e and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth f a Spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Where-with? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be f a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, g Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: h go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, i the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the k cheek, and said, l Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt m see in that day, when thou shalt go n into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the o governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with v bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath q not spoken by me. And he said, r Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel, and s Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will t disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with u small nor great, v save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they s turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat y cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow z at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am t wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day; and the king was a stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went b a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his c city, and every man to his own country.

37 So the king d died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king e in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, (and they washed his armour,) according f unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the t ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab u slept with his fathers; and Ahab ziah his son reigned in his stead.

41 ¶ And h Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned i twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And k his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked l in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless m the high places were not taken n away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat n made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the o book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the p Sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.

47 There was then q no king in Edom: a deputy was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made r ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold; but they went not: for the ships were broken at s Ezion-geber.

Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned ^a two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and ^a walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:

53 For he served ^a Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

¶ The SECOND Book of the KINGS, commonly called, The FOURTH Book of the KINGS.

C H A P. I.

1 Moab rebelleth. 2 Ahaziah, sending to Baal-zebub, hath his judgment by Elijah. 5 Elijah twice bringeth fire from heaven upon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him: 13 He pitieth the third captain, and, encouraged by an angel, telleth the king of his death. 17 Jehoram succeedeth Ahaziah.

THEN ^a Moab ^b rebelled against Israel after ^c the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and ^d was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of ^e Ekron, whether I shall recover of this disease.

3 But the angel of the LORD said to ^f Elijah the Tishbite, ^g Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the God of Ekron?

4 Now, therefore, thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah ^h departed.

5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king ⁱ sent unto him ^j a captain ^k of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him; (and, behold, he sat on the top of an ^l hill: and he spake unto him, Thou man of ^m God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then ⁿ let fire come down from ^o heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there ^p came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 ¶ Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he ^q answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down ^r quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 And he sent ^s again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and ^t fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my ^u life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the LORD ^v said unto Elijah, Go ^w down with him; be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith ^x the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, (is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word?) therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 So he died, according to the word of the LORD, which Elijah had spoken: and ^y Jehoram reigned in his stead, in the ^z second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, ^a are they not written in the book of the ^b Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, ^p Ask what I shall ^q do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, ^r if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a ^s chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into ^t heaven.

12 And Elisha saw ^{it}, and he ^u cried, My father, my father! the ^v chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he ^w saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and k numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: I wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom, went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches:

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat-offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom; and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit, the slingers went about it, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: And they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

C H A P. IV.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widow's oil. 8 He giveth a son to the good Shunammite. 15 He raiseth again her dead son. 38 At Gilgal he healeth the deadly pottage. 42 He satisfieth an hundred men with twenty loaves.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me: what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her, and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the man of God: and he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that, as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said ^t unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is ^u an holy man of God which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, ^x on the wall; and let us set for him there ^y a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been ^z careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for ^a to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, ^b I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath ^c no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood ^d in the door.

16 And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do ^e not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman ^f conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, ^g My head, my head! And he said to a lad, Carry him to his ^h mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then ⁱ died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and ^k shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may ^l run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither ^m new moon nor sabbath. And she said, ⁿ It shall be well.

24 Then ^o she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount ^p Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her; and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the ^q feet: but Gehazi came near ^r to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul ^s is vexed within her: and the Lord hath ^t hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, ^u Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, ^v Gird up thy loins, and take ^w my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, ^x salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and ^y followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither ^z voice nor hearing: wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is ^a not awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and ^b shut the door upon them twain, ^c and prayed unto the Lord.

34 And he went up, and ^d lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and he stretched himself upon the child, and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and ^e walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child ^f sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, ^g Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and ^h fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 ¶ And Elisha came again to ⁱ Gilgal, and there was ^j a dearth in the land, and the sons of the prophets ^k were ^l sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred ^m them into the pot of pottage: for they ⁿ knew them not.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat: and it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is ^o death in the pot; and they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, Then bring meal. And he ^p cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was ^q no harm in the pot.

42 And there came a man from ^r Baal-shalisha, and ^s brought the man of God bread of the ^t first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

C H A P. VI.

6 Elisha, giving leave to the young prophets to enlarge their dwellings, causeth iron to swim: 8 He discovereth the king of Syria's counsel. 18 The army which was sent to Dothan, to apprehend Elisha, is smitten with blindness: 19 Being brought into Samaria, they are dismissed in peace. 24 The famine in Samaria causeth women to eat their own children. 30 The king sendeth to slay Elisha.

AND the sons of the prophets said unto A Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bed-chamber.

13 And he said, Go, and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city, both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered, Fear not; for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man: and he saw, and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people,

I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king!

27 And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press?

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son.

30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.

31 Then he said, God do so and more also to me if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him: and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head?

look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him, and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

1 Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty in Samaria. 3 Four lepers, venturing on the host of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 12 The king, finding by spies the news to be true, spoileth the tents of the Syrians. 17 The lord, who would not believe the prophecy of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is trodden to death in the press.

THEN Elisha ^a said, Hear ye the word of the LORD: Thus saith the LORD, ^b To-morrow, about this time, shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a ^c shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord, on whose hand the king ^d leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make ^e windows in heaven, might ^f this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt ^g see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 And there were four leprous men ^h at the entering in of the gate: and they ⁱ said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and ^k if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the ^l twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians ^m to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the ⁿ Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose, and ^o fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and ^p hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said ^q one to another, We do not well: this day is ^r a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some ^s mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the city: and they told him, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his ^t servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us: They know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And ^u one of his servants answered- and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed,) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore ^v two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan; and, lo, all the way was full of garments and ^w vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their ^x haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow, about this time, in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people ^y trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

Philistines: and she went forth ^w to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king ^{||} talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, ^h this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 ¶ And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick: and it was told him, saying, The ¹ man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto ^k Hazael, ¹ Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and ^m inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I [†] recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus; forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, ⁿ Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit, the Lord hath shewed me that he shall surely die.

11 And he settled his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God ^o wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know ^p the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: ^q their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what! is thy servant ^r a dog, that he should ^s do this great thing? And Elisha answered, ^t The Lord hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst surely recover.

15 And it came to pass ^u on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and ^x spread ^y it on his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ And in the ^y fifth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram, the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, began to reign.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the ^z way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for the

^a daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did ^b evil in the sight of the Lord.

19 Yet the Lord would not destroy Judah ^c for David his servant's sake, ^d as he promised to give him alway a light, and to his children.

20 In his days Edom ^e revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose ^f by night, and ^g smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 ^h Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then ⁱ Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the ^k book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram ^l slept ^m with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the ⁿ city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, did Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, begin to reign.

26 ^o Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah, the ^p daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the ^q house of Ahab, and did ^r evil in the sight of the Lord, as did the house of Ahab: ^s for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in ^t Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was ^u sick.

AND Elisha the prophet called one of the [†] children of the prophets, and said unto him, ^a Gird up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead:

3 Then take the box of oil, and pour ^c it on his head, and say, Thus saith the Lord, I have ^d anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and ^e flee, and tarry not.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting: and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt ^e smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may ^e avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, ^e at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab him that ^b pisseth against the wall, and him that is ⁱ shut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of ^j Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of ⁱ Baasha the son of Ahijah:

10 And the ^m dogs shall eat Jezebel in the ⁿ portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this ^e mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and ^p put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.

14 So Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.)

15 But king Joram was returned to be ^q healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then ^r let none go forth nor escape out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And ^s Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood ^t a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, ^u What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; ^v for he driveth [†] furiously.

21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, ^w What peace, so long as the ^x whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel, and her ^y witchcrafts, are so many?

23 And Joram ^z turned his hands, and ^a fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah!

24 And Jehu [†] drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this ^b burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen ^c yesterday the [†] blood of Naboth, and the blood of his ^d sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house: and Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite ^e him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to ^f Gur, which is by ^g Ibleam. And he fled to ^h Megiddo, and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the ⁱ city of David.

29 And in the ^k eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 [†] And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she ^l painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had ^m Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lift up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he ⁿ trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this ^o cursed woman, and ^p bury her: for she is ^q a king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the scull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

C H A P. X.

1 Jehu by his letters causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded: 8 He excuseth the fact by the prophecy of Elijah. 12 At the shearing-house he slayeth two and forty of Ahaziah's brethren: 15 He taketh Jehonadab into his company. 18 By subtilty he destroyeth all the worshippers of Baal. 29 Jehu followeth Jeroboam's sins. 32 Hazael oppresseth Israel. 34 Jehoahaz succeedeth Jehu.

AND Jehu had ^a seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying, 2 Now, ^b as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour,

3 Look even out the ^c best and meetest of your master's sons, and ^d set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, ^e two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers-up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are ^f thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the ^g heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. (Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the ^h great men of the city, which ⁱ brought them up.)

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and ^j slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the ^k gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be ^l righteous: behold, ^m I conspired against my master, and slew him: but ⁿ who slew all these?

10 Know now that there shall ^o fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD ^p spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake by his servant Elijah.

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his ^q priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing-house in the way, 13 Jehu met with the ^r brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, ^s Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men: neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on ^t Jehonadab the son of Rechab, coming to meet him: and he ^u saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, ^v It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see ^w my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had ^x destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them ^y Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him ^z much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the ^a prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in ^b subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel; and ^c all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the house of Baal; and ^d the house of Ahab was full ^e from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth ^f vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

28 Thus Jehu ^a destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 ¹ Howbeit, from the ^m sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the ^a golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

30 And ^a the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast ^a done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the ^a fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu [†] took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

32 ¶ In those days the LORD began ^a to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, (which is by the river Arnon,) even Gilead and Bashan.

34 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in ^a Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

AND when ^a Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was ^b dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed ^a royal.

2 But ^a Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bed-chamber ^d from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah ^a did reign over the land.

4 And the seventh year ^f Jehoiada sent and fetched the ^e rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and ^b made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do: ^a A third part of you

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of ¹ Sur; and a third part at the gate ^m behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be ^a slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out, and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king ^a David's spears and shields, that were in the temple.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the ^a altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the ^a testimony: and they ^r made him king, and anointed him; and they ^r clapped their hands, and said, God [†] save the king.

13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the ^a temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a ^a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, ^a Treason, treason!

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the ^r hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges; and him that ^a followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her: and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she ^a slain.

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the ^b king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; ^c between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the ^a house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the ^a bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: ^a and when the man was let down, ^b and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

reign

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and ^t thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home; for why shouldst thou ^u meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Amaziah ^x would not hear: therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth ^y to Judah.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel ^z took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the ^a gate of Ephraim unto the ^b corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the ^c vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his ^d might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash ^e slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the ^f rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made ^g a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to ^h Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him ⁱ on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers, in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built ^k Elath, and ^l restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 ¶ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not ^m from all the ⁿ sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He ^o restored the ^p coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant ^q Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of ^r Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD ^s saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any ^t shut up, nor any left, nor ^u any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD ^v said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered ^x Damascus, and ^y Hamath, which belonged ^z to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and ^{||} Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER. XV.

1 Azariah's good reign: 5 He dying a leper, Jotham succeedeth. 8 Zachariah, the last of Jehu's generation, reigning ill, is slain by Shallum. 13 Shallum, reigning a month, is slain by Menahem. 16 Menahem strengtheneth himself by Pul. 21 Pekahiah succeedeth him. 23 Pekahiah is slain by Pekah. 27 Pekah is oppressed by Tiglath-pileser, and slain by Hoshea. 32 Jotham's good reign. 36 Ahaz succeedeth him.

I N the ^a twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began ^b Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 ^c Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned ^d two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^e according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save that the ^f high places were not removed: ^g the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 And the LORD ^h smote the king, so that he was ⁱ a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ^j several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, ^k judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah ^l slept with his fathers; and they ^m buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 ¶ In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria ⁿ six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, ^o as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh ^p conspired against him, and smote him ^q before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This ^r was the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the ^s fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign reign in the nine and thirtieth year of ^t Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from ^a Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jashesh in Samaria, and slew him, and ^x reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem smote ^y Tiphshah; and all that were therein, and the coast thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the ^g women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah ^a began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was ^b evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And ^c Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul ^d a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him, to ^d confirm the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria: so the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem ^e slept with his fathers: and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned ^f two years.

24 And he did that which was ^g evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But ^h Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the ⁱ rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the two^o and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was ^k evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, came ^l Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took ^l Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and ^m Janoah, and ⁿ Kedesh, and ^o Hazor, and ^p Gilead, and ^q Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them ^r captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of ^s Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 ^t In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, began ^t Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was ^u right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 Howbeit, the ^v high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places. He built the ^v higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the ^w LORD ^a began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and ^b Pekah the son of Remaliah.

38 And ^{||} Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

19 Hezekiah succeedeth him.

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned ^b sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the ^c way of the kings of Israel; yea, and made ^d his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the ^e high places, and on the ^f hills, and ^g under every green tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but ^h could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from ⁱ Elath: and the ^j Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to ¹ Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am ^a thy servant, and thy son: come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And Ahaz took the ^a silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for ^a a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him; for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and ^a took it, and carried the people of it captive to ^a Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus ^a to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and ^a saw an altar that ^a was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the ^a altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And ^a Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest ^a made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and ^a offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering, and his ^a meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the ^a brasen altar, which ^a was ^b before the LORD, from the fore-front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the king's burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 ^a Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And king Ahaz cut off the ^a borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that ^a were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones:

18 And the ^a covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD ^a for the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

C H A P. XVII.

1 Hoshea's wicked reign. 3 Being subdued by Shalmaneser, he conspireth against him with So, king of Egypt. 5 Samaria, for their sins, is captivated. 24 The strange nations, which were transplanted into Samaria, being plagued with lions, make a mixture of religions.

I N the ^a twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, ^a began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which ^a was evil in the sight of the LORD, but ^b not as the kings of Israel that ^b were before him.

3 Against him came up ^a Shalmaneser king of ^a Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy ^a in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in ^a prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria came up ^a throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 In the ^a ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and ^a carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in ^b Halah, and in ^b Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the ^b Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had ^a brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared ^a other gods,

8 And walked in the ^a statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, ^a which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel ^a did secretly those things that ^a were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the ^a tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up ^a images and ^a groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt ^a incense in all the high places, as ^a did the heathen whom the LORD carried away ^a before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all ^a the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye ^a from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but ^a hardened their necks, like to the neck of ^a their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became ^a vain, and went ^a after after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests, whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adramelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim:

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget, neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

1 Hezekiah's good reign: 4 He destroyeth idolatry, and prospereth. 9 Samaria is carried captive for their sins. 13 Sennacherib, invading Judah, is pacified by a tribute. 17 Rab-shakeh, sent by Sennacherib again, revileth Hezekiah, and by blasphemous persuasions, soliciteth the people to revolt.

NOW it came to pass, in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it [†] Nehushtan.

5 He trusted ^h in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him ⁱ was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he ^k clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the Lord commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was ^l with him; and he ^{||} prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he ^m rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote ⁿ the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the ^o fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they ^p took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah (that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel) Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in ^q Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they ^r obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

13 ¶ Now, in the ^s fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and ^t took them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to ^u Lachish, saying, I have ^v offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all ^w the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the ^x gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 ¶ And the king of Assyria ^y sent Tartan, and Rabarisar, and Rab-shakeh, from Lachish to king Hezekiah, with a great host against Jerusalem: and they went up, and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the ^z conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to ^a them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus ^b saith the great ^c king, the king of Assyria, What ^d confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou sayest (but they are but vain ^e words,) I have ^f counsel and strength for the war. Now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the ^h staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he whose high places and ⁱ whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away; and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship ^j before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The ^k LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we ^l understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may ^m eat their own dung, and drink their ⁿ own piss, with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for ^o he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, ^p Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern;

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land; a land of corn ^q and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33 Hath any of ^r the gods of the nations delivered livered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of ^a Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of ^a Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they, among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people ^a held their peace, and ^a answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, with their clothes [†] rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

C H A P. XIX.

1 Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them. 6 Isaiah comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib going to encounter Tirhakah, sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 20 Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib and the good of Zion. 35 An angel slayeth the Assyrians. 36 Sennacherib is slain at Nineveh by his own sons.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah ^a heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went ^b into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to ^c Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of ^d trouble, and of ^{||} rebuke, and ^e blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not ^f strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD ^g thy God ^h will hear all the ⁱ words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach ^j the living God; and will ^k reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the ^l remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not ^m afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have ⁿ blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send [†] a blast upon him, and he shall hear a ^o rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from ^p Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight ^q against thee; [†] he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not ^r thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which ^s my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and ^t Haran, and Rezep, and the children of ^u Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before ^v the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which ^y dwell between the cherubims, thou ^{art} the God, even thou ^z alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast ^a made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow down ^b thine ear, and hear: ^c open, LORD, thine eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have ^d destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have [†] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but ^e the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD ^f our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that ^g all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou ^{art} the LORD God, even thou only.

20 Then ^h Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That ⁱ which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The ^j virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised ^k thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken ^l her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lift up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy ^m One of Israel.

23 By thy ⁿ messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the ^o multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the ^p tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his ^q Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange ^r waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that ^s thou shouldst be to lay waste fenced cities into ruins.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of a small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thine nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

35 And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XX.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 12 Berodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah, because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures. 14 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity. 20 Manasseh succeedeth Hezekiah.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah, the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee; on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: Shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD; and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

12 ¶ At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken.

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Manasseh's reign. 3 His great idolatry. 10 His wickedness causeth prophecies against Judah. 17 Amon succedeth him. 19 Amon's wicked reign.

23 He being slain by his servants, and those murderers slain by the people, Josiah is made king.

MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put my name.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols;

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin, wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked in all the ways that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre, in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXII.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He taketh care for the repair of the temple. 8 Hilkiah having found the book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to inquire of the Lord. 15 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but respite thereof in Josiah's time.

JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 And it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son cities of Judah, and defiled the [†] high places where the priests had burnt incense, from ^g Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places [†] came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they [†] did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled [†] Topheth, which is in the valley of the children [†] of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to [†] Molech.

11 And he took away the [†] horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the [†] top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which [†] Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of [†] Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for [†] Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the [†] bones of men.

15 Moreover, the [†] altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD, which the man of God proclaimed, who ^{||} proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the [†] sepulchre of the man of God which came from Judah, and proclaimed [†] these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man [†] move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the [†] prophet that came out of [†] Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the [†] cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And he ^{||} slew [†] all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the [†] passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the [†] book of the covenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover [†] from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in [†] Jerusalem.

24 Moreover, the workers with [†] familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the [†] law which were written in the book that [†] Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 And [†] like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD [†] with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his [†] might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

26 [†] Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the [†] provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove [†] Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed [†] Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, [†] My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In [†] his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he [†] slew him at Megiddo, when he had [†] seen him.

30 And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took ^{||} Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 [†] Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned [†] three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of [†] Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that [†] his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in [†] bands at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and ^o turned his name to ^o Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and ^p died there.

35 And Jehoiakim ^q gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

36 ¶ Jehoiakim ^r was ^r twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiiah of Rumah.

37 And he did that ^s which was ^s evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Jehoiakim, first subdued by Nebuchadnezzar, then rebelling against him, procureth his own ruin. 6 Jehoiachin succedeth him. 7 The king of Egypt is vanquished by the king of Babylon. 8 Jehoiachin's evil reign. 10 Jerusalem is taken, and carried captive into Babylon. 17 Zedekiah is made king, and reigneth ill, unto the utter destruction of Judah.

IN ^a his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^b came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And ^c the LORD sent against him ^d bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his ^e servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came ^f this upon Judah, to remove ^f them ^f out of his sight for the sins of ^g Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 And also for the ^h innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood,) which the LORD would ⁱ not pardon.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, ^j are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim ^k slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came ^l not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken, from the river of Egypt unto the ^m river Euphrates, ⁿ all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 ¶ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign: and he reigned in Jerusalem ^o three months. And his mother's name was Nehushtha, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that ^p which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that ^p his father had done.

10 ¶ At ^q that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon (322) came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers; and the king of Babylon ^r took him in the eighth year of ^r his reign.

13 And he carried out thence ^s all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasure of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, ^t even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the ^t poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away ^u Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land: ^u those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the ^v men of might, ^v even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand; all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah ^x his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah ^y was ^y twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was ^y Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that ^z which was ^z evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiachin had done.

20 For ^z through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled ^z against the king of Babylon.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Jerusalem is besieged; 4 Zedekiah taken, his sons slain, and his eyes put out. 8 Nebuzar-adan defaceth the city, carrieth the remnant, except a few poor labourers, into captivity; 13 spoileth and carrieth away the treasures. 18 The nobles are slain at Riblah. 22 Gedaliah, who was set over them that remained, being slain, the rest flee into Egypt. 27 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin in his court.

AND it came to pass, in the ^a ninth year of his reign, in the tenth ^b month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built ^c forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the ^d eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the ^e fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was ^e no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the city was ^f broken up, and all the ^f men of war fled ^f by night, by the way of the gate,

- 5 And the army of the Chaldees ^p pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.
- 6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they [†] gave judgment upon him.
- 7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and ^m put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and ⁿ bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.
- 8 And in the ^o fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, (which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:
- 9 And he ^p burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and ^q every great man's house burnt he with fire.
- 10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down ^r the walls of Jerusalem round about.
- 11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the ^s fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, carry away.
- 12 But the captain of the guard left of the ^t poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.
- 13 And the ^u pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the ^v brazen sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.
- 14 And the ^y pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.
- 15 And the ^z fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were [†] of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.
- 16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
- 17 The height of the one pillar was ^a eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.
- 18 And the captain of the guard took ^b Seraiah the ^c chief priest, and Zephaniah the ^d second priest, and the three keepers of the [†] door:
- 19 And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and ^e five men of them that were [†] in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the ^f principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:
- 20 And Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.
- 21 And the king of Babylon ^g smote them, and slew them at Riblah, in the land of Hamath. So ^h Judah was carried away out of their land.
- 22 And as for the people that ⁱ remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made ^k Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.
- 23 And when all the ^l captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah, to ^m Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the ⁿ Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maacha-thite, they and their men.
- 24 And Gedaliah ^o sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.
- 25 But it came to pass, in the ^p seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed [†] royal, came, and ten men with him, and ^q smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.
- 26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to ^r Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.
- 27 [†] And it came to pass, in the ^s seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that ^t Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did ^u lift up the ^v head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;
- 28 And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;
- 29 And ^w changed his prison-garments: and he did eat ^x bread continually before him all the days of his life.
- 30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, ^y a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with ^f Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were ^g helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they ^h cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they ⁱ put their trust in him.

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of ^j asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the ^k war was of God. And they dwelt ^l in their steads ^m until the captivity.

23 ¶ And the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Beban unto Baal-hermon, and ⁿ Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, ^o famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went ^p a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel ^q stirred up the spirit of ^r Pol king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tigath-pileser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, (even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh), and brought them unto ^s Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of ^l Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of ^m Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the ⁿ Netophathites.

17 And the ^o porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 (Who hitherto waited in ^p the king's gate eastward:) they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, (of the house of his father,) the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their ^q fathers, being over the host of the Lord, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ^r ruler over them in time past, and the Lord was ^s with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these, which were chosen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages; whom ^t David and ^u Samuel the seer [†] did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, namely, the house of the ^v tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the ^w chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every [†] morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ^x ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the ^a pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites were over the ^b shew-bread, to prepare it every [†] sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the ^c chambers were free; for they [†] were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations: these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 ¶ And in ^d Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose [†] wife's name was Maachah:

36 And his first-born son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and ^e Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and ^f Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat [†] Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza;

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleash his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and [†] Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag.
23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

NOW these are they that ^acame to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close, because of ^aSaul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the ^dright hand and the left in ^ehurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the ^fGibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite,

4 And Ismaiah the ^gGibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabab the ^hGederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Jozabab, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the ^khold to the wilderness, men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose ^lfaces were like the faces of lions, and were as ^{||}swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one ^{||} of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the ^mfirst month, when it had overflowed ⁿall his banks; and they put to flight all ^{||} them of the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come ^{||} peaceably unto me to help me, ⁿmine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong ^pin mine hands, the God of our fathers look ^qthereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit ^{||}came upon Amasai, who was chief ^r of the captains, and he said, Thine ^sare we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to ^tthine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them ^ucaptains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines, upon advisement, sent him away, saying, He will fall ^vto his master Saul, to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to ^vZiklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David ^{||}against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty ^amen of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time, day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a ^bgreat host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn ^cthe kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six ^dthousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had ^h understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, ^k eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; and ^{||} meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was ^l joy in Israel.

C H A P. XIII.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed-edom.

AND David ^a consulted with the captains of ^b thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it ^b seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are ^c left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we ^d inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David ^e gathered all Israel together, from ^f Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from ^g Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to ^h Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that ⁱ dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they [†] carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played ^k before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza ^l put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the ^m anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, ⁿ because he put his hand to the ark: and there he ^o died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom ^p in his house three months. And the LORD ^q blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that ¹David was anointed king over all Israel, ^kall the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the ¹valley of Rephaim.

10 And David ^minquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place || Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their ^agods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire.

13 And the Philistines ^eyet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and ^pcome upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear ^aa sound of going in the ^ttops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the ^afame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the ^tfear of him upon all nations.

C H A P. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom: 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy: 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the ^acity of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a ^btent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the ^eLevites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David ^dgathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the ^echildren of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of ^cKobah; Uriel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of ^eMerari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of ^bGershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sons of ⁱEliaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred.

9 Of the sons of ^cHebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren, fourscore.

10 Of the sons of ⁱUzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for ^mZadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites; ^asanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye ^edid it not at the first, the LORD our God made ^pa breach upon us, for that we sought him not ^aafter the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites ^asanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the ^aLevites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, ^aas Moses commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the ^asingers with instruments of music, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed ^aHeman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, ^yAsaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, ^eEthan the son of Kusaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah; and Obed-edom and Jeiel the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; 20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on || Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the ^aSheminit to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was ^tfor song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the ^btrumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

25 ¶ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom ^ewith joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped ^dthe Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered ^eseven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with f chap. 13, 8. sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing: and she ^s despised him in her heart.

1 David's festival sacrifice: 4 He ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO they ^s brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered ^b burnt-sacrifices and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he ^c blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he ^d dealt to every one of Israel, both man and ^e woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to ^f record, and to thank and praise the ^g LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom; and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priest with trumpets ^b continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day ⁱ David delivered ^k first this psalm, to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give ^l thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, ^m make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ⁿ ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and ^o his strength, seek his ^p face continually.

12 Remember ^q his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the ^r judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of ^s Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob his ^t chosen ones.

14 He ^u is the LORD our God; his judgments ^v are in all the ^w earth.

15 Be ye ^x mindful always of his covenant, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the ^y covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath ^z confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but few, even a few, and ^a strangers in it.

20 And when they went from ^b nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered ^c no man to do them wrong; yea, he ^d reprov'd kings for their sakes, 22 Saying, Touch not mine ^e anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great ^f is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also ^g is to be feared ^h above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people ⁱ are idols: but the LORD ^j made the heavens.

27 Glory ^k and honour ^l are in his presence; strength and gladness ^m are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD ⁿ glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory ^o due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be ^p stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the ^q heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD ^r reigneth.

32 Let the sea ^s roar, and the fulness thereof; let the fields rejoice, and all that ^t is therein.
